A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

It is a pleasure for me to introduce our new Associate Pastor: Rev. Azam Vianney Mansha, CJM. He begins his ministry with us on September 1. Fr. Azam was born in 1985 in Karachi, Pakistan. He has four brothers and a sister; he is in the middle.

I came to know him when he entered the Eudist formation program in the Philippines. I was his director of formation there as well as assisting him when he was working on his Licentiate in Sacred Theology with a specialization in Biblical Theology at Loyola School of Theology in Manila. His thesis was entitled: "The Mother of Jesus," "His Mother," and "The Woman" : An Attempt to Understand Johannine Mariology (I was his thesis editor.)

Fr. Azam was ordained a priest in the Philippines (in the midst of the pandemic) on February 8, 2021. He spent his first year as a priest there while serving at the Eudist retreat house near Manila.

I think you will find him to be an outgoing person, always eager to help wherever he can. You will get to know him quickly. He enjoys teaching, preaching and cooking. One of these days we will ask him to make some Pakistani food for us.

He has written many articles, especially in the areas of biblical theology and Mariology (the study of Mary). I am sure that you will learn a lot from him and be touched by his compassion and care for people of all ages. St. Patrick's is his first full-time parish assignment. We have an opportunity to benefit from his zeal and enthusiasm. We also have the opportunity to help in the ongoing formation of this dedicated newly ordained priest.

We welcome Fr. Azam to St. Patrick Parish and assure him of our prayers for him as well as our collaboration in the work of the Gospel.

In one Heart

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

Jesús les dijo, “Cuando te inviten, ocupa el último lugar, para que, cuando venga el que te invitó, te diga: ‘Amigo, acércate a la cabecera’. Entonces te verás honrado en presencia de todos los invitados. Porque el que se engrandece a sí mismo, será humillado; y el que se humilla, será engrandecido”. Jesús siempre nos habla de la necesidad de ser humildes. Jesús sabe que el ser humana es frágil y débil y fácilmente caí en la tentación de sentirse poderoso para controlar a otros. En el Evangelio de este domingo, san Lucas nos dice que uno de los fariseos invita a Jesús y a otros a su casa para comer. Para los invitados era importante tomar los primeros asientos. ¿Por qué? A veces queremos los primeros asientos para ver y escuchar mejor. Pero, a veces queremos los primeros asientos para “sentirnos mejor”, para que otros vean que “soy uno de los preferidos”, y que “soy alguien del grupito” y estoy enterrado de las cosas más intimas. Y de allí, me viene el poder. Pero Jesús nos habla de otro tipo de banquete. Un banquete en que todos los pobres, los ignorados y despreciados del mundo, son invitados y tienen su asiento. Nos dice Jesús que ninguno de ellos podrá repagarnos un cinco, pero nuestra recompensa es el cielo. Es estando atentos a las necesidades de los más pobres, que nuestro corazón se llenará de un tesoro más valioso que el tesoro de este mundo. Y ¿por qué nos habla Jesús de esto? Por qué allí está Dios, en cada uno de ellos. No nos preocupemos de los primeros asientos de este mundo, más bien poner nuestros ojos en los asientos del Banquete del cielo.

- Diacono Miguel Enríquez

Outreach with Synod Survey

As a part of the Synod process, our Diocese continues to seek the feedback of as many people as possible. That is why Cardinal designate McElroy is encouraging that each and everyone of us participate in a survey that will further assist the church in better ministering at all levels. All those who receive our parish email newsletter will receive the survey sent directly to them in early September.

But we want to reach out beyond those who are coming to church and active in the parish. We want to hear from those members who have distanced themselves from the Catholic Church or perhaps left the Catholic faith completely. Their voices matter to us!

We invite you to help in this effort. Please use the following QR code to personally invite someone who may not otherwise know of this opportunity to take the survey.

A paper with the QR code can also be found in the pews of the church during the month of September. They are also available in the parish office. Take as many as you like. Let's be proactive and invite family members, friends or neighbors to share their input.

The survey will be open online for 30 days beginning September 6. We look forward to hearing from you!

Please consider volunteering with our Showers of Blessings partner in Encinitas, located at St. Andrews Episcopal Church, 890 Balour Dr. from 8am till noon on Saturdays. You'll be partnered with a mentor for training and students can earn Community Outreach credits (hours). To get involved as a volunteer, please visit St Andrew's website, click on "Get Involved", then "Outreach: Helping Others", then "Showers of Blessings" and click the green tab labeled "Volunteer Info", which will bring you to the Sign-up Genius website, which includes a list of volunteer positions and duties by date (or contact Joe Arlauskas at 760-845-2197 for more info)

Have you wondered about becoming a Catholic?

- Do you have a family member who is considering the Catholic faith?
- Were you baptized but never receive Christian formation or the other sacraments?
- Are you an adult who was never confirmed?

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

If you answered "yes" to any of these questions or if you just have a lot of questions about being Catholic, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is for you. A new group is forming now. They will meet every Tuesday beginning in September and continuing until Easter 2023.

If you would like to know more about it, contact Brick Langford at 760-607-9287 or carlsbadbrick@gmail.com.

The Knights of Columbus would like to extend a huge Thank You to the Parish community for their continued support and for their generous contributions to Birth Choice. Reflection: 22nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

It is common to expect a tradeoff when favors are granted, or gifts given. Jesus is asking for a different way how we treat each other. As his disciples he challenges us to see and act with the mind of love. God showers us with overabundant gifts from his divine heart that overflows with love. We can never repay him. However, we can imitate God's generosity and humbly serve each other.

Adults: What does it mean to be exalted in God's eyes?

Children: What generous act could you do this week?

Prayer Intention: Holy Spirit, help us to be generous without expecting repayment

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year C

First Reading

Sirach 3:17-18,20,28-29

Humble yourself and you will find favor with God

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 68:4-7,10-11

The just rejoice and exult before God.

Second Reading

Hebrews 12:18-19,22-24

You have approached Mount Zion and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem.

Gospel Reading

Luke 14:1,7-14

When you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Meals played an important role in the society in which Jesus lived. More than a time for sharing nourishment, they were a time to share ideas and to model different aspects of social relationships. In Luke's Gospel, the places that a person ate (at the home of a tax collector, 5:29), the people with whom a person ate (sinners, 5:30), whether a person washed before eating (11:38), and, as is the case here, the place that a person sits while eating are all important. The narrator says Jesus tells a parable, but it is really wise advice to both guests and hosts about finding true happiness at the heavenly banquet.

Jesus warns guests to wait before taking their places at the table lest they be asked to move if someone more important arrives. This is more than just a lesson about dinner etiquette. It is advice on how to find your true place in the Kingdom of God. Jesus advises hosts not to invite people who would be expected to repay them to dinner but to invite those who could not repay: the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. This is where real blessings can be found.

In these sayings, Luke gives us not only advice on how to approach the end times but also on how to live according to Jesus' vision of a good society. Luke's Gospel also advises us how the Church must be part of bringing about this society. It is yet another example in Luke's Gospel of the reversal the kingdom brings about.
