A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

In the Catholic Church we observe the Sunday between January 21-27 as Word of God Sunday. While we have many ways to draw closer to God, The Bible and the Sacraments hold a special place. This Sunday (January 22) is an opportunity for us to remind ourselves that God's Word in the Bible is a treasured source of holiness for us all.

As we observe this Sunday of the Word of God, I'd like to say a word about the two places that we are most likely to encounter God's Word: at Mass and at home.

In speaking about the proclamation of God's Word during the Liturgy of the Word at Mass, Pope Francis tells that "The pages of the Bible cease to be writings and become living words, spoken by God. It is God, who through the reader, speaks to us and questions us, we who listen with faith." He reminds us that "we must listen to the Gospel with an open heart, because it is the living Word. Saint Augustine writes: 'The Gospel is the mouth of Christ. He is seated in heaven, but he has not stopped speaking on earth.'"

Pope Francis vividly describes the power of the Word of God: it "makes a pathway within us. We listen to it with our ears and it passes to our hearts; it does not remain in our ears; it must go to the heart. And from the heart, it passes to the hands, to good deeds. This is the path which the Word of God follows: from our ears to our heart and hands... The Lord comforts, calls, brings forth sprouts of a new and reconciled life. And this is through his Word. His Word knocks at the heart and changes hearts!" We need to allow God's Word to touch us.

Although it was not the case when I was a child, I bet that almost every home in our parish has a Bible. (That's an important development for us as Catholics.) Do we consider the Bible a treasure, a special table around which the family gathers? Is the family Bible among your home's most valuable possessions? As we consider practical ways to share the Word of God at home, perhaps we will be surprised to discover that the family Bible, regardless of whether it is prominently displayed or is gathering dust on a shelf, is one of the most valuable spiritual treasures in a Christian home. We need to make use of it in our homes. Whether it is individuals who read the Bible alone or the family which uses it as part of its prayer together, the treasures of the Bible open up before us. It is another opportunity for the power of God's Word to transform us. Check out the videos produced by the US Bishops which are described on page 5.

On this Word of God Sunday, I encourage you to make a New Year's resolution to be more attentive to God's Word this year as it is proclaimed in church and to allow it to have a special place in your home.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

“Una vez que Jesús caminaba por la ribera del mar de Galilea, vio a dos hermanos, Simón, llamado después Pedro, y Andrés, los cuales estaban echando las redes al mar, porque eran pescadores.

Jesús les dijo: “Sígueme y los haré pescadores de hombres”. Ellos inmediatamente dejaron las redes y lo siguieron”. Mateo 4:-19.

Este Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, el Evangelio nos habla de Jesús que camina a un lado del mar y ve a unos pescadores trabajando duro, profesionales en su oficio, pero al escuchar a Jesús que los invita a que lo sigan y que “los hará pescadores de hombres”. Ellos dejan todo para seguirlo. Ellos son enviados a llevar la Buena Nueva, esa luz de salvación, a todos los hombres y mujeres. Y siempre quedo admirado en la manera que ellos dejan todo para seguir a Jesús. Sabemos que no siempre fue fácil para ellos, también tuvieron experiencias con Jesús que les causaba duda y temor. Pero perseveraban, confiaban en Jesús y en sus promesas. Tú y yo, por medio de nuestro bautismo, también somos invitados, a dejarlo todo para y seguir a Jesús. ¿Qué significa dejar todo? Dejar esas cosas que me esclavizan y me llevan a esos lugares oscuros, esas cosas que me apartan de Dios. La pregunta para nosotros es, ¿Cuáles son esas cosas y actitudes que nos apartan de Dios? Por ser bautizados, somos enviados a llevar esa luz de Cristo a todos. No nos preocupemos si tendremos las palabras correctas, luchemos para mantener el corazón abierto, para que Dios lo llene de amor, y miraremos que nuestras palabras y acciones también serán amorosas.

Reflection: Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Jesus begins his public life by preaching in Galilee and calling his first followers. His first message to God's people is powerful: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand ". To "repent" means a profound change of mind and heart to arrange one's life according to the holiness and love of God. Matthew identifies Jesus as "the great light" foretold by the prophet Isaiah for all who are in darkness. Many people in our world suffer from poverty, violence, and despair. Jesus, the light of God, who was born 2000 years ago, is still bringing light and hope into dark places.

Children: What could you do for someone this week that would tell them something about Jesus?

Adults: In what areas of our life are you struggling? How can you make a new beginning? How is Jesus a light for you?

Prayer: Lord Jesus, you are our light, our life, and our hope.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

First Reading

Isaiah 8:23-9:3

The people in darkness have seen a great light.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalms 27:1, 4, 13-14

The Lord is our refuge, our light, our salvation.

Second Reading

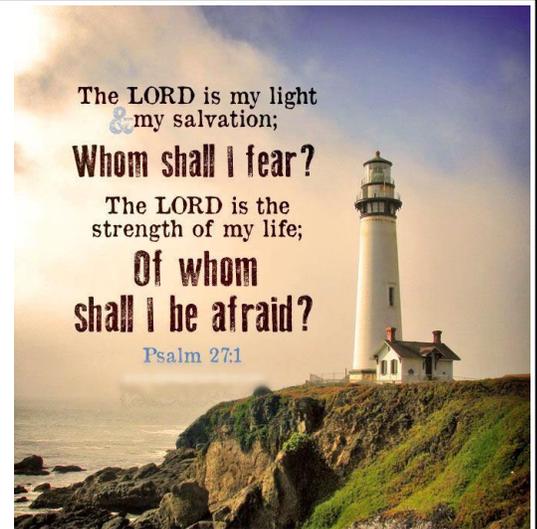

1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17

Paul urges the community at Corinth to be united as people baptized in Christ's name.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 4:12-23

Jesus begins to preach in Galilee and calls his first disciples.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel describes the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. In the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke (called the Synoptic Gospels), Jesus' public ministry begins after his baptism by John the Baptist and after his retreat to the desert where he was tempted by the devil. When Jesus returns from the desert, he hears that John has been arrested.

The first part of today's Gospel places Jesus' ministry in the context of the writings of the prophet, Isaiah. Matthew wants to show that Jesus is the fulfillment of the prophecies given to the people of Israel, and he refers to Isaiah to do so. Isaiah says that the Messiah will begin his ministry in Galilee, the land of the Gentiles. When Jesus begins to preach in Galilee, Matthew points to his ministry as a fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy, proof that Jesus is the Messiah.

When Jesus called his first disciples, the Gospel tells us that the fishermen (Peter and Andrew, James and John) dropped everything to follow Jesus immediately. Yet this Gospel tells us little about the prior experience that the fishermen had of Jesus. Did they know him? Had they heard him preach? What kind of person must Jesus have been to invoke such a response? We can imagine that Jesus was a powerful presence to elicit a response as immediate and complete as these first disciples gave.

The Gospel concludes with a description of the ministry that Jesus begins in Galilee. Jesus inaugurates the Kingdom of God with his work. He teaches in the synagogue and preaches the kingdom. His ability to cure people's diseases and illness is a sign of the kingdom. In Jesus' ministry, we already begin to see the Kingdom of God among us.
