A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

This Sunday's Scripture readings direct our attention to the need to pray. But why do we need to pray? This is a question many Christians, as well as people with other beliefs, have asked. If God is in control of human history and also directs individual lives, what's the point of praying? The answer lies in our understanding what prayer is.

If we see prayer merely as a means of taking some level of control of life and the world — as a means of leverage — then we will inevitably be troubled by what appears to be unanswered prayer. But if we see prayer primarily as an ongoing conversation with God, then we realize that there is really no such thing as an unanswered prayer.

The classic definitions of prayer speak of "lifting our hearts and minds to God" Repeating the words of many saints before him, St. John Eudes called prayer "the Christian soul's tender dialogue, holy communication, and divine conversation with God." For that reason, he stressed that prayer is "as necessary as the air you breathe." Just as no human life can exist without breathing, so also a Christian's spiritual life will not survive without prayer.

The first reading and the gospel for this Sunday stress the need to be persistent in prayer. But why is persistence important? Is it because it takes a while to convince God to hear us? Should we keep praying until we change God's mind?

God does not change his mind in response to our prayers or our actions. Though Scripture sometimes speaks as if he does, this language is figurative, not literal. If he did change his mind, that would mean that God had imperfect knowledge. A wise spiritual teacher has said, "Prayer does not change God. It changes me."

Our prayer, understood as "tender dialogue, holy communication," helps us understand and love God more. Sometimes, it takes some time for us to align our will with the will of God. Every prayer of petition is simply an act of trust in God who provides for all our needs. And, of course, we also need to persistently offer prayers of praise, thanksgiving and adoration to the God who loved us into being and who sustains us in life until we reach our everlasting home.

So let us be persistent in prayer. That daily loving dialogue with God will attune us to God's voice, strengthen our relationship with God, and fill us with joy.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

Dicho esto, Jesús comentó: "Si así pensaba el juez injusto, ¿creen acaso que Dios no hará justicia a sus elegidos, que claman a Él día y noche, y que los hará esperar? Yo les digo que les hará justicia sin tardar. Pero, cuando venga el Hijo del Hombre, ¿creen ustedes que encontrará fe sobre la tierra?" Hemos leído en la Biblia, y se nos ha dicho, especialmente cuando necesitamos algo urgente, que tenemos que "orar fuerte", con "todo nuestro corazón" para que seamos escuchados. Oramos como se nos dice, pero no se cumple lo que pedimos; a veces la enfermedad continúa, o muere la persona que amamos aun con nuestras "oraciones fuertes y con todo el corazón". Y nos sentimos mal, pensamos que no supimos orar y Dios no nos escuchó. Y dudamos de la promesa de Dios, que iba a estar con nosotros siempre y nos sentimos defraudados por Dios. Estos pensamientos nuestros, no son correctos, pero marcan nuestra vida e influyen nuestra fe negativamente. Los invito a recordar la historia de la Última Cena, Jesús antes de ser arrestado, condenado, y crucificado, deseaba con todo su corazón tener esta cena con sus discípulos. Que por medio de este pan y vino que iban a ser transformados en su Cuerpo y Sangre, era la manera en que Jesús quería hacer esa Nueva Alianza, de que Jesús "iba a estar con nosotros siempre". El mundo en que vivimos no es perfecto, pero en medio de cada situación difícil, mantengamos nuestra mirada en Jesús, en la Eucaristía, en Jesús encontramos todo lo que necesitamos. No paremos de orar, aun cuando nos sentimos que no somos escuchados. Y confiando en la promesa de Dios. Dios está más cerca de lo que pensamos.

The Eudist Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

It was on October 20, 1672 that the first public celebration of a Mass in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus took place. That Mass was composed by St. John Eudes and celebrated in all the parishes and houses of formation that were under the direction of the Congregation of Jesus and Mary. This Thursday marks the 350th anniversary of that first public celebration. We will use that same Mass composed by St. John Eudes. Fr. Ben will preside at the 7:00 am Mass. Fr. Bill will preside at the 8:00 am Mass with Fr. Azam giving the homily. Everyone is welcome to share this feast day.

Reflection: 29th Sunday of Ordinary Time

A lowly widow comes before a judge, seeking her rights. The unwilling judge ignores her, but the widow goes on pleading until he finally decides the case in her favor. Jesus concludes that if a dishonest judge can deliver a just decision to someone who keeps on asking, God will certainly listen to those who persist in prayer. Jesus teaches us that we must pray constantly and not become tired of doing so. Praying is one way that faith can deepen and become stronger. Jesus himself provides a question to reflect and act on for this gospel: "When the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

How will you respond in prayer and kind deeds this week?

Commit to praying the Our Father every day with your family.

Prayer Intention: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year C

First Reading

Exodus 17:8-13

Joshua and the Israelites defeat Amalek with the help of God and his servant, Moses.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 121:1-2,3-4,5-6,7-8

The Lord is the Guardian of Israel.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 3:14—4:2

Paul exhorts Timothy to continue to preach the word Timothy received from his teachers.

Gospel Reading

Luke 18:1-8

Jesus urges his disciples to pray and not lose heart, for God hears and answers prayers.

Background on the Gospel Reading

This is the first of two parables that Jesus tells in Luke 18 about prayer. (The second will be read at Mass next Sunday.) This first parable is a lesson in persistence in prayer. (Next Sunday's parable will address attitude in prayer.) While the parable seems to present prayer as nagging God for what we want, such a reading misses the point. God is not like the judge in the parable, worn down by requests and coerced to respond. The key is found in the description of the judge as corrupt and unjust. Since God can be neither, we must understand Jesus to be saying that if even an unjust judge responds to the persistence of the widow, how much more so will God listen to our prayers. God truly wants to hear our needs and respond generously. It is the final lament of Jesus that gets to the point of the parable. The lesson is about the persistence of the one who prays. God wants us to be like the persistent widow, staying in relationship with God, confident that God hears and answers prayers. Then Jesus laments, "Will such faith be found when the Son of Man comes?" In this lament, Jesus notes how easy it can be for us to lose heart.

Tamale Sale - Pre-Order: on Saturday, November 5th.

The Spanish Ministries of our parish will be selling tamales on Saturday, November 5th, 2022. All funds raised will go towards Our Lady of Guadalupe festivities. Pork and chicken traditional Mexican tamales wrapped in a corn husk are sold at $25.00 adozen, or $3.00 each individual tamale. Place your order by calling Lola, 1-760-712-2029. Last day to pre-order is November 3rd, 2022.

Tamales will be ready to be picked up on November 5th, between 1:00pm - 6:30pm in the Parish Hall kitchen

Tamale Sale - Pre-Order: on Saturday, November 5th.

St. Patrick's Bingo has been providing scholarship support to our parish school for over 40 years. During that time, we have donated over 4 million to the school mostly in the form of scholarships to parish families who need a little help to make sure their children get a Catholic education. Plus close to that amount to the parish in general for many other different projects.

Join us in the parish hall every Friday night for a prize pool of more than $6000. Doors open at 4pm, early birds start at 6pm regular games start at 6:30pm.

Reportando denuncias de conducta sexual inapropiada:
