A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

October is the month of the Holy Rosary and October 7 is the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. Praying the rosary is a cherished part of our Catholic tradition that goes way back. This prayer actually finds its roots in the liturgical prayer of the Church. In the medieval period, there was a desire to give the laity a form of common prayer similar to that of the monks in the monasteries. Monastic prayer was structured around the Psalter—the recitation of all 150 psalms from the Bible. At that time, however, most laity could not afford a Psalter, and most could not even read.

As a parallel to the monastic reading of the 150 psalms, the practice developed among the laity of praying the Our Father 150 times throughout the day. This devotion came to be known as “the poor man’s breviary.” And the laity eventually were given beads to help them count their prayers.

Marian devotion followed a similar pattern. Gabriel’s words, “Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you” (Luke 1:28), sometimes were read in the monasteries at the end of a psalm, showing how the psalms found fulfillment in the New Testament with the coming of Christ through the Virgin Mary. Some laity began to recite these words in the manner of the Our Father—150 times, while counting their prayers on beads. In repeating the words of Gabriel, they were reliving the joy of the annunciation and celebrating the mystery of God becoming human in Mary’s womb.

The monks also had the custom of adding a phrase from the New Testament to the end of each psalm to identify it with a mystery from the life of Christ and his Mother. To simplify this practice for the ordinary Christian, the number of mysteries was reduced to fifteen, with 10 Hail Mary’s linked to each mystery. That parallels the 150 psalms of the monks. For many centuries the number of mysteries remained at 15 until Pope John Paul II added five more mysteries – the Luminous Mysteries– in 2002.

The mysteries of the rosary are there for our meditation while we recite the decade of Hail Mary’s like a mantra. St. John Eudes gives us an idea about meditating on mysteries. He said that every mystery of the life of Jesus or Mary has two dimensions: 1) the exterior dimension (the actual historical event) and 2) the interior dimension (what was going on in the heart of Jesus or Mary when the event took place). The exterior dimension is finished and unrepeatable. But the interior dimension is something that we can imitate in our own lives.

For example, in meditating on the Annunciation to Mary, we might recall how wonderful that event was for Mary and we can thank God for Mary’s “yes” to God’s plan. But meditating on the interior dimension invites us to go deeper and consider the interior sentiments or feelings of Mary at that moment; e.g. her docility to God’s plan, her humility, her recognition that she was God’s servant, and so on. Those interior elements we can try to replicate in our own hearts and minds. We can pray that God will give us the grace to live these virtues as we reflect on the lives of Jesus and Mary.

Take some time during this month of October to pick up your rosary and pray it with devotion. Try to delve deeper into the mysteries we recall.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

En aquel tiempo, cuando Jesús iba de camino a Jerusalén, pasó entre Samaria y Galilea. Estaba cerca de un pueblo, cuando le salieron al encuentro diez leprosos, los cuales se detuvieron a lo lejos y a gritos le decían: “Jesús, maestro, ten compasión de nosotros”. Al verlos, Jesús les dijo: “Vayan a presentarse a los sacerdotes”. Mientras iban de camino, quedaron limpios de la lepra. Este domingo escuchamos la historia de los diez leprosos que quedan sanados, y sólo uno, un extranjero, regresa a darle las gracias a Jesús. ¿Por qué no regresaron los otros nueve a darle las gracias a Jesús? Es fácil juzgarlos como unos malagradecidos. Pero ¿cómo actuamos nosotros con los favores y sanaciones que recibimos de Dios? Algunas veces somos como el extranjero, reconocemos el favor y la grandeza de Dios, le alabamos y permitamos que esa bendición cambie nuestra vida y nuestra manera de ser. Pero en otras ocasiones, desafortunadamente, nuestra actitud es más como la de los otros nueve, le suplicamos a Dios que nos ayude y que nos conceda lo que necesitamos. Después de recibirlo nuestras gracias son rápidas y ligeras. O, se nos olvida darle las gracias y continuamos con “nuestra vida”, así como la de los otros nueve leprosos. Este domingo, tomemos tiempo de reflexionar y mirar las “diferentes lepras” que existen en nuestra vida. Quizás no miramos las llagas de lepra en nuestro cuerpo, pero es necesario mirar esas llagas de pecado que nos separan y nos roban la paz. Cristo quiere sanarnos, desea con ansias decirnos lo que le dijo al leproso, “Levántate y vete. Tu fe te ha salvado”.

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

Altars para el Día de los Muertos

Did You Know?

St. Patrick Parish can offer Holy Communion with low gluten hosts. This is specifically for those who are gluten intolerant. The host is consecrated in a separate pyx to avoid cross contamination and it is consecrated at the specific Mass during which it will be received.

If you or someone in your family needs to receive a low gluten host, come to the sacristy 15 minutes before Mass begins or call the parish office during the week prior to the Mass they will attend. If you have any questions, contact Fr. Ron at the parish office and he can explain how it works. It is quite simple, and we are happy to provide this service.

Reflection: 28th Sunday of Ordinary Time

In Jesus' time, lepers were outcasts and cutoff from their immediate family and wider community. This Sunday's gospel tells of a miraculous healing of ten lepers. They cry out to Jesus for help. Jesus hears their cries. He tells them to show themselves to the priest, who will witness their healed condition and allow them back into their communities. Ten lepers were healed; only one leper, a Samaritan, returns to Jesus to praise and thank God. Jesus points out that the Samaritan leper has gained something far more important than a physical cure; he has gained eternal salvation. Salvation is offered to each of us if we desire to know God, turn to him, and respond to his love and mercy.

Children: Can you think of some reasons why the other nine lepers did not return to thank Jesus?

Parents: Do you turn to Jesus to guide you?

Prayer Intention: Loving Father, give us grace to trust in your mercy.

We offer faith formation for children in preschool through middle school. LIFE-LONG PARISHIONERS

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year C

First Reading

2 Kings 5:14-17

Naaman is cleansed of his leprosy and chooses to serve the God of Israel.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 98:1,2-3,3-4

Rejoice! The salvation of God is made known to all.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 2:8-13

Those who remain faithful to Christ will share Christ's glory.

Gospel Reading

Luke 17:11-19

Jesus heals 10 lepers, and one, the Samaritan, returns to give thanks.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today we hear about how Jesus, continuing on his journey to Jerusalem, heals 10 lepers. This story is a lesson about faith and reminds us that faith is sometimes found in unlikely places. Ten people afflicted with leprosy cry out to Jesus. Struck with pity, Jesus heals all 10. However, only one is described as glorifying God and returning to thank Jesus. The one who returns is a Samaritan, a foreigner. In the Jewish circles in which Jesus lived, Samaritans were looked down upon because of the differences between the two communities in their observance of Judaism. It is significant, therefore, that Jesus commends the Samaritan for his faith, which has been his salvation. Throughout Luke's Gospel, faith is found in surprising places.

Another lesson for us in this Gospel has to do with salvation. All 10 of the lepers were given the gift of healing, but in his gratitude to God for this gift, the Samaritan found salvation. Our salvation is found in recognizing the gifts we have been given and knowing to whom we must offer our thanks.
