A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

As I mentioned in last week's newsletter, on June 24 this year the Church throughout the world celebrated the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. On the next day, the Church celebrates the feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. These two feasts are linked and observed every year on succeeding days.

You may recall that St. John Eudes was the first person in the history of the Church to compose Masses and Liturgy of the Hours for the celebration of these feasts. The first Mass in honor of the Immaculate Heart of Mary was on February 8, 1648. Awhile later, the first public celebration of the Sacred Heart of Jesus took place on October 20, 1672.

The Congregation of Jesus and Mary (Eudist Fathers) takes great pride in our heritage which is rooted in the love of the Heart of Jesus and Mary. (St. John Eudes often spoke of one Heart of Jesus and Mary as a way of indicating the close connection between Jesus and his Mother.) This Spirituality of the Heart forms the foundation of our apostolic work. St. John Eudes founded our Congregation for the work of evangelization and the formation of good ministers for the Gospel. The love of the hearts of Jesus and Mary impels us to continue the mission of Jesus and his Church.

Every five years, our Congregation has a General Assembly which is composed of about 25 members from across the world. At the Assembly, we elect our Superior General and his council. We also identify goals and task for the next five years. We will be holding our General Assembly on July 3-17 in Rome, Italy. I am honored to have been elected as a delegate. I will be away from the parish from July 2 to 23. I will keep in touch with the office, but you will discover how well the parish will function without me...hehehe. Please keep our meeting in your prayers. May the Holy Spirit guide our deliberations.

Speaking of the Eudists, on behalf of Fr. Edem Afoutou, CJM, pastor of St. Michael Parish in Togo, I want to thank all those who generously donated toward the tutoring program for poor children in his parish. Thanks to your great response, we were able to send him more than twice what we first promised him. May God bless all of those who gave a little or a lot. May God continue to bless the ministry of the Eudists in Togo.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

A otro, Jesús le dijo, "Sígueme". Pero él le respondió, "Señor, déjame ir primero a enterrar a mi Padre." Jesús le replicó, "Deja que los muertos entierren a sus muertos. Tú, ve y anuncia el Reino de Dios". Otro le dijo, "Te seguiré, pero déjame primero despedirme de mi familia." Jesús le contestó, "El que empuña el arado y mira hacia atrás, no sirve para el Reino de Dios". Hoy escuchamos estas palabras de Jesús del evangelio de San Lucas, miramos cómo Jesús invita a unos que lo sigan y ellos no le niegan, ni rechazan, la invitación de seguir a Jesús, pero los dos "calculan en su mente" que tienen que hacer algo importante antes de poder seguir a Jesús. Creo que podemos identificarnos con la actitud de estos hombres que dicen, "Si voy, pero déjame hacer esto primero". Quizás hemos escuchado esta respuesta de nuestros hijos cuando les hemos pedido que hagan algo y nos responden, "Si papá/mama, ahorita voy, déjame hacer esto primero". Todos tenemos testimonios de cómo Dios nos ayudado, siempre. Sabemos que Dios nunca nos abandona, que siempre está a mi lado. Ahora, que sabemos esto, nos pide que lo sigamos, que usemos nuestros dones y talentos, para construir el Reino de Dios. El Reino de Dios es reflejar su amor y misericordia a todos, empezando en nuestra casa y luego en nuestra comunidad y parroquia. Jesús te está llamando a que lo sigas, no la pienses, no mires para atrás, sólo para adelante tomado de la mano de Jesús.

Ministerio de Consolación

Cada uno de nosotros vive el duelo de la pérdida de un ser querido de una manera diferente. Algunas personas tratan de lidiar con su dolor por sí mismos y no quieren o no necesitan asistencia de afuera. Sin embargo, muchos otros buscan y encuentran consuelo en compartir su dolor, enojo, depresión u otras emociones que pueden experimentar después de la pérdida de un ser querido. Nos reunimos los jueves a las 7:00pm en el salón Fr. Mullen de la escuela. Para más información, comunícate con Lola Enríquez, 760-712-2029.

Peter's Pence Collection

It is time for the annual Peter's Pence Collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis to carry out his charitable works. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression and disasters. Envelopes for this purpose are included in your packet of envelopes and also at the doors of the church. You can put your envelope in the regular collection any week.

TESTED BY FIRE

Since gold and silver, which are only corruptible metals, are purified and tested by fire, it is but reasonable that our faith, which surpasses all the riches of the world, should be tried.

 Religious Education & Family Ministry
 (PreK – 8th grade)
Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Reflection: Jesus is journeying to Jerusalem with his disciples. Along the way, the disciples get a taste of what it means to follow Jesus. Jesus forgives Samaritans who refuse to welcome him, showing his disciples how to react in unpredicted situations. He then responds to three different people who want to follow him. Right up-front Jesus clarifies that becoming his disciple means putting complete trust in him no matter the importance of other things or relationships. Discipleship means that we trust in Jesus and his way of love, mercy, and forgiveness.
Adults: Who or what helps you trusting Jesus?
Children: What can you do this week to be a stronger follower of Jesus?
Prayer: Lord Jesus, we trust in you.
Liturgy of the Word for children during the 9am Mass
 Children ages 5-9 that attend Mass with their family can hear the Word of God in language they can understand and reflect on in their own words. Following the Opening Prayer, the presider calls forth the children, and we send them along with the adult catechist to the church basement classroom. The catechist will proclaim the readings from the Lectionary for Masses with Children and provide simple age-appropriate activities based on the weekend Scriptures. The children then return to their family at the time of the Offertory to continue the celebration of the Eucharist with the entire assembly.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year C

First Reading

1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21

Elijah anoints Elisha as his successor.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 16:1-2, 5, 7-11

I set the Lord ever before me.

Second Reading

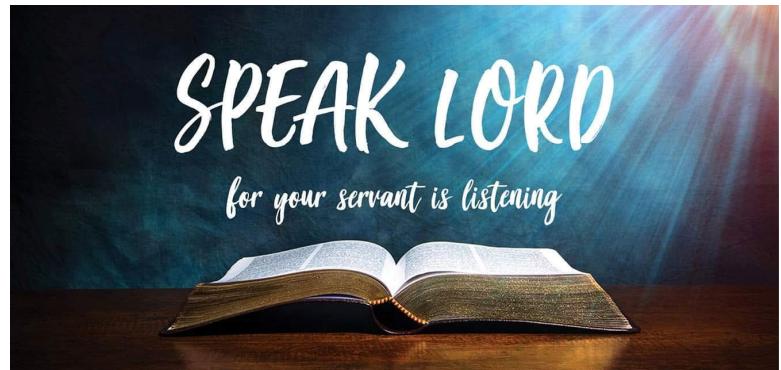

Galatians 5:1, 13-18

Christ has set us free.

Gospel Reading

Luke 9:51-62

Jesus resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel reading begins a long section unique to Luke's Gospel. Jesus begins his journey to Jerusalem, which will end with his ministry in Jerusalem. We read that Jesus' days for being "taken up" were fulfilled. The Greek word that Luke uses for "taken up" is the same word he uses to describe the Ascension. We also read that Jesus is determined to journey to Jerusalem. For Luke, Jesus ministry begins in Galilee and then is one long journey to Jerusalem. In Jerusalem he will meet his death but also enter into his glory. Only in Luke does Jesus then spend 40 days in Jerusalem instructing his disciples. It is in Jerusalem that his disciples wait after his Ascension to be sent the Holy Spirit on Pentecost. And it is from Jerusalem, in Luke's second volume, the Acts of the Apostles, that the Good News is spread to Rome and the ends of the earth.

Immediately Jesus is met with rejection, as a Samaritan village will not receive him because he is going to Jerusalem. There was animosity between Samaritans who worshiped on Mount Gerazim and Jews who worshiped in Jerusalem. Jesus was also rejected as he began his ministry in Galilee in Chapter 4. And he will be rejected for the last time when he reaches Jerusalem. James and John want to call down fire from heaven to destroy the people in the village, but Jesus rebukes them and moves on. There is often the temptation to use violence to achieve right. Jesus has come to break this temptation. He is aware that he must undergo violence himself before he can enter his glory.

The rest of today's reading is about the radical demands of discipleship. The three people who volunteer to become disciples on this journey show that they do not understand the demands Jesus will make of them. Neither care of self, care for the dead, nor care of one's family (as required by the Fourth Commandment) can come before the demands of discipleship. Jesus reminds the first volunteer, who would go wherever Jesus goes, that animals in the wild have more security than do Jesus and his followers. The second, who wants to bury a parent, is reminded that the demands of proclaiming the Kingdom of God take precedence. And the third, who wants to say farewell to his family, is reminded that once you put your hand to the plow you cannot look back or the furrow will be crooked. Such a person is not ready for the Kingdom of God.

Jesus seems harsh here, but he is only asking of his disciples what he asks of himself. Jesus' unconditional commitment to God's saving work will demand of him his life. He knows this, but the disciples do not understand. Jesus does not want anyone to rush into discipleship, because the demands of discipleship require everyone considering it to be aware of the cost, make Jesus and his mission central to his life, and then go forward without looking back.
