A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

Resurrexit sicut dixit! "He has risen just as he said he would!" Those are the joyous words of the first disciples of Jesus on that first Easter morning. They were so happy to know that he was no longer dead but alive. Not only that, but he also did something that nobody ever expected. He did not simply come back to life (like he had done for Lazarus). He rose to a new and more glorious life. It is a life that is free from the limitations of this world. It is a life that will never end. Jesus exceeded everyone's expectations.

Both before and after his death and resurrection, he had assured his disciples that they too would share fully in his death and resurrection. Just as surely as we shall all die one day, so also we will rise in our bodies when Jesus returns to take us home. Our eternal life is not just some type of spiritual ethereal existence. Easter tells us emphatically that, like Jesus, our bodies will rise from the dead. We shall live forever in our resurrected bodies. In the renewal of our baptismal promises on Easter as well as in the Apostles Creed, we profess that we believe in the resurrection of the dead. That means that the resurrection of Jesus has been extended to you and me and all our loved ones as well as to all people.

The resurrection of Jesus teaches us another lesson: if Jesus can conquer death, the ultimate enemy (and he has), then he can conquer every evil in our world. That is why the resurrection of Jesus is the basis for all our hope. No matter what struggles we may face in our personal lives, faith in the risen Jesus will ultimately bring victory. No matter how big the problems of our world seem, Christ gives the hope that we need. Remember, hope means the confidence that the Lord is still in charge. Jesus Christ has triumphed over sin and death, and we share in the victory in a myriad of ways.

And so, we have great reason to rejoice this Easter. But we need to look beyond the struggles of the present to see the victory that the risen Lord will bring. Our problems may be big or small, but they are no match for the power of God revealed in the resurrection of Jesus Christ. So, rejoice in what really matters.

I also take this opportunity to thank the many people who helped us to pray well throughout the season of Lent and the Sacred Triduum. Special thanks to those who worked to prepare the liturgies, those who led our faith formation programs, the many people who participated in listening sessions, those who extend our care to the sick and the poor, and those many people who work "behind the scenes" to be sure that all preparations and logistical arrangements have been made. Thank you so much!

I wish all of you a blessed Easter season. Our celebration of Easter extends for 50 days. May it be a time when we are all filled with joy and renewed in hope. May peace fill your hearts, your homes and our whole world (especially troubled areas like Ukraine).

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un Saludo del Diácono Miguel

El primer día después del sábado, estando todavía oscuro, fue María Magdalena al sepulcro y vio removida la piedra que lo cerraba. Echó a correr, llegó a la casa donde estaban Simón Pedro y el otro discípulo, que a quien Jesús amaba, y les dijo, “Se han llevado del sepulcro al Señor y no sabemos dónde lo habrán puesto”. Esto es parte del texto del Evangelio de San Juan que se lee en la Misa del Domingo de la Resurrección. Y podemos sentir el temor y la ansiedad de María no encontrar el cuerpo de Jesús en el sepulcro donde fue puesto. Su reacción es de correr y avisarle a Pedro y al otro discípulo que han es una reacción normal. Aunque Jesús les había dicho que iba a morir y tres días después a resucitar, pero no entendieron y es por eso que María y los dos discípulos se sienten de esta manera. Eso nos pasa a nosotros también. El temor y la ansiedad nos bloquean lo que Dios quiere darnos. Hoy celebramos, la Pascua de la Resurrección del Señor. Este es el día, que Dios, por medio de su Unigénito, ¡Vence la muerte y nos abre las puertas de la vida eterna! Este gran acto de amor ofrecido a cada uno de nosotros debería crear grandes cambios en nosotros. Reflexionemos: ¿Qué tan significativo es para mí saber que Jesús muere en la cruz y resucita tres días después para darme a mí la vida eterna? Estando conscientes de esta herencia, vivamos con ese gozo en el corazón y en nuestra cara, porque somos de Dios y nos espera un gran premio. ¡Felices Pascuas! ¡El Señor vive!

EL GRUPO DE ORACIÓN

Les invita a las noches de alabanza, en el cual tenemos oración para llevar y aprender a tener una vida de oración diaria con Dios. Hay testimonios, se dan temas y se comparte la palabra de Dios—(Lectura de la Biblia). Los miércoles de 7:00pm a 8:30pm en la iglesia.

CAMBIA TODO

La Pascua lo cambia todo. Al haber resucitado de la muerte, Jesús destroza las imágenes espantosas que persiguen a la humanidad. La traición, la tortura, la crucifixión, la muerte, el entierro, estos terrores palidecen ante la gloria brillante de Jesús resucitado. El salmo de hoy guía nuestra respuesta al poder de Dios: “es maravilloso a nuestros ojos”. Hoy es, en efecto un día para maravillarse, para agitarse de asombro ante la resurrección de Jesús. Durante toda la historia de la humanidad, la muerte había sido el final. Sin embargo, en los Hechos de los Apóstoles, Pedro atestigua que Jesús, quien había sido ejecutado públicamente, fue resucitado por Dios. El Evangelio de Juan admite que los discípulos: “aún no entendían la Escritura de que tenía que resucitar de la muerte”. Incluso los amigos más cercanos no esperaban esta novedad, la vida después de la muerte. En respuesta al milagro de la Pascua, Pablo nos dice que seamos: “un poco de levadura” para hacer: “fermentar toda la masa”. Todo, incluso nuestro propio ser, debe convertirse en algo nuevo. La Pascua lo cambia todo.

Ministerio de Consolación

Cada uno de nosotros vive el duelo de la pérdida de un ser querido. Algunas personas tratan de lidiar con su dolor por sí mismos y no quieren o no necesitan asistencia de afuera. Sin embargo, muchos otros buscan y encuentran consuelo en compartir su dolor, enojo, depresión u otras emociones que pueden experimentar después de la pérdida de un ser querido. Nos reunimos los jueves a las 7:00pm en el salón Fr. Mullen de la escuela. Para más información comunícate con Lola Enríquez, 760-712-2029.

Divine Mercy Sunday

The Second Sunday of Easter is also the Octave of Easter. Only two feasts of the Church year have octaves (8-day celebrations): Christmas and Easter. Pope St. John Paul II also designated this day as Divine Mercy Sunday. To read about the significance of Divine Mercy Sunday, go to the link below. There is also a video which gives a short explanation of its origin and meaning.

Easter Sunday The Resurrection of the Lord

Reflection: Today we celebrate Jesus’ Resurrection from the dead. The gospel account tells how Jesus’ disciples found out. Mary Magdalene arriving in the darkness is the first witness to the empty tomb. She can’t yet understand what has happened. As the beloved disciple and Simon Peter arrive at the tomb, light is drawing. The beloved disciple sees by the light of faith that Jesus is risen. Eventually, Mary Magdalene and the other the disciples have personal encounters with the risen Lord and witness full of joy to the mystery of the resurrection.

We too have been chosen as witnesses that Jesus, the Son of God, has risen from the dead. Like the first disciples, we don’t fully comprehend this mystery or witness to its glory. But Jesus has chosen us just the same. The light of faith enables us to let the joy of the Resurrection fill our hearts.

Adults: Name one quality or skill you can use to help others experience the joy of following Jesus.

Children: What do you think made the beloved disciple believe that Jesus was risen?

Prayer Intention: Risen Lord, give us the grace to tell others about the glory of your Resurrection.

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord – Year C

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 10:34a,37-43

Peter preaches about Jesus' life, death, and resurrection.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 118:1-2,16-17,22-23

Rejoice in this day of the Lord.

Second Reading

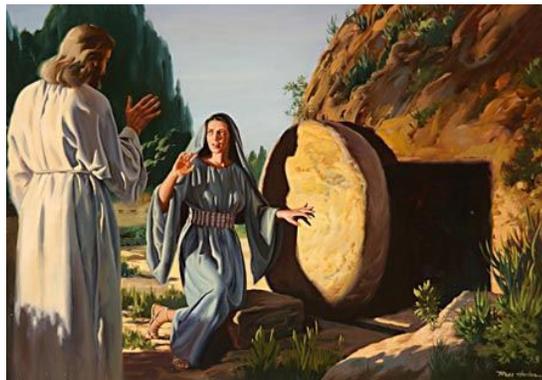

Colossians 3:1-4

Colossians: Having been raised by Christ, be concerned with what is above.

Gospel Reading

John 20:1-9

Mary of Magdala finds that the stone has been removed from Jesus' tomb.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today we begin the Easter Season, our 50-day meditation on the mystery of Christ's Resurrection. Our Gospel today tells us about the disciples' discovery of the empty tomb. It concludes by telling us that they did not yet understand that Jesus had risen from the dead. Thus, the details provided are not necessarily meant to offer proof of the Resurrection. The details invite us to reflect upon a most amazing gift, that is faith in Jesus and his Resurrection.

Each of the four Gospels tells us that Jesus' empty tomb was first discovered by women. This is notable because in first-century Jewish society women could not serve as legal witnesses. In the case of John's Gospel, the only woman attending the tomb is Mary of Magdala. Unlike the Synoptic accounts, John's Gospel does not describe an appearance of angels at the tomb. Instead, Mary is simply said to have observed that the stone that had sealed the tomb had been moved, and she runs to alert Simon Peter and the beloved disciple. Her statement to them is telling. She assumes that Jesus' body has been removed, perhaps stolen. She does not consider that Jesus has been raised from the dead.

Simon Peter and the beloved disciple race to the tomb, presumably to verify Mary's report. The beloved disciple arrives first but does not enter the tomb until after Simon Peter. This detail paints a vivid picture, as does the detail provided about the burial cloths. Some scholars believe that the presence of the burial cloths in the tomb offers evidence to the listener that Jesus' body had not been stolen (it is understood that grave robbers would have taken the burial cloths together with the body).

The Gospel passage concludes, however, that even having seen the empty tomb and the burial cloths, the disciples do not yet understand about the Resurrection. In the passage that follows, Mary of Magdala meets Jesus but mistakes him for the gardener. In the weeks ahead, the Gospel readings from our liturgy will show us how the disciples came to believe in Jesus' Resurrection through his appearances to them. Our Easter faith is based on their witness to both the empty tomb and their continuing relationship with Jesus—in his appearances and in his gift of the Holy Spirit.
