A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

For the last several weeks, we have been talking about the upcoming Synod of Bishops which is designed to begin at the parish level. Pope Francis has asked the whole Church to get involved. That means that the entire People of God has been asked for input.

Throughout the world, every diocese is organizing its parishes to implement a simple process of listening to the parishioners about their hopes and dreams for the Church – at the parish level, for the diocese, for the worldwide Church. In our diocese, this listening process will take place in all the parishes during the month of March.

These listening sessions will be done in small groups (around 6 people). Each group will also have a facilitator and a note taker. The role of the facilitator (as the word indicates) is to “make it easy” for each person to have an opportunity to share. The note taker has the job of recording what is being shared. It will be summarized and forwarded to the diocese. Then the diocese will summarize the input from all the parishes and send it to Rome for the bishops who will gather in 2023.

I am pleased to announce that Carl Streicher has agreed to serve as our Parish Synod Coordinator. He is already participating in orientation sessions for the coordinators of all the parishes. Our parish staff has already laid the groundwork for the listening sessions in our parish and will work with Carl to provide logistical support. Please see the schedule of listening sessions on the back page of this bulletin.

We will be sharing more with you in the weeks ahead about the dynamics of this process. I share the hope of Bishop McElroy that the information our parishioners will share will help us become a more listening Church. It is a unique opportunity for the Church to listen to Catholics from across the globe. But it all begins here in the parish.

I invite you to look back at articles that have been shared in the last three weeks’ bulletins or email newsletters. They explain some aspects of the process. You can also visit the special section of the diocesan website dedicated to the Synod: www.sdcatholic.org/synod

In addition to asking you to plan to attend one of the listening sessions, I ask for your prayers for the success of the Synod at all levels. I truly believe that this is an opportunity to listen to the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un Saludo del Diácono Miguel

Jesús dijo, “Dichosos serán ustedes cuando los hombres los aborrezcan y los expulsen de entre ellos y cuando los insulten y maldigan por causa del Hijo de hombre. Alégrese ese día y salte de gozo, porque su recompensa será grande en el cielo”.

En el Evangelio de esta semana, Lucas nos habla de las Bienaventuranzas. Palabras de Jesús que son dirigidas a los olvidados de este mundo, empezando por los pobres de su Pueblo. Estas palabras son fuertes y podemos sentirnos retados porque parece que Jesús está diciendo que sólo los pobres serán escuchados y el Reino de Dios es suyo. También menciona a los ricos, y les dice, “¡Ay de ustedes...porque ya tienen su consuelo!”. Es importante tomar más tiempo para reflexionar más sobre el significativo de las Bienaventuranzas. ¿A caso Dios sólo escucha a los pobres? Dios, siendo un Padre amoroso, tiene su oído y corazón muy cerca a los pobres y a sus necesidades. Pero, no nos dice que olvida a los que tienen un poquito más de dinero. Tampoco juzga mal a los que les ha ido bien en sus negocios y han podido comprar comodidades para ellos y sus familiares. La gran enseñanza de las bienaventuranzas es que nunca se nos olvide que “todos somos hijos de Dios”. Que tenemos que estar atentos a las necesidades de todos, viviendo con un espíritu pobre, reconociendo que, si Dios nos ha dado más, es porque tenemos que compartirlo con los que tienen menos. Las Bienaventuranzas debe ser nuestro estilo de vivir.

- Diácono Miguel Enriquez

Por una Iglesia sinodal
comunión | participación | misión

¿De qué se trata esta consulta?

El Papa Francisco ha invitado a todos los católicos del mundo a participar en una consulta que busca conocer cómo es que la Iglesia camina con ellos, los invita a una auténtica comunicación, escucha sus preocupaciones y promueve su participación en la vida de la Iglesia.

Esta consulta reunirá a las personas que van a la Misa, clérigo, religiosos y aquellos que viven al margen de la sociedad en una reunión que la Iglesia llama “sínodo”. El enfoque de este sínodo se centra en cómo la Iglesia involucra a todos estos grupos en la vida eclesiástica en todos los niveles. El tema del sínodo es “Por una Iglesia Sinodal: Comunión, Participación y Misión”, está programado para concluir en el 2023.

¿Por qué llevarla a cabo?

En la actualidad la Iglesia Católica se ha tenido que enfrentar a desafíos sin precedentes en todo el mundo. Muchas personas han dejado de practicar su fe. Países, comunidades y hasta familias están divididas. La pandemia está teniendo un impacto devastador. Es un momento crucial en el que la Iglesia está abriendo un camino hacia una profunda renovación.

La Iglesia está realizando una consulta, o sínodo, invitando a todos a encontrarnos unos con otros, escuchar las experiencias de cada uno y descubrir juntos cuál es el llamado de Dios para la Iglesia en estos tiempos. Las opiniones y conocimientos que surjan de esta consulta serán utilizados para renovar nuestras parroquias, escuelas y hasta la misma diócesis, reforzando la cultura de una Iglesia que escucha a los fieles, los hace corresponsables de la vida de la Iglesia y refleja su sabiduría.

Religious Education & Family Ministry

(PreK – 8th grade)

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection: Jesus is teaching a large crowd of people from all Judea and Jerusalem. He names four hardships that people might undergo. Although these experiences are difficult people who endure them are “blessed” as they are open to place their trust in God and God’s reign. Jesus then names four categories of experiences that sound desirable. However, they will bring misery as people rely on things.

Jesus’ teaching is a roadmap to God’s very heart. He invites us to seek the love of God above else. We must understand that good things in our lives come from God and are meant to be shared.

Adults: In what way are you serving the poor, as Jesus did?

Children: When have you helped bring God’s love to someone who was sad, or hungry, or whom others made fun of?

Prayer Intention: Lord, give us the grace to share the joy of faith.

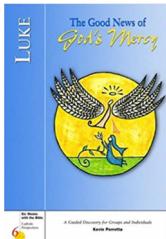

Sunday classes: Feb 13; No class Feb 20

Monday class: Feb 14; No Class Feb 21

Wednesday class: Feb 16, 23

The Good News of God’s Mercy – Lenten Bible Study with the Gospel of Luke

Luke presents the initiative-taking God who makes things happen. We know how Mary responds as God reveals his plan to her. Salvation came through Jesus’ birth, life, death, and resurrection.

What Jesus brings goes far beyond what the Jewish people of the time were expecting. Some struggle to understand what Jesus is offering them. Others come to know the demands it makes and wonder how they should respond.

Luke presents people who accept Jesus, who doubt, who begin to surrender. Join the study and look forward to surprising encounters and challenge messages. We will offer groups in the parish center as well as a zoom option.

Six Thursday evenings, March 3 – April 7 from 6:45pm – 8:30pm.

Register next weekend after mass; booklets $15.- (cash or checks)

Ye Olde Garage News!!

Scout Sunday Celebrated

Scouts from St. Patrick Catholic Community gathered for the 9:00 am Mass last Sunday. Several Scouts recently completed work on awards sponsored by the National Catholic Committee on Scouting.

Congratulations to Daniel Lopez for earning the Ad Altare Dei Emblem, an award received by scouts who have explored the connection between scouting and the sacraments of the Church. Xander Gray and Daniel Lopez both earned the Pope Pius XII Emblem, presented to scouts who learned about church-related ministries, vocations, and addressed current issue facing the Church and society.

Kade Hubbard and William McKinney, Cub Scouts from our parish, also earned the Light of Christ Award. This program helps the scout to see Jesus as a real person and his friend.

If you would like to learn more about our parish scout units, please contact Pam Dixon at:

Synod Listening Sessions Scheduled

St. Patrick Catholic Community joins all the parishes of the Diocese of San Diego in hosting listening sessions as a part of the worldwide Synod that is taking place over the next two years. Pope Francis would like it to be a grassroots process that begins at the parish level.

The focus is on listening to the People of God as they express their joys, hopes and concerns for the Church. Because we hope that many of our parishioners would like to be a part of these listening sessions, we have scheduled a number of opportunities with which to connect.

Thursday, March 10, 9:00-11:00 am (both English and Spanish) in the Parish Center

Friday, March 11, 6:00-8:00 pm (both English and Spanish) in the Parish School

Saturday, March 12, 9:00-11:00 am (both English and Spanish) in the Parish School

Sunday, March 13, 10:00 am – 12:00 noon (English) in the Parish Center

Sunday, March 13, 2:00-4:00 pm (Spanish) in the Parish Center

Friday, March 18, 6:00-8:00 pm (both English and Spanish) in the Parish School

Sunday, March 20, 10:00 am – 12:00 noon (English) in the Parish Center

Sunday, March 20, 2:00-4:00 pm (Spanish) in the Parish Center

By the end of February, we will provide a way for participants to register to attend. Please try to reserve one of these dates for you to join us for a listening session.
