A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

When St. John Eudes was canonized in 1925, Pope Pius XI declared him to be “the father, apostle and doctor of liturgical devotion to the Hearts of Jesus and Mary.” Now only did St. John Eudes have great devotion to Mary, but in a particular way he focused on the Heart of Mary. And as Pope Pius noted, his distinctive feature was liturgical devotion.

St. John Eudes established a Feast of the Heart of Mary that was first celebrated on February 8, 1648 in the cathedral church of Autun (France). Because he believed that when one comes to the Heart of Mary we will always find Jesus, only later did he also establish a Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. It was celebrated for the first time on October 20, 1672. This was prior to the more widespread devotion promoted by St. Margaret Mary.

The Eudist Fathers have continued to celebrate these liturgical feasts through the centuries. We are pleased to share with our parish the Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary on this Tuesday, February 8. For our parish Masses at 7:00 am (which is livestreamed and recorded on YouTube) and 8:00 am, we will use the Mass texts composed by St. John Eudes in the 17th century. The readings will be Isaiah 61:10 – 62:4; Ephesians 3:16-19; and Luke 12: 15-19.

The Opening Prayer that St. John Eudes composed for the Mass expresses well the spiritual message he saw in the Heart of Mary:

*O God, you willed that your only-begotten Son should live and reign in the Heart of the Virgin Mother.
Grant us, we pray, that, following the example of Jesus and Mary,
we may constantly accomplish your will in all things, and so merit to have but one heart with them and among ourselves.*

If you are available, join us for one of the morning Masses in the church or pray along with the online Mass for this feast.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un Saludo del Diácono Miguel

Jesús le dijo a Simón, “No temas, desde ahora serás pescador de hombres.” Estas palabras de Jesús para Simón son después del incidente en que Simón y otros pescadores habían trabajado toda la noche sin pescar nada. Jesús le dice a Simón, “Lleva la barca mar adentro y echen sus redes a pescar.” Simón no entiende por qué tiene que hacerlo, él piensa, “tengo toda la noche aquí y ni siquiera un pescado tengo”. Pero Simón obedece a Jesús y es allí cuando la suerte de Simón cambia, nos dice el texto, “que cogieron tantos pescados que hasta las redes se rompián”. Simón reacciona y corre a los pies de Jesús, “Apártate de mí Señor, que soy pecador”. Y la reacción de Jesús no es castigarlo o regañarlo, sino lo reafirma y le dice que “ahora serás pescador de hombres”. Nosotros podemos identificarnos con Simón. También nosotros podemos ser “necios y tercos” en querer hacer todo “a mi manera” porque pensamos, “siempre lo hemos hecho así, y no hay necesidad de cambiar nada”. Pero este fin de semana se nos reta a “hacerlo como Dios nos lo está pidiendo”. Pero para esto tenemos que estar atentos, estar en comunicación con Jesús, estar conscientes de que Dios nos ha dado dones y talentos para construir su Reino aquí en la tierra. Un Reino de paz y de amor, como nos decía San Pablo en su carta a los corintios. Y esta invitación es para todos, especialmente para los pecadores. Y ¿Quiénes son los pecadores? ¡Tú y yo! Pero aun con nuestros pecados y defectos, Jesús nos confía y nos dice “Lleven la barca mas adentro y echen sus redes a pescar”. No tengamos miedo, y respondamos como lo hizo Simón.

-Diácono Miguel Enríquez

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection: Certainly, Simon Peter remembered the scene that we hear in this Sunday's gospel all his life. His expertise as a fisherman convinced him that after a night of unsuccessful fishing, there were no fish to be caught. However, he told Jesus, "At your command, I will lower the nets." Simon Peter's trust was rewarded not only by a huge catch of fish, but by Jesus' call to become a disciple. Peter, James, and John, astounded by the power of Jesus, dropped everything, and followed Jesus.

Jesus encourages his followers to trust! Sometimes we are presented with situations that call forth strength and courage. Instead of relying only on what we know and can do ourselves, Jesus asks us to rely on him.

Adults: When have you felt inadequate to do a task or role you were given? How did you respond?

Children: When have you been asked to do something, you felt might be too hard for you? How did you respond? What did you do?

Prayer Intention: Lord, give us the grace to trust and be filled with your powers.

A Synod of Bishops?

Pope Francis has given the next Synod of Bishops an interesting and exciting twist. Instead of just bringing the Bishops of the world together to talk, he has proposed "a bottom up" approach. He has asked every parish in the world to hold listening sessions about the present and future of the Church. The reports from each parish will be collated at the diocesan level. Then our Diocese will send a report to the Vatican in which the input from the parishioners is summarized. The reports from the various dioceses become the basis for the discussion by the Synod of Bishops in 2023.

Our parish listening sessions will be held in March. Not only will the input from those sessions be submitted to the Diocese, which in turn submits it to the Vatican. Our parish will use what we have learned from listening to plan and organize our life as a parish. Likewise, the Diocese of San Diego will take the input from its parishes and discern how to move forward in becoming a Church which listens and responds.

Next week we will list the dates and times for the listening sessions. We will also indicate how to register for one of them. We are eager to have good participation from our parishioners.

Please pray for the success of this endeavor.

The Good News of God's Mercy – Lenten Bible Study with the Gospel of Luke

Luke presents the initiative-taking God who makes things happen. We know how Mary responds as God reveals his plan to her. Salvation came through Jesus' birth, life, death, and resurrection.

What Jesus brings goes far beyond what the Jewish people of the time were expecting. Some struggle to understand what Jesus is offering them. Others come to know the demands it makes and wonder how they should respond.

In our Luke Lenten Study, we will read about people who accept, who doubt, who begin to surrender. Join us and expect surprising encounters and challenging messages.

Six Thursday evenings, March 4 – April 7 from 6:45pm – 8:30pm.

We will offer groups in the parish center as well as a zoom option. Registration details forthcoming soon.
