A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

Back in June 2017, St. Patrick Parish took out a loan of almost $4.5 million from the Diocese of San Diego to pay for construction costs. The parish and the school have shared in the repayment of that loan, each making monthly payments. The original loan maturity date was February 2035.

Through a very generous $2.0 million gift from the estate of Dr. John A. Guido, a St. Patrick parishioner, we were able to apply the money to our loan in May 2019. This reduced the interest, principal and overall loan term considerably.

Due to the generosity of Dr. Guido, I am pleased to announce that this month we have made the last payment on that very large loan. Dr. Guido saved our parish and school an enormous amount of money. We thank God for his generosity.

In the meantime, inflation has had a big impact on our parish budget. Our parishioners continue to be very generous but, as you know, the cost of everything is increasing. We are still able to pay our bills and meet ordinary expenses. However, there are a number of repairs and major projects that are waiting for the right time to be done. We are holding back on some of them due to the cost of construction materials. Others are urgent and cannot wait.

With this in mind, I have decided to continue to provide parishioners with the monthly “gold envelopes.” They will be renamed Parish Construction and Repair Fund. I am asking our parishioners to continue to contribute to this fund. The money in this fund is restricted to construction and repairs. It will not be part of the ordinary income of the parish which is used to determine our assessment by the Diocese of San Diego. You will continue to receive the gold envelope in your bimonthly packet of envelopes. For those who use online giving, please continue to support our Construction and Repair Fund.

Our fiscal year closes at the end of June. This fall I will be able to give you a clear picture of our financial situation as a parish. I will be able to show you how we fared during the pandemic as well as our current status. I can tell you this now: all things considered; we are not in bad shape.

Let me also take this opportunity to thank Jim Nye who has been our Business Manager for the last 8 years. Jim is taking retirement at the end of this month. I am very grateful to Jim for his attention to detail, sound management and wise advice. The parish management and HR part of Jim's job have been assumed by Maria Gonzalez, a long-time member of our staff. The bookkeeping responsibilities will be handled by Maria Owen.

May our Triune God continue to bless us as a parish!

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

Jesús les dijo a sus discípulos, “Aún tengo muchas cosas que decirles, pero todavía no las pueden comprender. Pero cuando venga el Espíritu de verdad, él los irá guiando hasta la verdad plena, porque no hablará por su cuenta, sino que dirá lo que haya oído y les anunciará las cosas que van a suceder”. Hoy celebramos el Domingo de la Santísima Trinidad. Toda nuestra vida, se nos ha dicho que Dios es un solo Dios en tres personas, el Padre, el Hijo, y el Espíritu Santo.  $1+1+1=1$  (y no 3). Este dogma de la iglesia no es fácil de entender; que, si tratamos de entenderla con lógica, con nuestras capacidades humanas, quedaremos frustrados. Entonces, ¿por qué es importante persignarnos en el nombre de la Santísima Trinidad durante el día? ¿Por qué iniciamos nuestras oraciones invocando a la Santísima Trinidad? ¿Por qué en cada misa, o en cada liturgia, se inicia con esta oración a la Santísima Trinidad? Nuestra fe nos dice al invocar a la Santísima Trinidad, estamos reconociendo y aceptando el gran amor de Dios para nosotros. Dios Padre, el Creador, el que creó desde el inicio desde todo que ha existido, y sigue creando por medio de nosotros. Dios Hijo, Jesucristo, nuestro Redentor, el dio su vida en la cruz para que todos fuéramos salvados, y El que nos habló del amor del Padre. Dios Espíritu Santo, el Paráclito, el que anima y fortalece, el que sana y guía, sigue moviéndose en nosotros ahora. En la segunda lectura de este fin de semana, San Pablo nos dice, “la esperanza no defrauda, Dios desea infundir en nuestros corazones su amor por medio del Espíritu Santo”. Habrá momentos de conflicto y trauma, pero que nunca se nos olvide el gran amor de Dios y recordamos su amor cada vez que nos persignamos.

- Diacono Miguel Enríquez

¡El cuerpo de Voluntarios de Ignacianos está reclutando!

Cuerpo de Voluntarios de Ignacianos (IVC) es una oportunidad para que hombres y mujeres adultos ofrezcan sus habilidades, sabiduría y experiencia en la vida en servicio directo a los necesitados. A cambio de un compromiso de 1 ó 2 días a la semana con un proyecto de servicio local, el programa ofrece reuniones mensual para la reflexión personal y conversaciones de oración con los otros. Juntos, esperamos ver el rostro de Cristo en aquellos a quienes servimos.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Reflection: The Holy Spirit guided the Apostles and the early Church in reflecting on the mystery of the Trinity. The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit are always in relationship with one another, a divine community of perfect outpouring love. The Holy Spirit continues to unfold this mystery for us and invites us to participate in that love within our family, parish community, and as a worldwide church. As an ongoing font of truth, the Holy Spirit is pouring out gifts in every age as the Church faces new challenges. Being created in God's image, we are called to receive the gifts offered by the Holy Spirit and seek the truth together.

Adults: How do the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – God in Three Persons - work together to teach us truth?

Children: What simple acts of love will you perform this week to connect with others in a meaningful way?

Prayer: Come Holy Spirit, guide us to the truth.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity – Year C

First Reading

Proverbs 8:22-31

Wisdom was born before the earth was made.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 8:4-9

O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

Second Reading

Romans 5:1-5

We boast of our afflictions.

Gospel Reading

John 16:12-15

Whatever the Father has is mine. The Spirit of truth will guide us.

Background on the Gospel Reading

This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next Sunday, however, are designated as solemnities, special days that call our attention to central mysteries of our faith. Today, on the first Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This feast invites us to consider what we believe about God, who has revealed himself to us in the Trinity—one God in three persons.

The verses of today's Gospel come near the end of Jesus' long discourse at the Last Supper. In the early part of this discourse, as we saw last week on Pentecost, Jesus offers assurances to the disciples. Even though he must leave the disciples, he tells them that they will have a future because of the help he will send them in the Holy Spirit. In this section he focuses more on the shape of the future, which will include Jesus' victory over the world that they will share in. The disciples of Jesus cannot know the future. They can only know that, whatever shape the future takes, they will not have to face it alone. They have the Spirit of Truth, who will continue to provide the teaching of Jesus in the future.

Reading this passage on Trinity Sunday reinforces our understanding of the unity shared by the members of the Trinity. Although the idea of one God in three persons remains a mystery, we have the assurance that, as Jesus and the Father share all, Jesus and the Spirit share all.
