A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

I recently received a letter from a good friend who is a Eudist priest in Togo (western Africa). Fr. Edem Afoutou, CJM worked with me for several years in the Philippines. He was a huge help in our new mission in that country.

Last year, he was entrusted with the new parish of St. Michael the Archangel in Davie (Togo). This is a very poor part of the country and Fr. Edem has very little resources to work with. He immediately recognized that there was a great need for helping children get an education.

Faced with the economic difficulties that many families are going through, he noted that many young people dropout of school for lack of means. He recognized that something needed to be done.

Fr. Edem told me, “For one year we have started, with our limited resources, a project intended for the neediest children to support their education. It is often said in such poor countries ‘as education goes, so goes the worth of the nation.’”

So the parish has organized volunteers who are giving free tutoring classes (help with homework, etc.) on Wednesday afternoons and Saturday mornings to the most deprived children whose parents don’t have the means to pay for help. The parish runs three classes: a class for preparatory children, another one for elementary school children, and finally, a class for those in middle school. At this point, the project’s needs are basic. They need a shelter for the children (protection from sun and rain), some desks and tables, and a small stipend to pay for the transportation of the volunteer tutors.

In countries like Togo, it is possible to do a great deal with a relatively small amount of money (compared to our reality). Our goal is to send $3,500 to St. Michael Parish in Togo. This is enough to pay for the shelter, buy the desks and give a stipend to the tutors. I am asking who would like to help?

We have some parish funds that have been earmarked “for the poor.” We would need some additional money to make up the difference. If you would like to help, put your donation in an envelope marked “For St. Michael’s in Togo” or contact me to discuss this project.

I have included a picture of the children of the parish that we will be helping. Notice how they are sitting on the ground doing their homework with the tutor. Thank you for whatever you can do to help.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

Jesús les dijo a sus discípulos, “Después Jesús tomó en sus manos los cinco panes y los dos pescados, y levantando su mirada al cielo, pronunció sobre ellos una oración de acción de gracias, los partió y los fue dando a sus discípulos, para que ellos los distribuyeran entre la gente. Comieron todos y se saciaron, y de lo que sobró, se llenaron doce canastos”. Hoy celebramos la Fiesta del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo (Corpus Christi). En la misa se lee del Evangelio según San Lucas el texto del gran milagro de Jesús, que, con sólo cinco panes y dos pescados, les da de comer a más de 5,000 personas, que comen hasta saciarse y después se recogen las sobras. La multitud sigue a Jesús para escucharlo hablar del Reino de Dios, un pueblo oprimido y cansado y que le agrada lo que escuchan de Jesús sobre el gran amor y misericordia de Dios. Y al seguirlo no se preocupan de llevarse algo de comer, confían que su hambre y sed será saciada por Jesús, y nada más se necesita. ¿Qué significa para nosotros el Cuerpo de Cristo? Creemos y confiamos que nuestra sed y hambre es saciada al comer del Cuerpo de Cristo? Durante la pandemia, las iglesias se cerraron y por mucho tiempo no pudimos comer del Cuerpo de Cristo, ¿qué sentíamos cuando se nos decía que debíamos tener una “Comunión Espiritual”? No dejemos pasar esta oportunidad de reflexionar y meditar sobre la importancia de este Sacramento Sagrado; Jesús nos lo da para que recordemos la Alianza que Él ha hecho con nosotros, para que seamos nutridos espiritualmente y seamos distribuidores de su paz y amor a otros.

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

Religious Education & Family Ministry (PreK – 8th grade)

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Reflection: Thousands of people followed Jesus to hear him speak about the kingdom of God. The crowds were in a deserted place where there was no food or lodging. In the evening, the apostles wanted to send everyone home. But Jesus gave them a surprising answer: "Give them some food yourselves." First, the apostles reasoned that all they had were five loaves of bread and two fish. And then they followed Jesus' instructions. We hear in the Gospel that all the people ate and were satisfied. Jesus fed the people not only with his words but also with bread and fish. When Jesus is present, he fulfills all the needs. Amen.

Adults: What does Jesus want us to know about him?

Children: Why did Jesus feed the crowd instead of sending them home?

Prayer: Jesus Christ, help us to know and rest in God's love.

The First Eudist Cardinal

As you know, Pope Francis has announced that there will be 21 new cardinals in the Church including our own Robert McElroy, Bishop of San Diego. Among this group of cardinal-designates is a Eudist bishop who will be the first member of the Congregation of Jesus and Mary (The Eudists) to have this honor. Archbishop Emeritus Jorge Enrique Jiménez Carvajal, CJM is the retired archbishop of Catagen, Colombia. Along with the other 20 appointees, he will become a cardinal on August 27 at a Consistory in Vatican City. Prior to becoming a bishop, his ministry was primarily in the formation of future priests. As a bishop, he was also active in CELAM (the conference of bishops of Latin America). Archbishop Jimenez retired from administration in 2021. Since he has reached his eightieth birthday, he will not be eligible to vote in the conclave to elect the next pope.

Appointment of Bishop Dolan as Bishop of Phoenix

On June 10, Pope Francis announced the appointment of Bishop John Dolan, Auxiliary Bishop of San Diego, as the new Bishop of Phoenix. Bishop Dolan replaces Bishop Thomas Olmsted who had reached the retirement age for bishops.

Bishop Dolan is no stranger to North County, having served as pastor of Mary, Star of the Sea in Oceanside. We were pleased to have had Bishop Dolan celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation for 65 of our young people just a month ago. We assure Bishop Dolan of our prayers for him in his new ministry.

The Eucharist is essential for us: it is Christ who wishes to enter our lives and fill us with his grace.

— Pope Francis —
