A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

Veni, Sancte Spiritus! Come, Holy Spirit, Come!

With those traditional words, we ask the Holy Spirit to come into our hearts, our Church, our world. In commenting on this prayer, Pope Francis shared an insight about its simplicity:

“The key word is this: come. Come. But you need to say it yourself in your own words. Come, because I find myself in difficulty. Come, because I am in the dark. Come, because I don’t know what to do. Come, because I am about to fall. Come. Come. This is...how to call upon the Spirit.”

The Holy Father also recalled the words of St. Augustine of Hippo, the 4th century Doctor of the Church on facing difficulties in life.

“St. Augustine, referring to the Gospel episode of the storm on the lake, suggests how to react in this situation. This is what he says: “The faith of Christ in your heart is like Christ in the boat. You hear insults, you wear yourself out, you are upset, and Christ sleeps. Wake Christ up, rouse your faith! Even in tribulation you can do something. Rouse your faith. Christ awakes and speaks to you... Therefore, wake Christ up... Believe what has been said to you, and there will be tremendous calm in your heart,” the pope said, quoting one of Augustine’s sermons.

In the same context, Pope Francis recalls how St. Paul exhorted the Galatian Christians “not to grow weary in doing what is right.” The Pope tells us: “In this challenging but captivating journey, the Apostle reminds us that we cannot let ourselves tire when it comes to doing good.”

Returning to the role of the Holy Spirit in this effort, he says: “We must trust that the Spirit always comes to assist us in our weakness and grants us the support we need. Let us, therefore, learn to invoke the Holy Spirit more often.”

So, on this Solemnity of Pentecost, I encourage you to learn to pray to the Holy Spirit. Pay attention to the action of the Holy Spirit in your life and in our world. Implore the Spirit of peace and reconciliation to heal our divisions. Invoke the Spirit of courage to enable us to be witnesses of the Lord Jesus in the world. May the Spirit of Jesus move us to challenge the evils that surround us. May the Spirit of compassion move us to greater concern for those in need. May the Spirit of comfort embrace all those who have suffered loss of loved ones.

Come, Holy Spirit, come!

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

Jesús les dijo a sus discípulos, “La paz esté con ustedes. Como el Padre me ha enviado, así también los envío yo”. Después de decir esto, sopló sobre ellos y les dijo, “Reciban el Espíritu Santo. A los que les perdonen los pecados, les quedarán perdonados; y a los que no se los perdonen, les quedarán sin perdonar”. Celebramos hoy la gran Fiesta de Pentecostés, Jesús cumple lo que les había prometido a sus discípulos, que iba a enviar al Paráclito, el Espíritu Santo, para ayudarlos, recordarles, guiarlos, y animarlos en su camino de fe. Ahora, leemos en el Evangelio de San Juan, que Jesús sopló sobre ellos y les da ese mismo Espíritu de Jesucristo. ¡Tú y yo somos templos vivos del Espíritu Santo! A causa de este Espíritu Santo que está en nosotros, podemos llamarle a Dios, “Abba/Papá”, porque somos hijas e hijos de este Dios amoroso. Por este mismo Espíritu Santo, podemos llamarle a Jesús, “mi Señor y mi Dios”, porque es el #1 de toda nuestra vida. Por este mismo Espíritu Santo, podemos mirarnos como hermanos y hermanas, un Pueblo de Dios, un Cuerpo de Cristo. No siempre será fácil, a veces lo que vivimos o escuchamos en las noticias, como la violencia en este país y en otros, guerras, niños y niñas llorando, masacres dondequiera, indiferencias, racismo y muchas otras cosas. Que nos hace mirar hacia el cielo y decirle a Dios, “¡Ya basta, por favor!” Pero más que nunca, tenemos que mantenernos fieles a Dios, confiando que Dios es fiel y nos acompaña en cada paso de nuestra vida. Y recordar esas palabras de Jesucristo, que “Él está con nosotros siempre, hasta el final de los tiempos”. Somos suyos, el Espíritu Santo está en ti y en mí, y desea llenarnos de su paz. Aceptemos este regalo. ¡Feliz Pentecostés!

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

Bishop McElroy Is Appointed as a Cardinal of the Church

We rejoice that our Holy Father Pope Francis has chosen our own bishop Robert McElroy to be a Cardinal of the Catholic Church. The announcement was made last Sunday, May 29 at the conclusion of the pope’s regular Sunday message to those gathered in St. Peter’s Square. Cardinal-Elect McElroy will be installed by Pope Francis in a consistory to take place August 27 at St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome. He is the fifth American to be named to the College of Cardinals by Pope Francis. All Cardinals under 80 years of age are voting members, able to serve in the Conclave that elects the Pope. Bishop McElroy is 68 years old.

In commenting on his appointment, Bishop McElroy said:

“I am stunned and deeply surprised by the news that Pope Francis has appointed me to the College of Cardinals. My prayer is that in this ministry I might be of additional service to the God who has graced me on so many levels in my life. And I pray also that I can assist the Holy Father in his pastoral renewal of the Church. In this moment, I give thanks for those who have contributed profoundly to my life and priesthood: my family, the priests and women religious who helped to form me, and the Catholic community of San Diego and Imperial Counties, whom it is my privilege to lead.”

St. Patrick Catholic Community joins the rest of the Diocese of San Diego in congratulating Bishop McElroy and we pledge our prayers for him as he undertakes the additional responsibilities of this office. May the Holy Spirit who came upon the disciples at Pentecost continue to lead and guide our beloved bishop, soon to be Cardinal Robert McElroy.

Pentecost Sunday

Reflection: On Pentecost we celebrate that the Apostles were baptized with the Holy Spirit and fire, as Jesus promised. The Holy Spirit is the Advocate that teaches and guides the Church until Christ returns. In every age, the Church is made new in the Holy Spirit!

The Spirit stirs the hearts of the faithful as our Advocate and will remind us that our love for God is revealed in our keeping the Commandments and Jesus' Word.

Adults: How can we listen to the stirring of the Holy Spirit?

Children: Why do we need an Advocate to love all people as Jesus asks?

Prayer: Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

LIFE-LONG PARISHIONERS

Solemnity of Pentecost – Year C

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11

The Holy Spirit descends upon the Apostles gathered in Jerusalem.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 104:1,24,29-31,34

God's Spirit renews the earth.

Second Reading

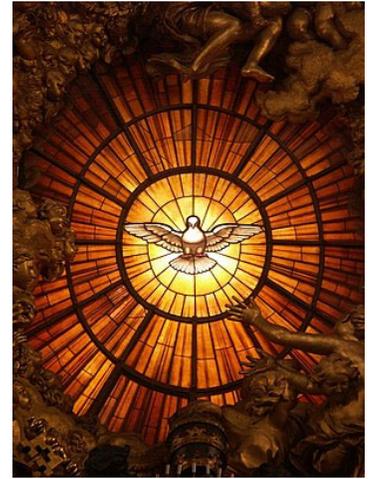

1 Corinthians 12:3b-7,12-13 or Romans 8:8-17

We are all one in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Reading

John 20:19-23

Jesus appears to his disciples and gives them the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Background on the Gospel Reading

The season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the feast of Pentecost. On Pentecost we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem; this event marks the beginning of the Church. The story of Pentecost is found in the Acts of the Apostles, today's first reading. The account in today's Gospel, taken from the Gospel of John, also recounts how Jesus gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples. There is no need to try to reconcile these two accounts to each other. It is enough to know that, after his death, Jesus fulfilled his promise to send to his disciples a helper, an advocate, who would enable them to be his witnesses throughout the world.

We previously heard today's Gospel on the second Sunday of Easter. At that time, we also heard the passage that follows, which describes Jesus' appearance to Thomas. In that context, we were led to reflect on belief and unbelief.

In the context of the feast of Pentecost, this reading reminds us about the integral connection between the gifts of peace and forgiveness and the action of the Holy Spirit. Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace. Jesus then commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." As he breathes the Holy Spirit upon them, Jesus sends his disciples to continue his work of reconciliation through the forgiveness of sins.

This Gospel reminds us that the Church is called to be a reconciling presence in the world. This reconciling presence of Christ is celebrated in the Church's sacramental life. In the Sacrament of Baptism, we are washed clean from sin and become a new creation in Christ. In the Sacrament of Penance, the Church celebrates the mercy of God in forgiving sins. This reconciling presence is also to be a way of life for Christians. In situations of conflict, we are to be agents of peace and harmony among people.
