A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

This weekend we are holding the last three listening sessions as a part of the worldwide synod called by Pope Francis. Last weekend we had five listening sessions. I am very pleased with the number of parishioners who responded to the invitation to take part in this process. I will eventually receive a summary of the notes taken in each small group. I am very interested to hear about the joys and the dreams, the concerns and the hopes of those who were willing to share. Not only will these notes be passed along to the Diocese, but we will discuss them and discern how to proceed as a parish.

So many people have told me what a wonderful experience it was for them. Some commented on the atmosphere which was conducive to listening. Others were happy to hear that their hopes and dreams were similar to others. It was truly an experience of the members of the Church listening to one another, for we truly are the Church. As we say so often, the Church is not just an institution or organization. It is the Body of the Christ, a Community of Disciples. These listening sessions have made a significant contribution to help us become a Church that truly listens. It was a beginning. And we need to continue listening to one another.

I want to express my gratitude to all those who worked very hard to make this all happen. My thanks to Carl Streicher, our Parish Synod Coordinator. I am also very grateful to Margit Dornisch, Jocelyn Tejeda, Jose Jimenez and many members of our parish staff who helped in so many ways. Special thanks to all the facilitators and notetakers of the small groups. We couldn't have done it without you!

Some people have asked why the priests did not participate in the listening groups. First of all, we wanted people to feel free to express themselves. In addition, we did not want to be the focus in any group. But all of the priests will have their opportunity to experience the process. On Tuesday March 22, all of the diocesan priests will gather with the bishops and participate in listening groups with one another. Likewise, on Wednesday March 23, all of the religious priests will gather for the same experience. I and the other Eudists will be with the other religious priests for a similar experience in small groups.

If you did not have the opportunity to share in this beautiful experience, you may still be able to join a group on Sunday morning (English) or afternoon (Spanish). Check the website for the exact time and location.

I believe that in listening to one another, the Holy Spirit is trying to speak through us. I hope that we can continue to be open to the promptings of the Spirit in our life as a parish. Let us carefully listen and discern together where the Spirit may be leading us.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un Saludo del Diácono Miguel

El dueño de una higuera va en busca de higos y al no encontrarlos, le dice al viñador, "Córtala. ¿Para qué ocupa la tierra inútilmente?" El viñador le contestó, "Señor, déjala todavía este año; voy a aflojar la tierra alrededor y a echarle abono, para ver si da fruto. Si no, el año que viene la cortaré". Hoy celebramos el Tercer Domingo de Cuaresma y se lee este texto de San Lucas (13:1-9) en la cual Jesús nos da esta parábola del "la higuera que no da fruto." El dueño de la higuera una vez que se da cuenta de que la higuera no está dando fruto ordena que sea cortada. Pero el viñador le suplica que no la corte, que él se encargará de hacer lo que tiene que hacer para ayudarla a dar fruto. Dice, "moveré la tierra y le echaré abono, para ver si da fruto". ¿Quién es el viñador? Es Jesús. ¿Quién es la higuera que no da fruto? Somos nosotros. En el tiempo de Cuaresma, la iglesia siempre nos habla de la necesidad de la conversión, de la necesidad de mirarnos hacia dentro y ver esas cosas o ideas que nos esclavizan y no nos dejan mirar la gracia divina que Dios nos ofrece para que demos fruto. Tengamos cuidado de no caer en el error de mirar los errores de otros y pensar, "Mis errores no son como los de ellos. Yo estoy bien." Pero eso no es lo que Dios quiere de nosotros. Dios insiste que miremos nuestra vida, nuestras acciones y respuestas, y permitamos que Él mueva la tierra en nuestra vida y que le echo abonó, gracia divina, para que demos fruto de amor y paz a los que nos rodean.

Ministerio de Consolación

Cada uno de nosotros vive el duelo de la pérdida de un ser querido. Algunas personas tratan de lidiar con su dolor por sí mismos y no quieren o no necesitan asistencia de afuera. Sin embargo, muchos otros buscan y encuentran consuelo en compartir su dolor, enojo, depresión u otras emociones que pueden experimentar después de la pérdida de un ser querido.

Nos reunimos los jueves a las 7:00pm en el salón Fr. Mullen de la escuela. Para más información comunícate con Lola Enríquez, 760-712-2029.

Confessions at St. Patrick's

Throughout the season of Lent, confessions are heard at our parish every Wednesday immediately after the Mass at 8:00am and immediately after the Mass at 5:30pm.

The Saint Patrick Parish Knights of Columbus Council 15076 will be hosting their annual Lenten food drive to benefit the San Diego Food Bank North County Branch!

The food drive continues and will be every weekend up to April 2nd & 3rd. There will be Knights there before and after each Mass to collect donations. Nonperishable food items (No glass containers) will be accepted. Or we will accept cash and/or checks made out to the San Diego Food Bank.

This food drive exemplifies giving to others in need as a way for us to show our gratefulness for our blessings that God has provided us! Just like last year, the donation station will be located at the back door of the Parish Hall. Stop by and donate from your car.
God Bless!

ANNUAL LENTEN COLLECTION

Next weekend has been designated for the 2022 Annual Lenten Collection. In your packet of envelopes, you received a special envelope for this collection, which supports the works of Catholic Relief Services, the Church in Africa and the Church in Latin America. Please place your envelope in our one collection next week.

Lenten Retreat this week

This week our parish will hold a mini-Lenten retreat on March 21-23 (Monday-Wednesday) in our parish church beginning at 7:00 pm. Each session will be approximately one hour. On Monday and Tuesday, the program will also be offered at 8:30 am (after the morning Mass).

On Monday March 21, the theme is Living the Mission. Fr. Ron will speak about how Baptism and the other sacraments call us to share in the mission of the Lord. Three parishioners will give brief witness talks about how they try to live the mission of Jesus in their family, workplace and the world.

On Tuesday, March 22, we will have a time of prayer called Taizé Prayer around the Cross. The cross will be our focus as we listen to readings from Scripture, meditate in silence and chant songs in the style of the ecumenical monastic community of Taizé in France.

On Wednesday, March 23, we will have our annual parish Lenten Penance Service. After a brief prayer service and examination of conscience, many priests will be on hand to hear individual confessions and give absolution.

Try to come to all three evenings or one or two if you can make it.

Stations of the Cross and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

During Lent communal praying of the Stations of the Cross will be held every Friday at 3:00 pm and again at 6:30 pm in the church.

Our outdoor stations of the cross are also available any time. The church is open during the day for private praying of the Stations.

Every Tuesday, there will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament from 2:00-5:00 pm. (During Lent adoration will end at 5:00 pm due to a Mass at 5:30 pm.)

Faith Based (drop-in) Grief Support Group

Everyone is welcome to join. There is no registration or standard curriculum. The group is designed for the bereaved to have a place that they feel safe to share their experiences, and gain personally by supporting others as well as being supported by others. The group is facilitated by trained grief counselor and Dcn Rick from St. Pat's. Meets the 2nd & 4th Thursdays from 1:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

NEXT MEETING: March 23

Religious Education & Family Ministry (PreK – 8th grade)

Third Sunday in Lent

Reflection: Jesus shows the people that it is possible to turn their lives toward God. The first necessary step is a willingness to repent. The repentance that Jesus desires calls us to search our hearts and see where we have fallen short of love: where we have failed to love God, to love our neighbor, and to love ourselves. Like the people in Jesus' time, we are asked to repent. Then we are called to make a commitment to change. Aiding our prayer and our good works the Holy Spirit will help us to bear good fruits. As a family talk about how to follow God's commandments. Have each family member commit to one way how they will become a more loving person during the week.

Adults: What important work could bear fruit in your life right now?

Children: What can you do this week to show your love for God, your neighbor, and yourself?

Prayer Intention: Lord, help us to trust in your loving care.

Third Sunday of Lent – Year C

First Reading

Exodus 3:1-8a, 13-15

God speaks to Moses from the burning bush and sends him to the Israelites.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 103:1-4, 6-7, 8, 11

A prayer in praise of God's mercy

Second Reading

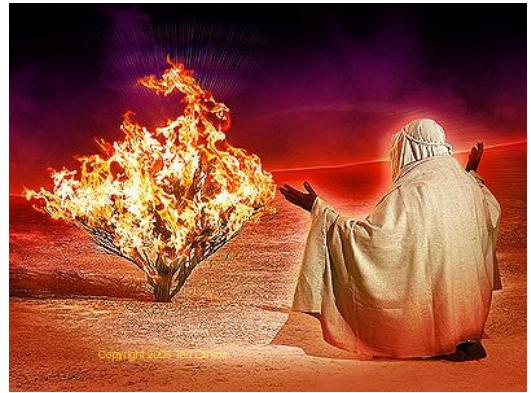

1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12

Paul teaches that the Scriptures were written to set an example for us.

Gospel Reading

Luke 13:1-9

Jesus preaches a lesson on repentance.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Now into the third week of the Season of Lent, our Sunday Gospel prepares us to hear Lent's call to conversion and repentance. Today's reading is found in the chapters of Luke's Gospel that describe Jesus' journey to Jerusalem. During this journey, Jesus teaches and heals. He must also respond to those who question and challenge his authority and actions. There is no parallel in Mark's or Matthew's Gospels for today's reading from Luke. While Mark and Matthew describe an incident in which Jesus curses the fig tree, today's reading makes the barren fig tree the subject of a parable.

Luke tells us that some among the crowds report to Jesus a massacre of Galileans by Pilate. The intention of the crowd seems to be to ask Jesus to explain why these people suffered. It was commonplace to render people's suffering as evidence of their sinfulness. Jesus challenges this interpretation. Those who were massacred were no more or less sinful than the ones who report the situation to Jesus. Jesus replies that even a fatal accident, a natural disaster, ought not to be interpreted as punishment for sin.

Jesus' words at first appear to have a fire-and-brimstone quality. Jesus says in essence, "Repent or perish as these people did; all are sinful before God and deserving of God's punishment." The tone changes, however, in the parable that follows. The parable of the barren fig tree contrasts the patience and hopefulness of the gardener with the practicality of the property owner. When told to cut down the fig tree because it is not producing fruit, the gardener counsels patience. If properly tended, the barren fig tree may yet bear fruit.

Throughout his journey to Jerusalem, Jesus has been teaching about the Kingdom of God. In this parable, we find an image of God's patience and hopefulness as he prepares his Kingdom. God calls us to repent, and it is within his power to punish us for our failure to turn from our sinfulness. And yet God is merciful. He delays punishment and tends to us so that we may yet bear the fruit he desires from us.

This, then, is our reason for hope: Not only does God refuse to abandon us, he chooses to attend to us even when we show no evidence of his efforts. Next week's Gospel will give an even clearer picture of the kind of mercy that God shows to us.
