A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

One of the special things about the Easter season for Catholics is the focus we put on celebrating the “Easter sacraments,” namely, Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist. At our Easter Vigil a couple of weeks ago, we baptized one new member of the Church, we welcomed four more into the full communion of the Catholic Church (i.e., previously baptized but not as a Catholic), sixteen received the Sacrament of Confirmation, and twenty-one received the Holy Eucharist for the first time. One of the great things about this celebration was the joy and excitement of all those who experienced Christ in the reception of these sacraments. I think it was contagious; we all felt it.

In the coming weeks, we will continue our special celebration of the Easter sacraments. Sixty-five of our young people will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation on May 7 when Bishop John Dolan visits our parish. Our youth ministry has prepared them well under some very challenging circumstances since most of their two-year preparation was done under Covid restrictions. I am very grateful to these young people, their parents and our whole youth ministry team for sticking with it through thick and thin. In the coming weeks, we will have several celebrations for the First Holy Communion of our young people. Second graders (as well as some older students) from our school and our religious education program will receive Jesus in Holy Communion for the first time. They have been well-prepared by their teachers and parents. Again, I am very grateful to all those involved in their preparation for this special day.

One of the great joys of being a pastor is to be able to preside at the celebration of First Communion. Not only do the children look great but they are so excited about receiving Holy Communion. I always ask them if they are excited. I always get a resounding “yes” from them. It always makes me smile and fills me with joy. But it also makes me wonder if I am still excited about receiving Holy Communion. Has it become commonplace? Do we take it for granted? I think we can all ask ourselves that question. We celebrate the Eucharist every Sunday (or we should). Do we look forward to it? Do we still get excited about receiving Holy Communion? I encourage you to think about it and prepare yourself to share in the Eucharist each weekend (or more often if you are able).

Once again, I’d like to thank all those who helped our parishioners to prepare for these Easter sacraments: our RCIA and RICA teams, our youth ministry team, our school teachers, our parish catechists, and the families of those who received (or will receive) the Easter sacraments. One more time, I’d also like to thank those who contributed in many ways to the wonderful celebrations we had for Holy Week and Easter.

May the risen Lord continue to fill us with his peace and joy.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un Saludo del Diácono Miguel

Estaba amaneciendo, cuando Jesús se apareció en la orilla, pero los discípulos no lo reconocieron. Jesús les dijo, “Muchachos, ¿han pescado algo?” Ellos contestaron, “No.” Entonces Él les dijo, “Echen la red a la derecha de la barca y encontrarán peces”. Así lo hicieron, y luego ya no podían jalar la red por tantos pescados. Siempre me acuerdo de un amigo que me dijo, “Todo lo que quieras hacer te va a salir bien, pero con Jesús, todo te sale mejor”. Para mí, esas palabras siempre me han dicho que tengo que invitar a Jesús a caminar conmigo en todas mis actividades y mis obras. Y gracias a Dios eso me ha ayudado siempre, porque me doy cuenta de que yo tengo que poner lo mejor que tengo y Dios hace el resto, y el fruto que dará depende de Dios. En la primera parte del Evangelio de San Juan en este 3er Domingo de Pascua, leemos que los discípulos, que eran pescadores profesionales, habían salido a pescar y en toda la noche nada habían pescado. Pero, Jesús se aparece y les señala a donde tienen que ir a pescar, los discípulos obedecen las instrucciones de Jesús, y tienen un gran éxito en su pescada. No vivimos solos. Dios nos da una cantidad de personas y cosas para que las usemos con dignidad y construir su Reino en todo lo que hacemos. Esforcémonos, para abrir el oído de nuestro corazón para escuchar la voz de Dios que nos señala donde necesitamos estar.

- Diácono Miguel Enriquez

Un Millón de Comidas

Los diáconos de la diócesis están coordinando un evento para proveer un millón de comidas a niños y a familias que viven en extrema pobreza. Alrededor de la mitad de esas comidas irán a la Casa de los Pobres en Tijuana y el resto a Filipinas y África. Los diáconos están buscando a 3 mil voluntarios que ayuden a empacar los alimentos durante un maravilloso fin de semana de junio. Además, están recaudando fondos para comprar los ingredientes. Los alimentos serán empaquetados en tres turnos al aire libre en las instalaciones de Cathedral Catholic High School el sábado, 11 de junio, de 8:30 a 11 a.m. y de 12:30 a 3 p.m.; y el domingo, 12 de junio de 11:30 a.m. a 2 p.m.

También se necesitan voluntarios para ayudar a montar el evento y limpiar una vez que haya terminado. Los equipos parroquiales, ministerios, familias e individuos pueden impactar la vida de un niño, y pueden divertirse mucho durante este gran evento.

Continúa Consulta Sinodal de la Iglesia

En las próximas semanas la diócesis estará analizando la información presentada por las parroquias tras realizar sus sesiones sinodales. El equipo sinodal de la diócesis hará un resumen de estos reportes, documento que el obispo Robert McElroy compartirá con nuestra comunidad en el verano. El documento también será enviado a la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos, la cual presentará un reporte propio al Vaticano.

Mientras tanto, la consulta de jóvenes continuará realizándose hasta mediados de junio en parroquias y escuelas. La diócesis, apoyada por aliados del servicio social católico, también está organizando sesiones con personas sin hogar, encarcelados y refugiados.

Habrá otra oportunidad para que nuestra diócesis escuche a miembros de la comunidad. Este verano la diócesis hará circular una encuesta, invitando a todos a participar, particularmente a quienes no asistieron a las sesiones parroquiales y quienes no asisten a misa con regularidad. Más detalles próximamente, estén al pendiente.

Los invitamos a seguir este proceso en español a través de sdccatholic.org/sinodo y en inglés en sdccatholic.org/synod. De igual manera, a través de la página de Facebook de la diócesis @DioceseSanDiego. O en nuestra cuenta de Instagram, @SDCCatholics.

Church's synod consultation continues

Over the next several weeks, the Diocese of San Diego will be analyzing the information the parishes submitted after they held their synod listening sessions. The diocese's synod team will summarize the findings from those reports in a document that Bishop McElroy will share with our community this summer. It will be sent to the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, which will submit a report of its own to the Vatican.

Meanwhile, the consultation of young people continues through mid-June at parishes and schools. The diocese, supported by Catholic social service allies, also is holding sessions with the homeless, incarcerated and refugees.

There will be another opportunity for our diocese to listen to our community members. The diocese will circulate a survey this summer, inviting everyone to participate, particularly those who did not attend parish sessions and those not regularly attending Mass. Details to come, so stay tuned.

We invite you to follow this process at sdcatholic.org/synod and sdcatholic.org/sinodo in Spanish, and through the diocese's Facebook (@DioceseSanDiego) and Instagram (@SDCatholics) pages.

Third Sunday of Easter

Reflection: The title of this wonderful story from John's Gospel might be "Surprise Picnic at the Beach." In a very human way, it shows the great love Jesus and his friends had for one another.

In the days after Jesus' resurrection the disciples unclear what to do next return to fishing. While they are out on the water, the risen Christ appears on the shore at Lake Tiberias. The disciples are anchored at a distance and do not recognize him. So far, they have caught nothing but follow Jesus' advice and wind up with a sagging net full of fish. John figures out that the stranger is the Lord. Coming ashore, they enjoy the picnic breakfast Jesus has prepared for them. Jesus calls Peter to do the same to serve others and to "feed" them with the Word of God. The disciples' work is to proclaim the Risen Lord and his message of hope. Jesus himself will provide what is needed to do so.

Adults: Whom can you nurture this week with your time and attention?

Children: What do you think Jesus would like you to do for others?

Prayer Intention: Jesus Christ, give us the grace to trust in your abundance as we nurture others.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Third Sunday of Easter
 May your people exult for ever, O God,
 in renewed youthfulness of spirit,
 so that, rejoicing now in the restored glory of our adoption,
 we may look forward in confident hope to the rejoicing of the day of resurrection.
 Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 God, for ever and ever.
