A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

In the Catholic Church, May is a month dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. We honor her (but not worship her) because she said “yes” to be the mother of our Savior. In her trust in God and willingness to always do the will of God, she stands as a model for all Christians.

I was ordained a priest on May 13, 1977. Yes, that was 45 years ago this week. Not only was it the month of May but it was also a day on which we honor Our Lady of Fatima. One of the appearances of Mary to the young children in Portugal took place on this day. Needless to say, I have a great love for the Mother of Our Lord.

But I also think that it is important for us to have a healthy and balanced approach to honoring her. Pope St. Paul VI wrote an excellent encyclical in 1974 that provides us with guidelines for correct Marian devotion. There is a good summary of the encyclical Mariæ Cultus at the Marian library of the University of Dayton (<https://udayton.edu/imri/mary/m/magisterial-documents-mariæ-cultus.php>) but I will mention here just a few of the points he makes.

Pope Paul notes that devotion to Mary should be rooted in the Bible. We should be familiar with and understand correctly the key biblical texts that show the role of Mary. The pope also tells us that authentic Marian devotion needs to be Christ-centered. We honor Mary because of her role in the history of salvation. Authentic Marian devotion always leads us to Jesus. To honor Mary is to honor Jesus. Another important point is that our devotion to Mary should be ecclesial, i.e., in harmony with the tradition of the Church. Mary is honored as Mother of the Church. She is our mother and watches over us. But we should not take part in novel or unusual Marian devotion created by individuals (clergy or lay) who stress the bizarre and miraculous. The internet is cluttered with these people who claim to be Catholic. The Church has a process for approving authentic Marian devotion and we should stick to approved devotions. I mention one more point noted by Pope Paul: he tells us Marian prayer is liturgical. She has a special place in the liturgical life of the Church. We remember her at every Mass but we also have Marian feast days spread across the liturgical year. These are the primary ways the Church celebrates and honors Mary. This does not mean that there is not a place for private devotions to Mary. In fact, the third part of the encyclical speaks about the special place of the rosary and the angelus as Marian prayer. But Mary is honored in a particular way when the Church celebrates one or another of her feast days.

So let us honor Mary during this month of May. We pray with her to Jesus her Son. We can rely on her intercession as well. If you do not usually include Mary in your prayer, this might be a good time to give it a try. If you are a strong Marian devotee, reflect on the guidelines given to us by Pope St. Paul VI.

Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to you.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel
Jesús les dijo, “Les doy un mandamiento nuevo: que se amen los unos a los otros, como yo los he amado; y por este amor reconocerán todos que ustedes son mis discípulos”.
 Cuando fuimos a las clases de catecismo se nos dijo de que era bien importante aprendernos de memoria los 10 mandamientos. Los 10 mandamientos que Moisés recibió de Dios para el Pueblo de Dios. Y todavía ahora, los mandamientos son importantes y son usados como la base para vivir nuestra vida cotidiana. Pero en este 5° Domingo de Pascua, leemos que Jesús da un mandamiento nuevo, y es, “que nos amemos los unos a los otros como El nos ha amado”, y que por medio de este amor reconoceremos que somos seguidores de Jesús. Personalmente, siempre que oigo estas palabras de Jesús, me incomodan. Porque Jesús me está diciendo a mí, “si quieres ser mi discípulo, ama a todos”. Y eso no es fácil. Jesús amó hasta el extremo, dando su vida para que todos tengamos vida eterna. Jesús nos pide que amemos de la misma manera, dándonos para que otros tengan vida. A veces nos preocupamos porque no están viniendo nuestros hijos u otros familiares a misa; o porque les interesa ir a otra iglesia que no es nuestra iglesia. Son varias razones, no solamente una. Pero para nosotros nos corresponde cumplir con el mandamiento nuevo que nos ha dado Jesús, “amar a todos y así reconocerán que son mis discípulos”.
Dios se encarga del resto.

On Monday, May 9, Bishop Robert Brom, fourth Bishop of the Diocese of San Diego, was called home by the Lord. He was born in Arcadia, WI on September 18, 1938. He was ordained a priest on December 18, 1963. After 20 years, he was ordained a bishop and installed as Bishop of Duluth, MN on May 23, 1983. Subsequently Bishop Brom was appointed coadjutor Bishop of San Diego on April 22, 1989.

The following year he continued on to become the Bishop of the Diocese. For 23 years he served faithfully as Bishop of this diocese and guided it in times of joy and times of struggle. His achievements were many as new parishes were formed, churches built and high schools strengthened. He retired on September 18, 2013 but continued to live and minister in the Diocese of San Diego, particularly through his leadership in prison ministry. His Mass of Christian Burial will take place on Tuesday, May 17 at St. Therese of Carmel Church

Please remember Bishop Brom in your prayers. May his soul and the souls of all the faithfully departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

Ecumenism and the Catholic Church

What is the relationship between the Catholic Church and other Christian religions? Are their beliefs and practices really so different? Are we allowed to pray in non-Catholic churches? What does it mean to be ecumenical? Fr. Ron recently taught a four-week course on Ecumenism. He will give a summary of what he covered and answer questions from participants. The session will last one and a half hours with one hour for presentation and thirty minutes for questions. The program will now be offered in the evening only on Tuesday May 17 at 7:00 - 8:30PM.

The session is free and no reservations are necessary.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Fifth Sunday of Easter
Almighty ever-living God,
constantly accomplish the Paschal Mystery within us,
that those you were pleased to make new in Holy Baptism
may, under your protective care, bear much fruit
and come to the joys of life eternal.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Religious Education & Family Ministry

(PreK – 8th grade)

Fifth Sunday of Easter

Reflection: Jesus is saying farewell to his friends at the Last Supper. He tells them that he will soon be "glorified", but it is challenging for them to understand what he is facing. So, Jesus gathers them close and tells them how they are to keep his presence alive among them after he is physically absent. "Love one another," he says. With his new command to love one another as he loved them Jesus tells his disciples to follow in his way of forgiveness, mercy, and compassion. Jesus must have much confidence in us to ask us to love in the same way he does: "As I have loved you, so you also should love one another". Write his command on a piece of cardstock. Place it on your table. Keep his words in your heart all day. Notice what opportunities are presented to love others throughout the day. Share with family members and encourage each other to start again the next day. In what ways did you show Jesus' love to others in a word, with a smile, or through a kind action?

Prayer Intention: Jesus Christ, give us the grace to love each person as God loves.

Million Meals Event

The deacons of the Diocese of San Diego have come together to live out their mission to serve the needy by coordinating an event that provides a million nutritious meals to children and families living in extreme poverty.

About half of the meals will be sent to Tijuana, Mexico, for distribution by the Franciscan Sisters at Casa de los Pobres, a non-profit organization that has served the poor for decades. The meals also will be sent to charities serving the poor in the Philippines and Africa.

To do this, the deacons plan to raise $250,000 dollars to be able to purchase the food ingredients and to recruit 3,000 volunteers to pack the equivalent of one million meals over one fun, inspiring weekend.

Our parish deacons will be accepting donations on the patio this weekend May 14-15. Also If you would like to volunteer to help pack the meals on the weekend of

June 11-12 at Cathedral Catholic High School. For more information or to volunteer go to www.sdatholic.org/millionmeals

MAKING ALL THINGS NEW

Although we are five full weeks into the celebration of Easter, today's readings focus on newness. Our Easter food leftovers may be long gone, but the readings insist on every moment's freshness in the risen Jesus.

The Acts of the Apostles depicts Paul and Barnabas reflecting on all the innovative work that God has done with them. They have traveled hundreds of miles, introducing faith in Jesus Christ to all who listen, even Gentiles. For the dutiful Jewish scholar Paul, preaching to Gentiles is a completely unique development.

Jesus calls Paul, and us, not to be afraid of new challenges: as John the Evangelist reports in Revelation, Jesus promises to "make all things new."

In the Gospel reading, Jesus even gives us a new commandment. The Hebrew Scriptures overflow with commandments, but Jesus knows we need one more, perfect mission: "love one another."

Fifth Sunday of Easter – Year C

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 14:21-27

Paul and Barnabas proclaim the good news in many places.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 145:8-9,10-11,12-13

A song of praise to God.

Second Reading

Revelation 21:1-5a

John describes his vision of a new heaven and a new earth.

Gospel Reading

John 13:31-33a,34-35

Jesus gives his disciples a new commandment: love one another.

LOVE
one another
AS I HAVE loved you
John 13:34

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel again comes from the Gospel of John. Like last week, today we hear words spoken by Jesus before his death and Resurrection. Jesus is teaching at the Last Supper.

John's Gospel does not include an institution of the Eucharist narrative; instead, Jesus washes his disciples' feet. Immediately after, Jesus predicts his betrayal by Judas. Today's Gospel follows that prediction. It can be read as a continuing explanation of Jesus' act of washing his disciples' feet. It begins with the announcement that this is the moment when the Son of Man will be glorified. This theme continues throughout John's Passion. Jesus will be glorified in his death on the cross and in his Resurrection, and the disciples will glorify Jesus in the love they show.

John's Gospel does not present a sentimental view of love. This is a type of love that is shown in service and sacrifice. It is difficult to choose to love when faced with hatred and anger. Jesus tells the disciples that all will know that they are his disciples because of the love they show for one another. This description of the early Christian community will be repeated in the Acts of the Apostles: "See how they love one another." Christian love is the hallmark of Christianity. We see it lived in the witness of the martyrs. We see it in the example of the lives of the saints. We see it in the holy women and men who live and love daily, making small and large sacrifices for others.
