A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

My heart was so heavy last weekend as I heard the news about the mass killings in my hometown of Buffalo. I resonated with the woman I saw on TV who said, "You see these things happening elsewhere, but you never think that is possible in your own town."

I was even more saddened when I heard that the killings were racially motivated. You see, I went to high school in that same neighborhood in the days of racial tension during the 1960s. The racist attacks of last weekend reminded me that racism is not something from the past. It is still present in our society today.

That's what the US Catholic Bishops said in their 2018 statement on racism called Open Wide Our Hearts. In it they say: "We cannot, therefore, look upon the progress against racism in recent decades and conclude that our current situation meets the standard of justice. In fact, God demands what is right and just." In other words, we still have work to do.

Jesus' command to love our neighbor (the gospel reading last weekend) includes the mandate for his disciples to work against all forms of discrimination and prejudice of any kind. Racism exists in so many places in our society. We heard last weekend how it exists in social media and online hate groups. It is present in many of our institutions. The bishops point out that racism is sometimes present in groups or individuals without a full awareness.

That is why the bishops urge each of us: "We must be honest with ourselves. Each of us should examine our conscience and ask if we have some bit of racism inside us. Throughout their statement, the bishops stress the need for conversion. And that conversion needs to begin in the heart and mind of each person.

I am not able to bring an end to the attitude in others that brings them to do such terrible acts of violence and killing. But I can look deeply into myself, admit my own prejudices, and pray for the grace of conversion. I invite you to pray the following prayer which the bishops included in their statement.

God of Heaven and Earth, you created the one human family and endowed each person with great dignity. Aid us, we pray, in overcoming the sin of racism. Grant us your grace in eliminating this blight from our hearts, our communities, our social and civil institutions. Fill our hearts with love for you and our neighbor so that we may work with you in healing our land from racial injustice. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

Jesús les dijo, "Les he hablado de esto ahora que es Toyota con ustedes; pero el Consolador, el Espíritu Santo que mi Padre les enviará en mi nombre, les enseñará todas las cosas y les recordará todo cuanto yo les he dicho. La paz les dejo, mi paz les doy". Hoy celebramos el 6º Domingo de Pascua. En el Evangelio de San Juan, Jesús les habla a sus discípulos de un Consolador, el Espíritu Santo, que les recordará de todo lo que les dijo Jesús en vida. Jesús sabe que sus discípulos son humanos, y aunque Él se tomó el tiempo para instruirlos y hablarles del Reino de Dios y la Vida Eterna, sabía que se les iba a olvidar, especialmente cuando se encontraran en problemas y momentos difíciles. Eso nos pasa a todos, los problemas tienen la tendencia de nublar nuestra vista y robarnos la paz. Dios, el Espíritu Santo, está en, dentro, y con nosotros. Pensamos que Dios está en el cielo y lejos de nosotros, pero está en nuestro corazón. El Espíritu Santo está presente para guiarlos e instruirlos en cada experiencia de nuestra vida. El Espíritu Santo es la Fuente de la Paz. Busquemos momentos durante el día para pedirle al Espíritu Santo algo que nos guíe, nos fortalezca y que nos dé la paz.

- Diácono Miguel Enríquez

¿QUÉ ES LO ESENCIAL?

Las cuestiones que sopesó el Concilio de Jerusalén en nuestro pasaje de los Hechos estaban relacionadas con la circuncisión como requisito, y con la comunión en la mesa. Una fuerte tradición teológica sosténía que las prácticas tradicionales eran esenciales, y la comunidad buscaba genuinamente mantener la continuidad con las raíces de su fe.

La observación de Pedro sobre cómo el Espíritu estaba actuando activamente en medio de ellos señaló a los líderes una nueva dirección. A continuación, Santiago les recordó que la tradición bíblica también apuntaba a acoger plenamente a los gentiles en la comunidad de Dios.

Es un profundo reto para los líderes de nuestras propias parroquias cuando se enfrentan a cuestiones que pueden fracturar una comunidad. ¿Qué es esencial y qué no lo es? ¿A qué estamos llamados a abrazar o a dejar de lado? Reconocer el conflicto y trabajar para resolverlo es una función esencial para nuestras parroquias, porque Cristo nos llama a vivir en unidad. Estamos llamados a abrir nuestros corazones, extraer nuestra tradición y observar la actividad del Espíritu.

ORACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Sexto Domingo de Pascua
Dios todopoderoso,

concédenos continuar celebrando con incansable amor estos días de tanta alegría en honor del Señor resucitado, y que los misterios que hemos venido conmemorando se manifiesten siempre en nuestras obras.

Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo y es Dios por los siglos de los siglos.

BODAS COMUNITARIAS

Invitamos a las parejas que están casadas solamente por lo civil o que están viviendo en unión libre y desean dar un paso en su vida y recibir el sacramento del Matrimonio. Las bodas comunitarias son una oportunidad para simplificar el proceso.

Si usted está interesada/o, por favor comuníquese a la oficina de catequesis para más información.

RITO DE LA INICIACIÓN CRISTIANA

A los papás que tienen niños sin bautizar y que ya son mayores de 7 años, los invitamos a registrarlos para iniciarse en el proceso de RICA. Adaptado para niños que los prepara para el Bautismo y la Primera Comunión. Las inscripciones están disponibles en línea o en la oficina de catequesis.

VOLVER A LA VIDA ORDINARIA

Seis semanas después de la celebración de la Pascua, la Iglesia nos da las lecturas de hoy que empiezan a prepararnos para regresar a la vida ordinaria. Tanto las del libro de los Hechos de los Apóstoles como el Evangelio se fijan en el comportamiento cotidiano de los seguidores de Jesús, mientras que la lectura del Apocalipsis nos recuerda por qué nos agobiaron por las leyes. En los Hechos, los líderes de la Iglesia se reúnen para comentar qué elementos esenciales de la Ley de Moisés deben obedecer los conversos si desean ser discípulos de Jesucristo. El Evangelio de Juan se remonta al discurso de la Última Cena, cuando el propio Jesús subraya la importancia de obedecer los mandamientos de Dios. Observar la ley de Dios, dice Jesús, muestra el deseo de intimar con el Señor. Seguimos las normas no por sí mismas, sino para amar mejor a Dios y al prójimo. Este amor más excelente nos acerca a la visión del paraíso del libro del Apocalipsis, resplandeciente con "el esplendor de Dios".

Religious Education & Family Ministry (PreK – 8th grade) Sixth Sunday of Easter

Reflection: As Jesus prepares his followers for his leaving, he tells them that they will not be left alone. He and his Father will make their dwelling with those who love him. They will receive the Holy Spirit who will teach and remind them of what Jesus told them while on earth. The peace that Jesus gives will continue to be theirs. Our God chooses to make a home in us. Our God is with us always - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – in times of celebration, health, and plenty, and in times of sorrow, suffering, and trial. We are never left alone.

Adults: What does it mean to keep God's word? How do you do that?

Children: What does it mean that God makes his home in you?

Prayer Intention: Jesus Christ, fill us with your peace.

Thank you for a great year!

Our religious education program has ended for this year. We had 160 students age preschool through middle school; 25 of them celebrated their First Confession and First Holy Communion. 48 students began their sacramental preparation with Year One. Seven of our students are moving into high school and are invited to continue with our Youth Office for their Confirmation preparation.

We thank our dedicated families that participated by bringing their children to either the weekly classes or doing the faith sharing at home. Besides moms and dads, we are especially grateful for the great support grandparents are lending to the faith formation of their grandchildren. We are honored by the commitment of the catechists who every week with great love and compassion teach and guide the children. And of course, many thanks to our maintenance guys who tirelessly set up classroom spaces, to our parish staff for their assistance and to our wonderful priests for their pastoral and liturgical leadership of our entire parish family.

Blessings to all.

New Classes for children in Preschool through middle school will begin in the fall. Registration will open in June.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Sixth Sunday of Easter
Grant, almighty God,
that we may celebrate with heartfelt devotion
these days of joy,
which we keep in honor of the risen Lord,
and that what we relive in remembrance
we may always hold to in what we do.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

RETURNING TO ORDINARY LIFE

Six weeks into our Easter rejoicing, the Church gives us readings today that start preparing us for a return to ordinary life. The Acts of the Apostles and the Gospel both dwell on proper daily behavior for followers of Jesus, while the reading from Revelation reminds us why we bother with laws at all. In Acts, leaders of the church meet to discuss which essential elements of the Mosaic Law converts must obey if they wish to be disciples of Jesus Christ. John's Gospel reflects back to the Last Supper discourse when Jesus himself emphasizes the importance of obeying God's commandments. Observing God's law, says Jesus, shows a desire to be intimate with the Lord. We follow rules not for their own sake, but to love God and neighbor better. This more excellent love brings us closer to Revelation's vision of paradise, gleaming with "the splendor of God."

WHY IS IT
A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth with ADVERTISED toothpaste washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then refuses to ADVERTISE believing it doesn't pay. Later if business is poor he ADVERTISES it for sale.

WHY IS IT?

Sixth Sunday of Easter – Year C

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 15:1-2,22-29

The early Church community determines, with the help of the Holy Spirit, not to impose the requirement of circumcision on Gentile Christians.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 67:2-3,5,6,8

A prayer that all the nations sing praise to God.

Second Reading

Revelation 21:10-14,22-23

The vision of the splendor of the heavenly Jerusalem is described.

Gospel Reading

John 14:23-29

Jesus promises his disciples that the Father will send the Advocate, the Holy Spirit.

Background on the Gospel Reading

This portion of John's Gospel comes near the end of the first of four chapters that make up Jesus' long farewell discourse at the Last Supper. This section of chapter 14 actually sums up the themes of the opening of the discourse: the Christian's life is not shaped by Jesus' absence but by God's abiding presence; God's presence overcomes anxiety about God's absence; and the present holds in it the seeds of a fresh future shaped by love, not fear.

These verses also contain a glimpse of some of the other themes of the farewell discourse: Jesus' relationship with the Father and the disciples' relationship to Jesus connect the disciples to the Father as well. Jesus promises to send an Advocate or intercessor who will remind the disciples of everything that Jesus taught them and bring them peace.

Jesus is preparing his disciples in advance for his absence so that they will continue to believe in him and not feel all alone after his return to the Father. After the initial excitement of his Easter appearances, Jesus will remain with his followers in a very different way throughout the centuries.

As our celebration of the Easter season is coming to an end, the liturgy reminds us that Jesus remains with us through the Holy Spirit, who teaches us everything we need to know, reminds us of all that Jesus taught, and brings us peace.
