A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

On this weekend we have much to celebrate. Of course, it is the Fourth Sunday of Easter. We continue to bask in the light of the risen Lord. His death and resurrection have conquered the darkness of sin and evil. We acknowledge him as our Mighty God and Conqueror.

Every year on this 4th Sunday of Easter, the Lectionary for Sunday Mass presents to us Scripture readings that focus on Jesus as a shepherd. He is shepherd, the sheepgate, and the gatekeeper all rolled into one. (The gospel is always a portion of chapter 10 of John's gospel in which Jesus speaks of these themes at length.) In the short gospel passage we hear this week, Jesus tells us: "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me."

So, the Fourth Sunday of Easter has come to be known as Good Shepherd Sunday. Jesus is the Good Shepherd who dedicates himself totally to the care of the flock. Likewise, this Sunday is observed as the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. The purpose of this day is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), consecrated life in all its forms (male and female religious life, societies of apostolic life, consecrated virginity), secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life.

I think you know that our part of the world is experiencing a decline in vocations to ordained ministry and religious life. I encourage you to pray for more vocations. I also ask you to give your support to your son or daughter, relative or friend who might be considering a vocation in the Church. An encouraging word goes a long way in promoting vocations.

This Sunday we also observe Mothers' Day. It is a time for us to give thanks to God for the great gift that mothers are to their families. We pray that God would continue to bless our mothers and strengthen them in their faith. We also pray for any mothers who are struggling to fulfill their call and need the grace of God in a particular way. We also commend our deceased mothers to the arms of our loving and compassionate God. At all our Masses this weekend, we will pray a special blessing for all mothers.

Several recent popes have spoken about the image of God as mother. Of course, we more frequently address God as father, yet we know that God is neither male nor female. Read the article in this week's newsletter that speaks about "Discovering God as Mother." It is enriching to reflect on the biblical images that ascribe maternal qualities to our God.

Happy Mothers' Day to all mothers, grandmothers, mothers-to-be, foster mothers, godmothers and all who fulfill the role of mother in any way. May God bless you all!

In one Heart,

Fr. Ron

Un saludo del Diácono Miguel

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a los judíos, “Mis ovejas escuchan mi voz; yo las conozco y ellas me siguen. Yo les doy la vida eterna y no perecerán jamás; nadie las arrebatará de mi mano. Me las ha dado mi Padre, y Él es superior a todos, y nadie puede arrebatarlas de la mano del Padre. El Padre y yo somos uno”. Tenemos la tendencia de vivir una vida apresurada, sobreviviendo, encontrándonos en situaciones buenas y llenas de risas. Pero también en situaciones duras, fuertes, que nos quitan la paz, que nos quitan el sueño y no descansamos. Pero cuando nos sintamos abrumados con todo lo que cargamos sobre nuestros hombros, detengámonos y pongámonos en silencio, y repitamos el nombre de Jesús, diciendo lentamente, “Jesús, Jesús, Jesús”. Y hay que recordar que somos de Jesús, el Buen Pastor. Jesús siempre camina con nosotros, siempre está a nuestro lado cuidándonos, nutriéndonos, guiándonos. Para sentir su presencia y escuchar su voz, tenemos que ponernos en silencio y dejar que su presencia penetre nuestro corazón. Jesús nos dice en el Evangelio “que nadie podrá arrebatarnos de la mano del Padre”. Hagamos la decisión hoy, diciéndole a Jesús, “aquí estoy, tómame en tus manos, soy tuyo y tu eres mío. Confío en ti, Señor”.

Hoy quiero felicitar a todos las Madres. Sé que a veces se sienten que no son apreciadas y necesitadas por sus hijos. A veces, las hijas e hijos, no sabemos, o se nos olvida, darles las gracias, y de brindarles un poco de tiempo para escucharlas o demostrarles amor. Me atrevo a hablar por todas las hijas e hijos, diciéndoles, “Mami, perdónanos por no ser atentos. Gracias por amarme siempre. Gracias por siempre estar a mi lado. Mamá, que Dios te siga bendiciendo. Mami, te amo y Feliz Día de las Madres”.

Ministerio de Consolación

Cada uno de nosotros vive el duelo de la pérdida de un ser querido. Algunas personas tratan de lidiar con su dolor por sí mismos y no quieren o no necesitan asistencia de afuera. Sin embargo, muchos otros buscan y encuentran consuelo en compartir su dolor, enojo, depresión u otras emociones que pueden experimentar después de la pérdida de un ser querido.

Nos reunimos los jueves a las 7:00pm en el salón Fr. Mullen de la escuela. Para más información comunícate con Lola Enríquez, 760-712-2029.

Church's synod consultation continues

Over the next several weeks, the Diocese of San Diego will be analyzing the information the parishes submitted after they held their synod listening sessions. The diocese's synod team will summarize the findings from those reports in a document that Bishop McElroy will share with our community this summer. It will be sent to the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, which will submit a report of its own to the Vatican.

Meanwhile, the consultation of young people continues through mid-June at parishes and schools. The diocese, supported by Catholic social service allies, also is holding sessions with the homeless, incarcerated and refugees.

There will be another opportunity for our diocese to listen to our community members. The diocese will circulate a survey this summer, inviting everyone to participate, particularly those who did not attend parish sessions and those not regularly attending Mass. Details to come, so stay tuned.

We invite you to follow this process at sdcatholic.org/synod and sdcatholic.org/sinodo in Spanish, and through the diocese's Facebook @DioceseSanDiego and Instagram @SDCatholics pages.

Mothers Day Remembrance

Throughout the month of May, we will be praying for all mothers, living and deceased. The names of those requested will be placed on the altar in the church. There is an envelope for this purpose in your packet of envelopes. Additional envelopes are available in the back of the church. Or you can use a plain envelope and write on it the names of any mothers you want to be included. Simply place your envelope in any collection or send it to the office.

Grief Newsletters

At the end of March, we began to share the Grief Newsletters that have been prepared by Hospice of North Coast.

There are 12 issues in all. Before Easter, we shared the first three issues. You can still see them in the newsletter section of our parish website. At the back of the church, you can find this week's issue #5.

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Reflection: In the Gospel this Sunday we hear words that Jesus directed to some Jewish leaders who wanted to trip him up. They were hoping he would call himself the Messiah. Instead, Jesus refers to himself as "the Good Shepherd" who knows and protects all his sheep. He describes the secure and lasting relationship he has with his sheep who truly hear him and believe. Just as no one can separate Jesus and his Father, no one can take Jesus' disciples away from him.

At our Baptism, we become part of the Good Shepherd's sheepfold. He knows us. He lovingly tends to us. He offers us his Body and Blood as food and drink. Jesus is the Good Shepherd. We belong to him, and he gives us our heart's desire - eternal life with him.

Adults: What can you do this week to show that you have truly heard the Good Shepherd's voice?

Children: How does Jesus know us so well? How do we know we are hearing his voice?

Prayer Intention: Jesus Christ, Good Shepherd, give us the grace to follow your voice.

Million Meals Event

The deacons of the Diocese of San Diego have come together to live out their mission to serve the needy by coordinating an event that provides a million nutritious meals to children and families living in extreme poverty.

About half of the meals will be sent to Tijuana, Mexico, for distribution by the Franciscan Sisters at Casa de los Pobres, a non-profit organization that has served the poor for decades. The meals also will be sent to charities serving the poor in the Philippines and Africa.

To do this, the deacons plan to raise $250,000 dollars to be able to purchase the food ingredients and to recruit 3,000 volunteers to pack the equivalent of one million meals over one fun, inspiring weekend.

Our parish deacons will be accepting donations on the patio on the weekends of May 7-8 and May 14-15. You may also wish to volunteer to help pack the meals on the weekend of June 11-12 at Cathedral Catholic High School. For more information or to volunteer go to www.sdcatholic.org/millionmeals

Ecumenism and the Catholic Church

What is the relationship between the Catholic Church and other Christian religions? Are their beliefs and practices really so different? Are we allowed to pray in non-Catholic churches? What does it mean to be ecumenical?

Fr. Ron recently taught a four-week course on Ecumenism. He will give a summary of what he covered and answer questions from participants. The session will last one and a half hours with one hour for presentation and thirty minutes for questions. The same program will be offered twice on Tuesday May 17. The morning session will be at 9:00-10:30 am and be repeated at 7:00-8:30pm. The session is free and no reservations are necessary.

Gospel Reading

John 10:27-30

Jesus describes his care for his sheep.

Background on the Gospel Reading

The fourth Sunday of Easter is also called Good Shepherd Sunday. In each of the three lectionary cycles, the Gospel is taken from the tenth chapter of the Gospel of John. This chapter of John's Gospel follows Jesus' healing of the man born blind and the rejection of this miracle by Jewish leaders who question Jesus' authority to heal. Jesus responds to this challenge to his authority by calling himself the Good Shepherd. He is criticizing the Pharisees and other Jewish leaders. Already, the Pharisees and other Jewish leaders are so angered that they attempt to stone and arrest Jesus (see John 10:31 and 10:39). This controversy with the religious leaders continues until Jesus' death.

Set in a moment of tension and conflict in John's Gospel, today's Gospel reading is Jesus' answer to the question, "Are you the Messiah?" Jesus responds by saying, in essence, "If you have to ask, then you are not one of my sheep." Then Jesus asserts his unity with the Father. At the conclusion of these words, John reports that the Jews intend to stone Jesus for blasphemy, but he escapes arrest.

We may be less familiar with the metaphors of sheep and shepherd than those to whom Jesus spoke. The image of Jesus as Good Shepherd and the community of followers as his sheep has endured over the centuries as a primary image in our faith tradition. Its power to describe the relationship between Jesus and his followers transcends direct experience with sheep. The image speaks to us about the protection, security, and care that shepherds represent for their sheep.

Today's Gospel speaks powerfully about the familiarity and intimacy between Jesus and his disciples, expressed as recognizing and knowing another's voice. Today's Gospel also speaks to the relationship between Jesus and the Father. In the Gospel of John, Jesus identifies so closely with the Father that he tells us that they are one—not just close, but actually one. To know Jesus is to know the Father. Jesus doesn't just bring us closer to the Father, Jesus puts us directly into contact with God the Father, removing all distance between us. Our relationship with Jesus is an invitation to share in the life of God.
