Gungkorv

A previous textile experiment I conducted using fabric, elastic and batting served as the inspiration for the cover. Playful, soft and bubbly.

The curvature is designed to allow for rocking up to a certain point before it tips back, preventing it from flipping over. The form was developed through calculating, hand sketching, digital tools and physical models.

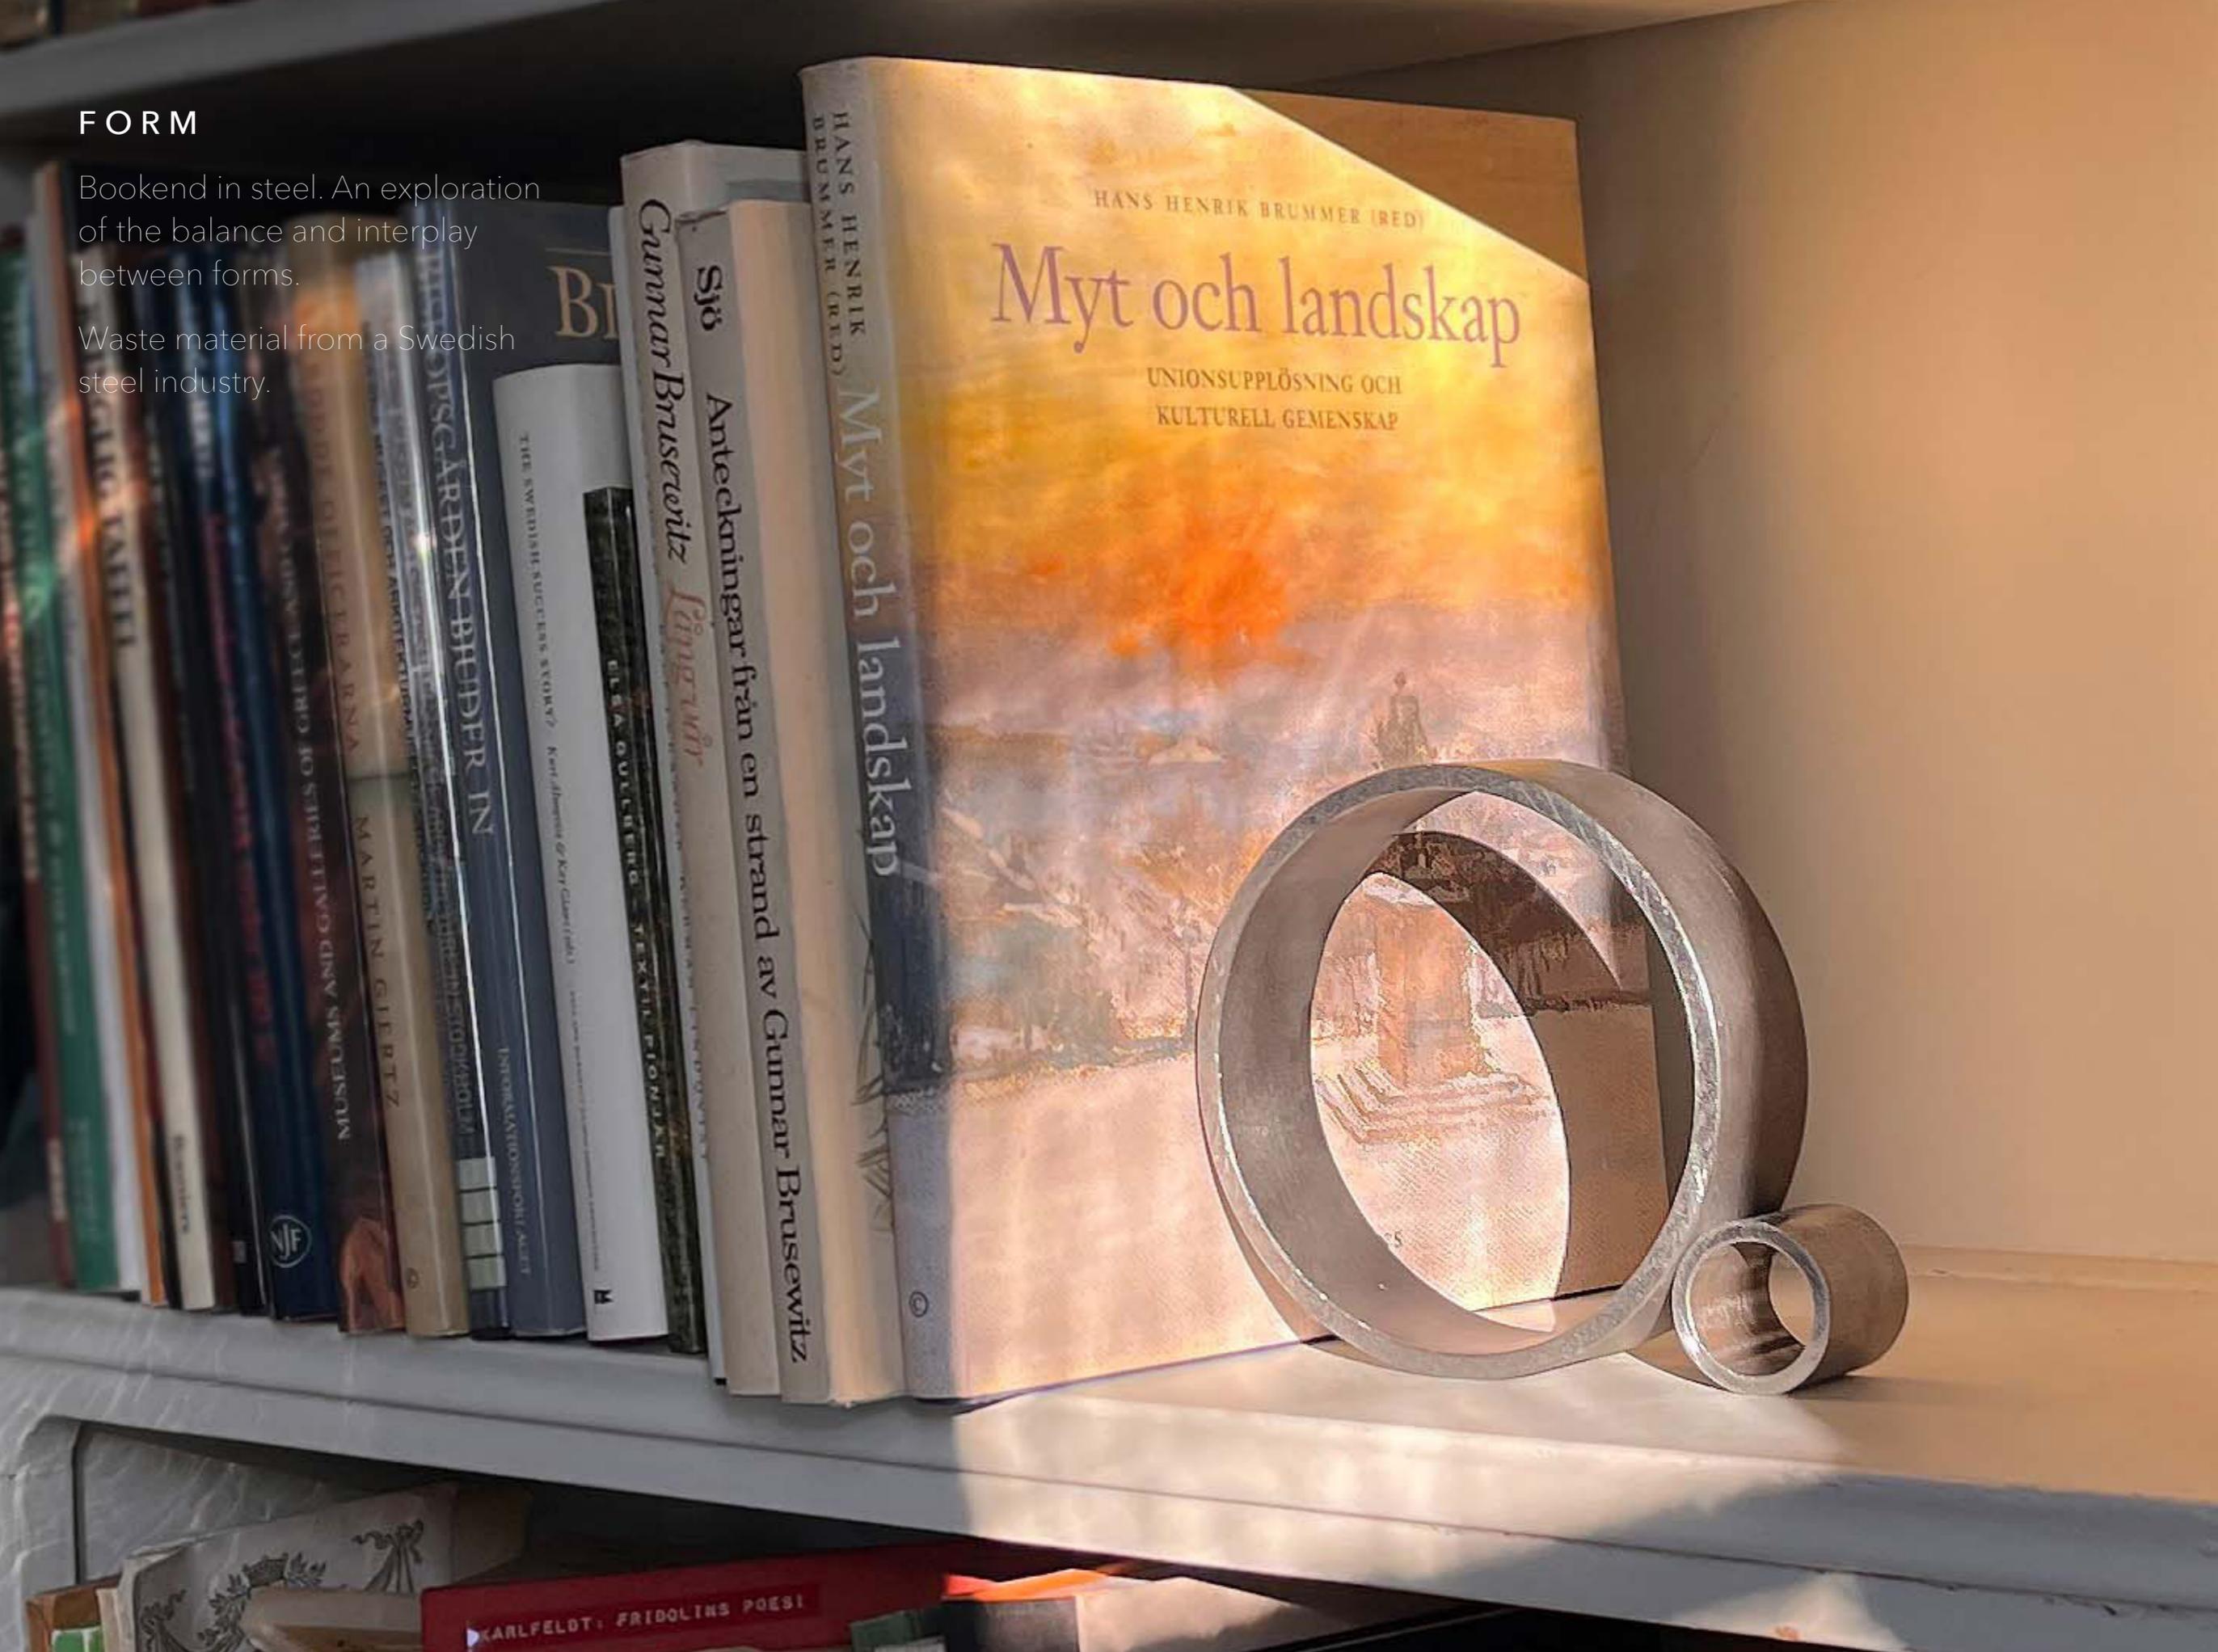

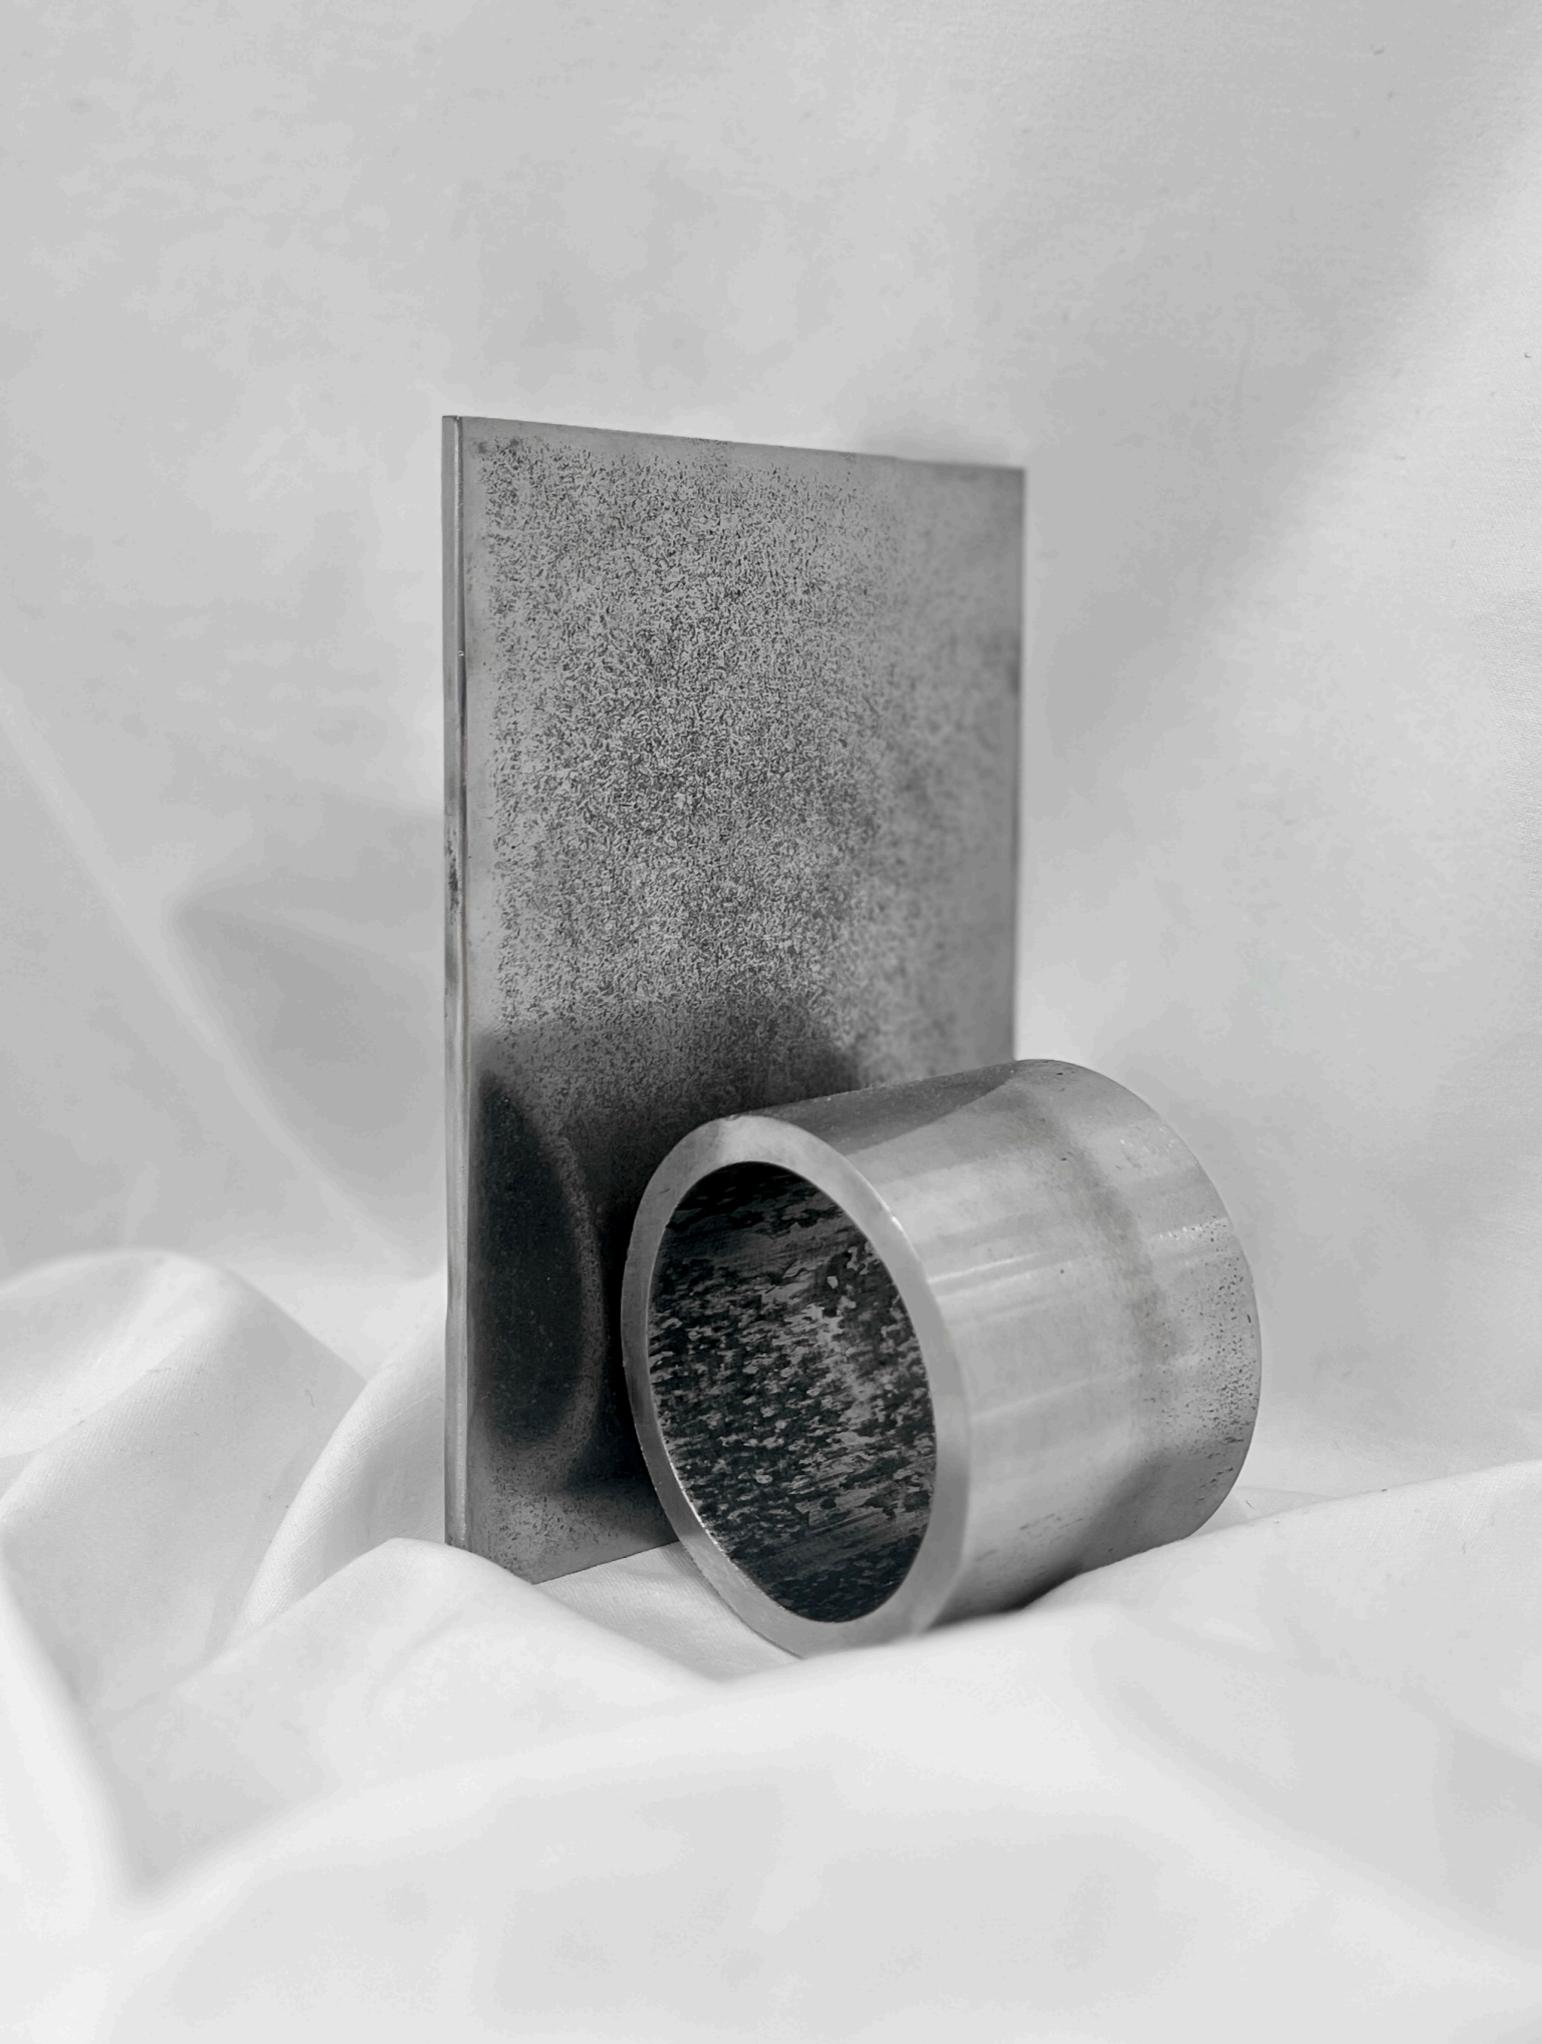

FORM

Bookend in steel. An exploration of the balance and interplay between forms.

Waste material from a Swedish steel industry.

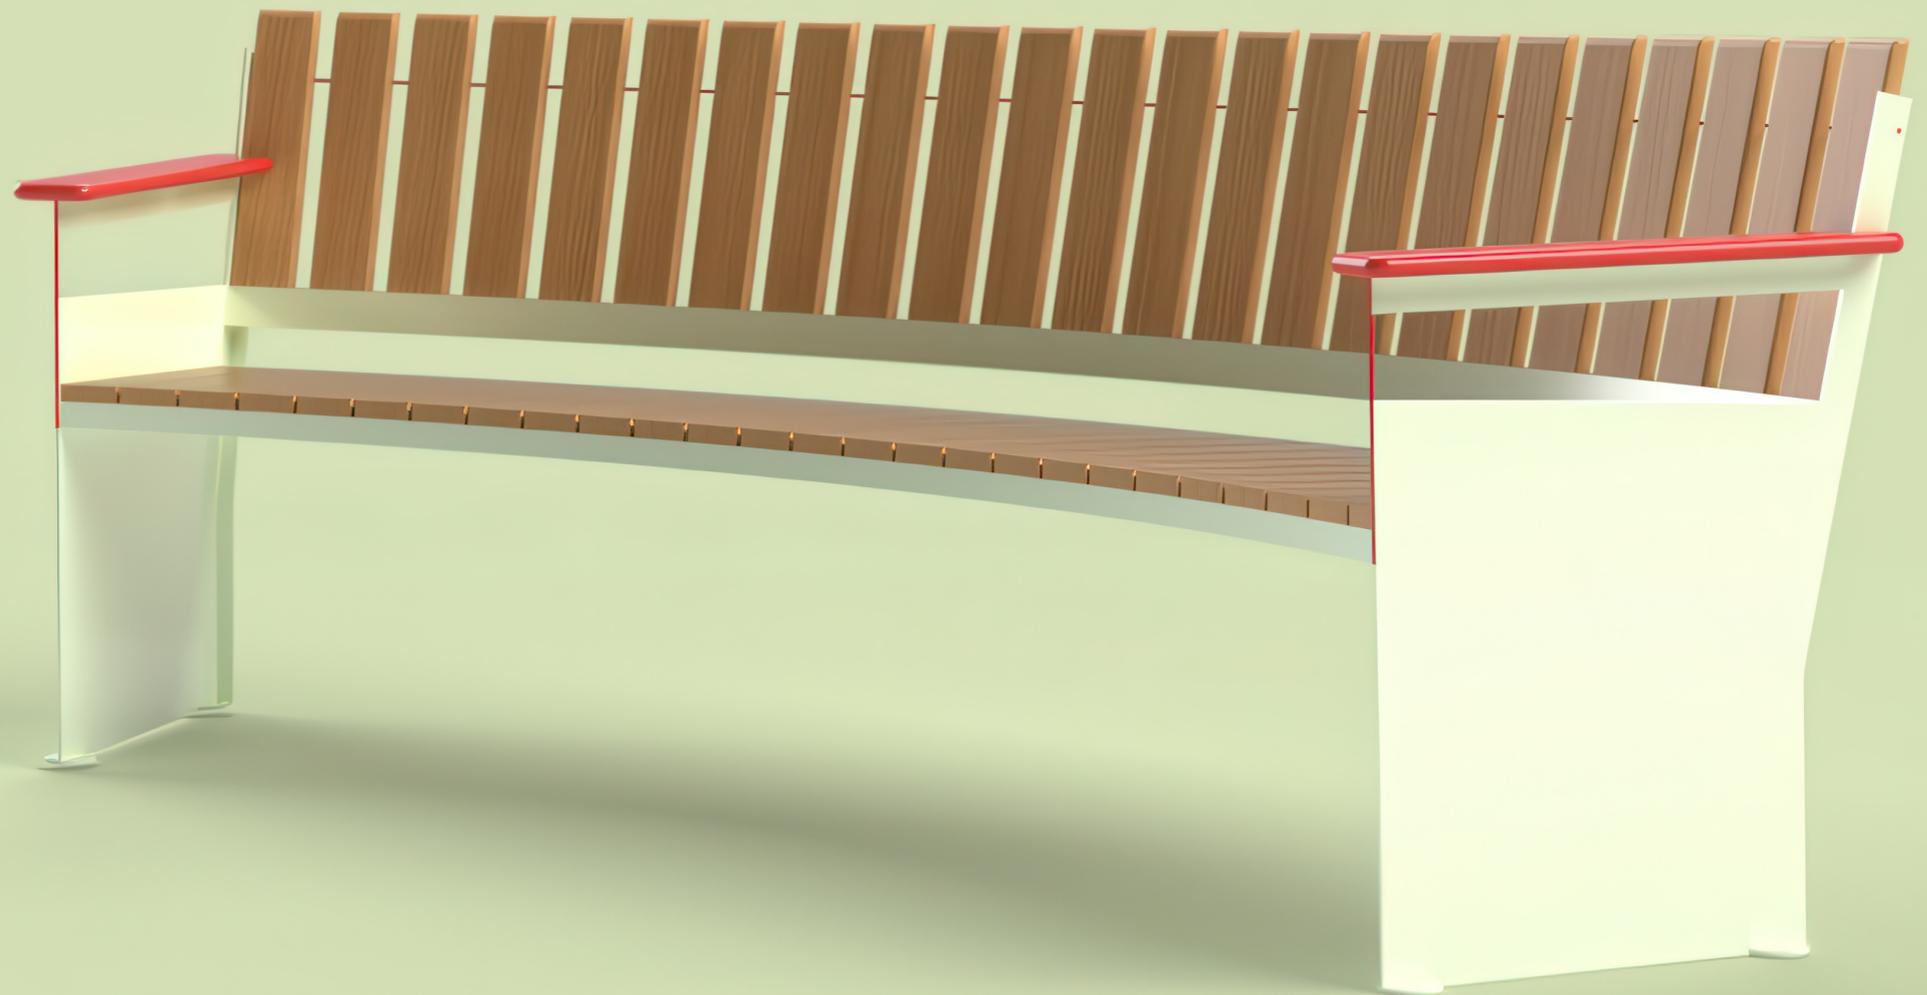

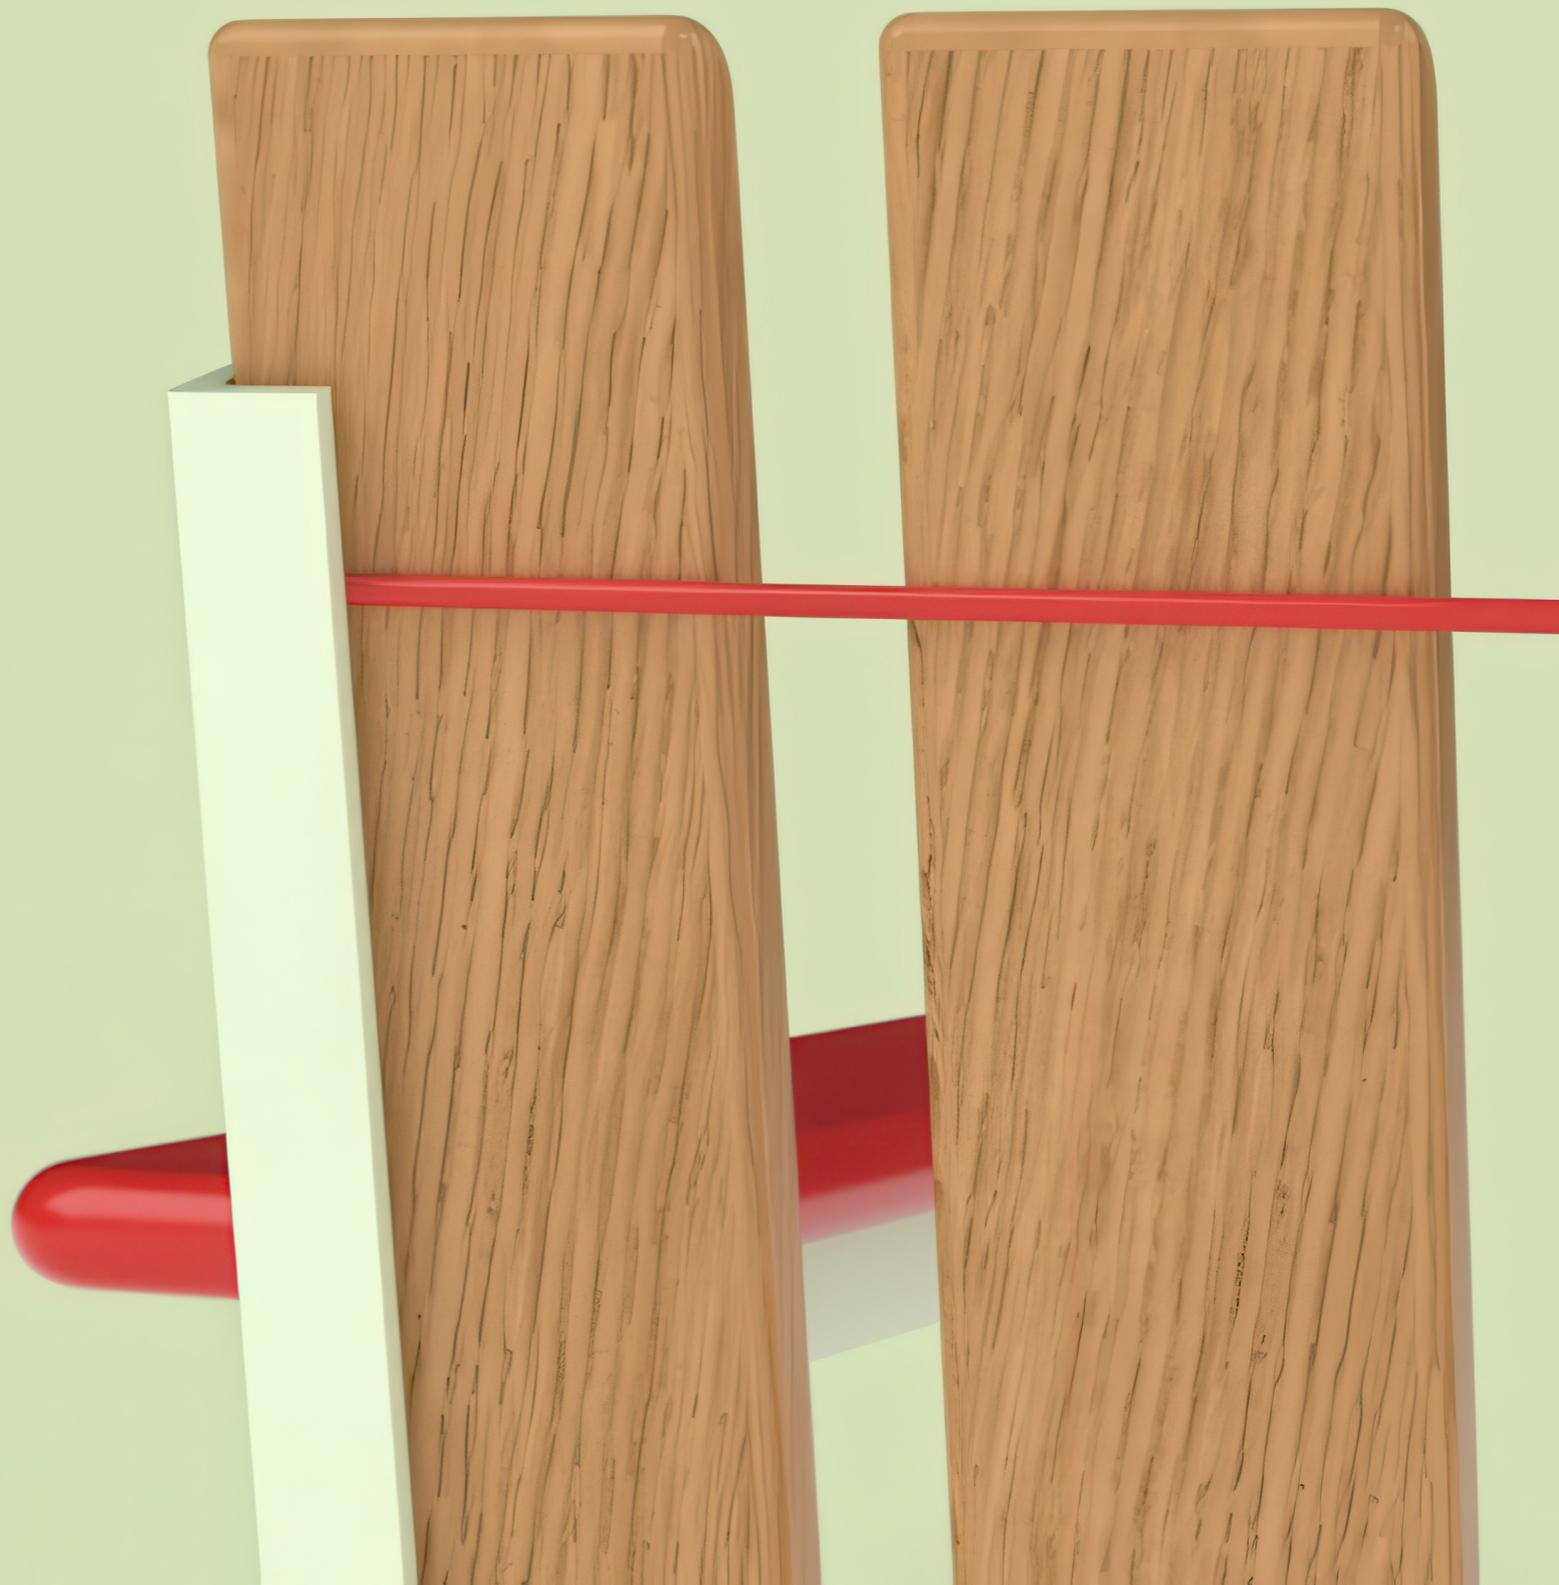

NÄRVAROBÄNKEN

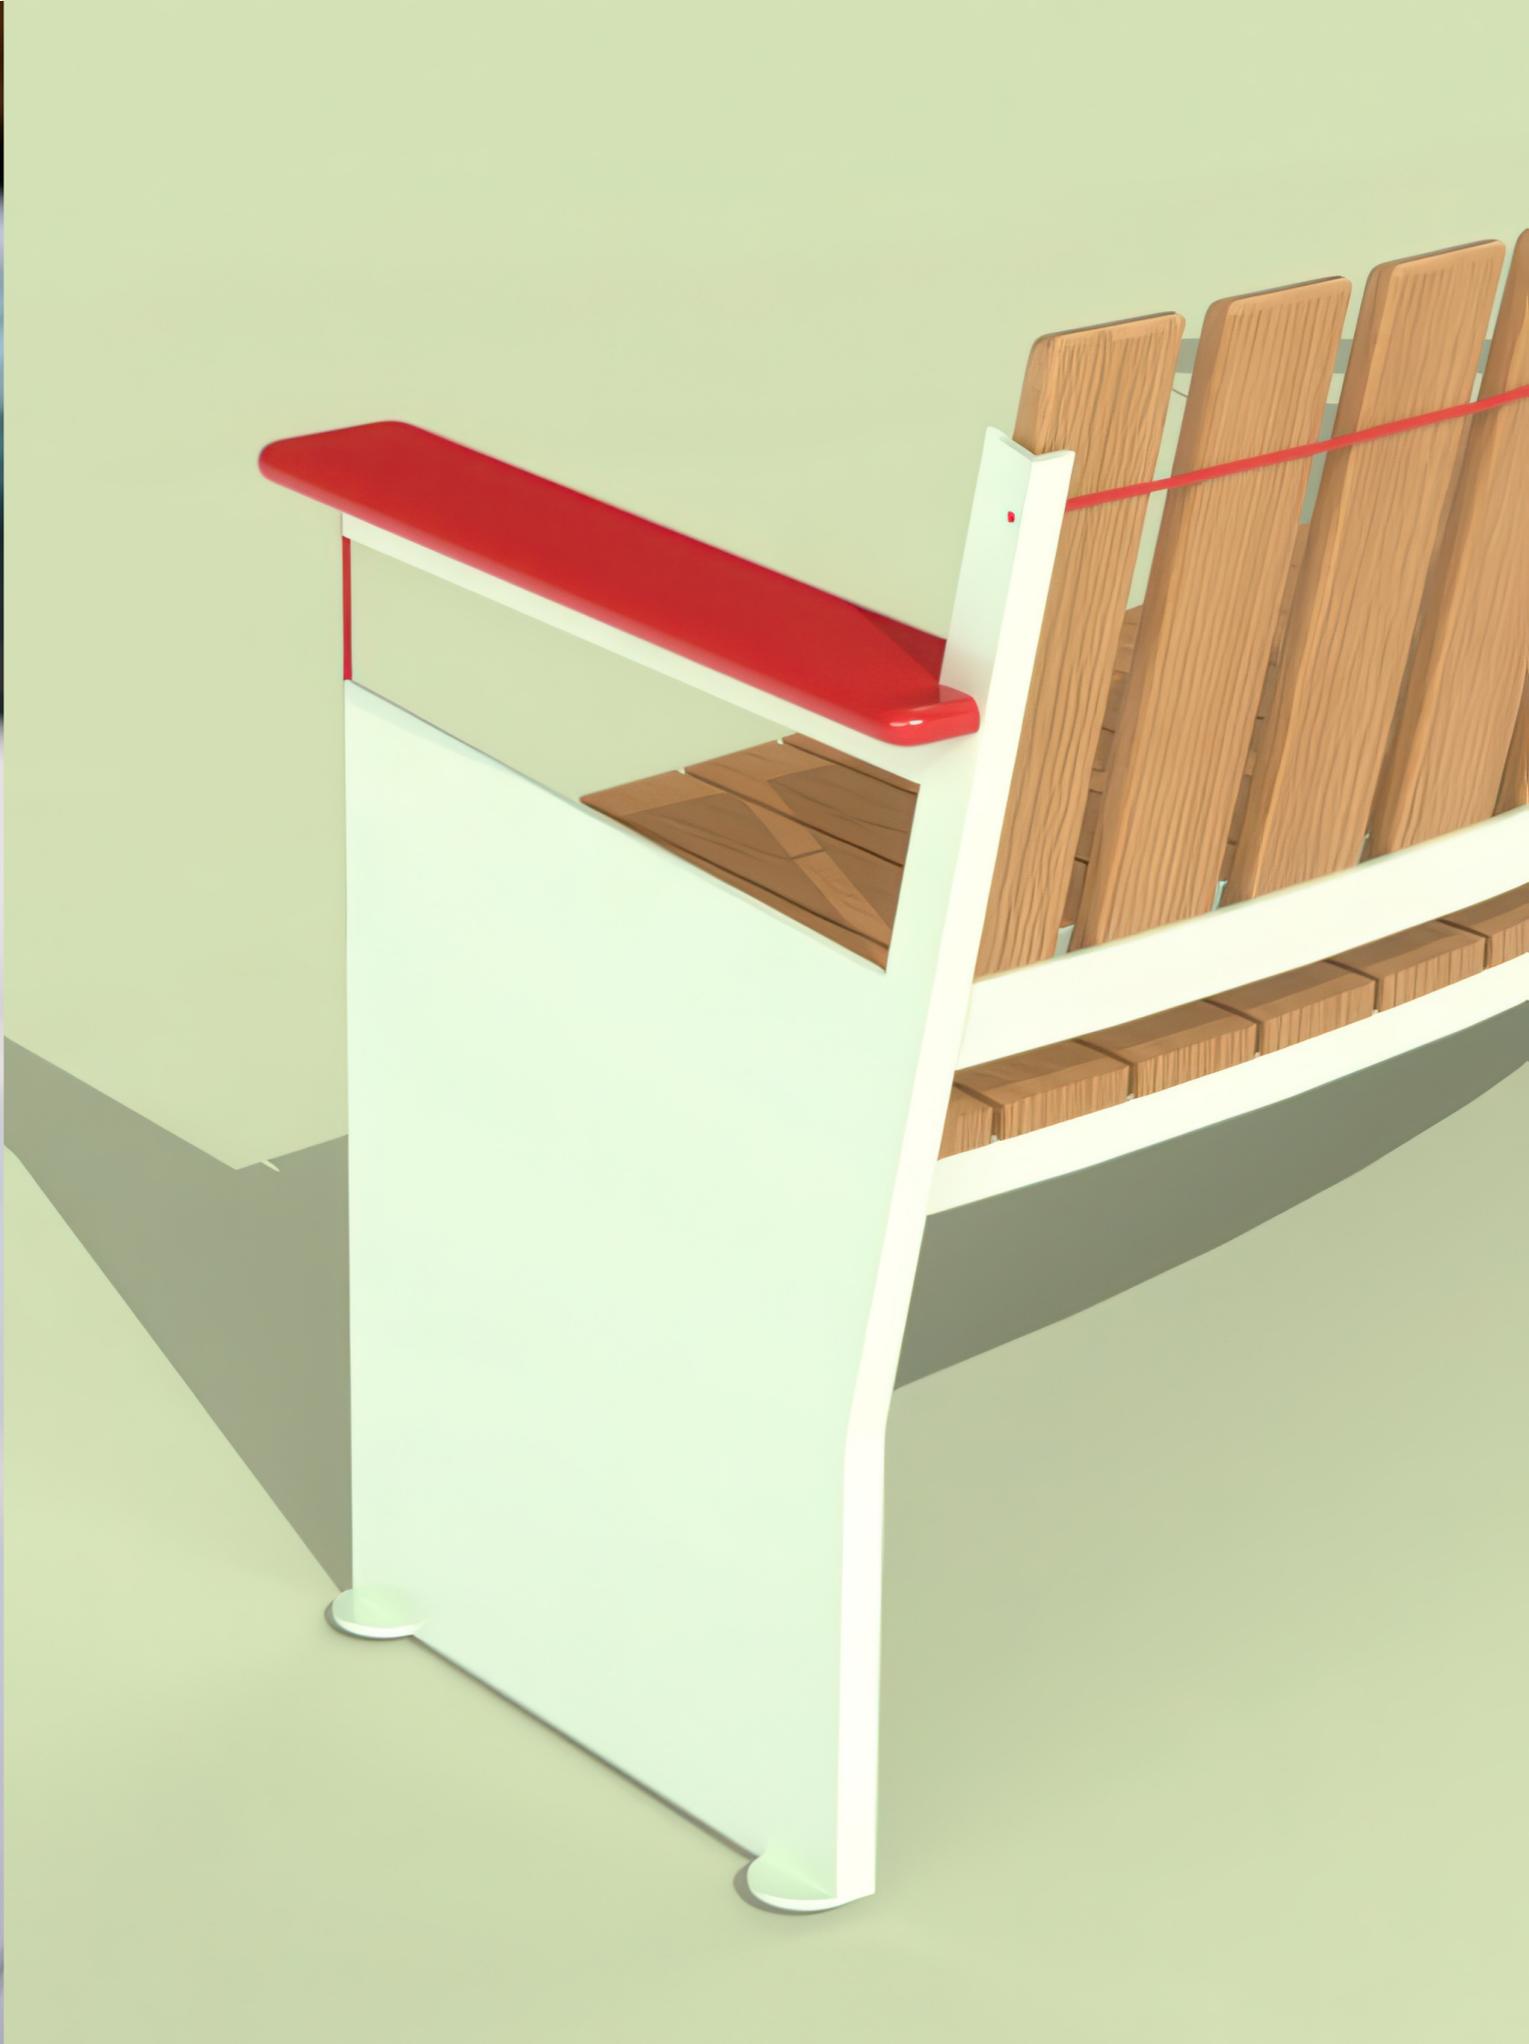

"To feel the presence of others"

A bench against loneliness, designed to transfer movement from one person to another through the backrest.

Commissioned by Lidingö Municipality for its senior citizens.

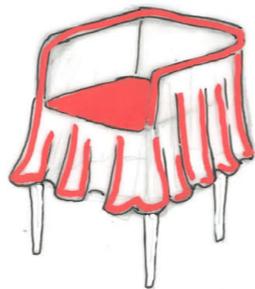

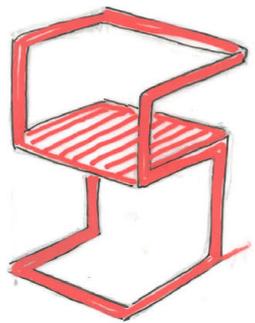

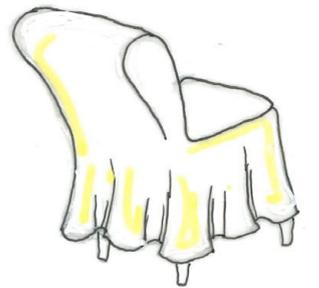

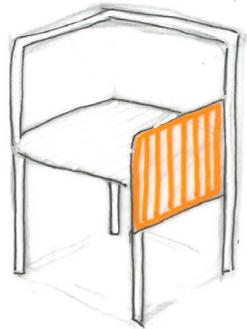

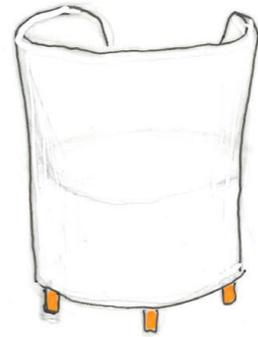

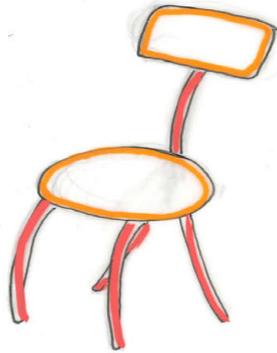

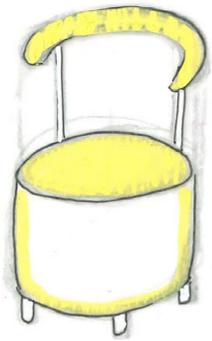

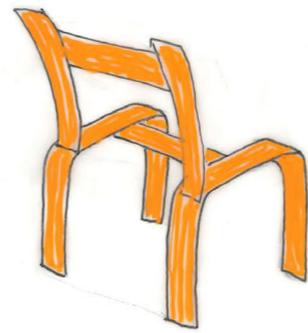

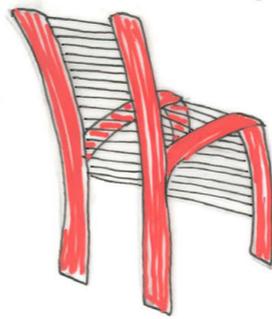

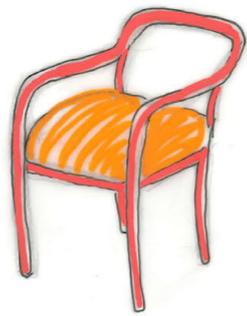

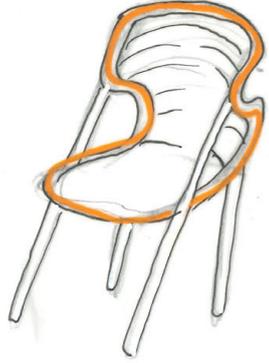

SANGIUNELLI

Pattern created through screen printing on fabric. Applied to tablecloths and trays.

Thank you!
