HCI Group, Inc.

Form 8937 Appendix A

HCI Group, Inc. ("HCI") has outstanding 4.25% Convertible Senior Notes due 2037 (the "Convertible Notes"). Under Section 13.04(d) of the indenture to the Convertible Notes, the conversion rate (that is the number of HCI common shares into which the principal amount of Convertible Notes are convertible) adjusts upward when HCI distributes dividends to common shareholders exceeding 35 cents per share (the "Reference Dividend") in accordance with the following formula:

$$CR' = CR_0 \times \frac{SP_0}{SP_0 - C}$$

where,

- CR_0 = the Conversion Rate in effect immediately prior to the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for such dividend or distribution;
- CR' = the Conversion Rate in effect immediately after the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for such dividend or distribution;
- SP_0 = the average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Common Stock over the 10 consecutive Trading Day period ending on, and including, the Trading Day immediately preceding the Ex-Dividend Date for such dividend or distribution; and
- C = the amount in cash per share the Company distributes to all or substantially all holders of its Common Stock that exceeds the Reference Dividend.

The adjustment is effective on the ex-dividend date.

Any such adjustment in the conversion rate of the Convertible Notes may result in a deemed distribution to holders of the Convertible Notes under Section 301 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), by reason of Sections 305(b)(2) and 305(c) of the Code. Section 6045B of the Code and the underlying Treasury Regulations provide that effective January 1, 2016, if a corporation issues a cash dividend with respect to stock that results in a conversion rate adjustment on a convertible debt instrument that is treated as a deemed distribution under Section 305(b)(2) and (c) of the Code, an information return must be filed with the Internal Revenue Service describing, among other things, the action and the actions quantitative effect. As an alternative to filing this information return with the Internal Revenue Service, an issuer may post the information return to its public website.

The information contained in Form 8937 and this Appendix A is intended to satisfy the requirements of public reporting under Section 6045B of the Code and Sections 1.6045B-1(a)(3) and (b)(4) of the underlying Treasury Regulations. The information contained in this notice is intended to provide only a general summary of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the conversion rate adjustment and is not intended to be a complete analysis or description of all potential U.S. federal income tax consequences of the conversion rate adjustment. You should consult your own tax advisor to determine the particular federal, state, local, or foreign income, reporting or other tax consequences of the conversion rate adjustment to you.

Line 14 – Description of Organizational Action

On September 16, 2022, HCI paid cash dividends to its common shareholders in the amount of 40 cents per share, which exceeds the Reference Dividend and results in a conversion rate adjustment to the Convertible Notes and deemed distribution to holders of the Convertible Notes effective on the ex-dividend date, August 18, 2022.

Line 15 – Quantitative Effect of Organizational Action

The conversion rate is 16.5108 common shares per $1,000 principal amount of Convertible Notes. The deemed distribution is $0.78 per $1,000 principal amount of Convertible Notes and the Convertible Note holders are entitled to an increase in basis by a like amount. HCI had earnings and profits in excess of the deemed distributions.

Line 16 – Calculation of the Change in Basis

Sample Calculation: A holder of a Convertible Note has $1,000 basis in a $1,000 Convertible Note. A holder of a Convertible Note will increase the holder's basis in such Convertible Note by $0.78 as a result of the deemed distribution.

Line 17 – Code Sections Upon Which Tax Treatment is Based Sections 305(b)(2), 305(c), 301(c), 316 and 301(d) of the Code.

Line 18 – Recognition of any Resulting Loss

This is not a loss transaction.

Line 19 – Reportable Tax Year

The reportable tax year is 2022 for taxpayers reporting taxable income on a calendar year basis.
