POSITION SUMMARY

Pallotti is seeking a high school religion teacher to teach our 10th Grade religion course: The Mission of Jesus & the Church. The candidate should be passionate about the spiritual and intellectual development of students. We are looking for someone who is able to engage with and clearly communicate the faith to a diverse mix of Catholic and non-Catholic students. A candidate should be faithful to both the moral and the social doctrines of the Church, but understand that both of those flow from the saving work of Jesus Christ. Helping our students come into relationship with Christ is paramount in our work.

The ideal candidate will possess/be the following:

- Practicing, faithful Catholic (Roman or Eastern rite) with a strong foundation in Catholic theology and ongoing faith formation.
- Bachelor's degree in theology or a related field; a master's degree is preferred.
- Understanding of the mission and values of St. Vincent Pallotti High school.
- Collaborate with the Religion Department on campus initiatives.
- Assist Campus Minister in the planning and execution of retreats, monthly masses, prayer services and service trips/opportunities.
- Experience teaching in an independent school setting preferred.
- Genuine enthusiasm, personal warmth, and high energy level.
- Interpersonal skills necessary to develop positive and professional relationships with students, parents and colleagues.
- Excellent active listening, organizational and presentation skills.
- Strong technology skills for use in instruction and professional tasks.
- A desire to be a part of an active, exciting high school environment.

MISSION AND CORE VALUES

St. Vincent Pallotti is a coeducational, Catholic, secondary college preparatory school in the Archdiocese of Washington. Pallotti offers young men and women the best of both worlds. We are large enough to boast a wide-ranging curriculum, cutting edge technology, and a diverse selection of extracurricular activities. Pallotti is committed to developing men and women of diligence, empathy, and scholarship who responsibly embrace the challenges of our world.

All faculty and staff must demonstrate a commitment to the core values of St. Vincent Pallotti High School. Our community, Catholic identity, academic excellence, tradition, diversity, leadership, and communication are all important to our core beliefs and values.
