

India Passport Renunciation

Indian passport holders are required to surrender their passports to the Indian Embassy/Consulate. On surrender of the Indian passport, the applicant will be issued a surrender certificate/renunciation certificate, and the Indian passport will be cancelled and returned to applicant.

If the most recent Indian passport is retained for more than 3 years after acquisition of citizenship of another country, a penalty of $250.00 will be automatically calculated as a part of the order form except where the most recent Indian passport expired before January 1, 2005, or where the most recent Indian passport shows “cancelled” stamp. In addition, a penalty of $250,00 will be charged for each case of misuse of the Indian passport for travel at any time after acquisition of citizenship of another country subject to a maximum penalty of $1250.00. If you have acquired another country’s citizenship; it is highly recommended that you surrender or renunciate your Indian passport at the earliest possible.

- Renunciation for citizen naturalized before June 1st, 2010, only with Indian passport.
- Renunciation for citizen naturalized on or after June 1st, 2010, only with Indian passport.
