PSALM 23

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

A Bright New World

*We feel so sad when those we love Are touched by death's dark hand,
But it would ease our sorrow
If we could but understand That death is just a gateway That all men must pass through And on the other side of death, In a world that's bright and new,
Our loved ones wait to welcome us
To that land free from all tears Where joy becomes eternal And time is not counted by years.*

you,
A million times we'll cry.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died,
In life we loved you dearly, In death we love you still,
In our hearts you hold a place,
No one else will ever fill.
It broke our hearts to lose
you,
But you didn't go alone,
Part of us went with you,
The day God called you home."*

Eagle's Wings

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

THE LEGACY OF A FARM MAN

His hands are hard and calloused and never seem to heal. The tiny cuts and scratches, show the work he does is real. Out every morning, before the sun peeks it's head. Knowing that there's work to do, that won't get done in bed.

His shirt is worn and tattered, overalls caked with grease. His farm's his home and it's his life. It's where he finds his peace.

He doesn't need no frills and thrills to make his life complete. All he needs are two good hands and boots upon his feet.

It's the same routine year after year, and crops will come and go. For all the years he's run this race, what does he have to show?

He's just doing what he knows and loves.
What's been passed down through the years.
Through cattle, land and times of hell.
Through happiness and tears.

FOOTPRINTS

One night a man had a dream. In it he was walking along a beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand, one belonging to him, and the other to the Lord.

When the final scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints, and realized that they came at the hardest and saddest times of his life.

Bothered about this, he questioned the Lord saying, "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most burdensome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you the most you would leave me."

The Lord replied, "My dear child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

GUIDEPATHS TO PEACE

Be glad of life because it gives you the chance to love and to work and to play and to look up at the stars; to be satisfied with your possessions but not content with yourself until you have made the best of them; to despise nothing in the world except falsehood and meanness, and to fear nothing except cowardice; to be governed by your admirations rather than by your disgusts; to covet nothing that is your neighbor's except his kindness of heart and gentleness of manners; to think seldom of your enemies, often of your friends, and every day of Christ; and to spend as much time as you can with body and spirit in God's out-of-doors-- these are little guidepaths to peace.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me now I'm free, I've followed the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Work left undone must stay that way,

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Are things that will be missed.*

*Do not be burdened with grief and sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't be weighted down with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and rejoice with me God wanted me now. He set me free.*

ANGEL DANCE

*There is a noise in Heaven
A happy, joyful sound Heard as the feet of children Are set to dancing all around
They are being taught by angels
No time for sadness there Keeping step with music
As it rises in the air
A new song they hear playing
It banishes all pain
And sets their feet to dancing None are sick or lame
With new unhindered cadence Their eyes are shining bright
They are dancing with the angels
In the glory of Heaven's light*

AN IRISH BLESSING

*May the wind be always at your

*May the sun shine warm upon your the rains fall soft upon your fields, and, until we meet again,

may God hold you in the palm of His hand.

*Life's Long Road
I, at times yearn For the youth I once had When troubles were few
And my heart mostly glad.
For youth is a world
When the heart's full and free, In the days childhood's magic Would beckon to me.
But, now, in today
There's a kind of a peace,
And the long path behind Has given release
And on life's long road
I have given my best
And with a light load
God has given me rest.
For there's a time of our youth There's a time to grow old,
A time to look back And such a peace to behold.

TAKE YOUR MOMENT TO MOURN

Take your moment to mourn, but don't spend too much time.

My life was a wonderful celebration.

I am still with you and love you, but now you must seek me in different ways.

Learn to see my face in the beauty of the world and hear my laughter in the giggle of a small child. Feel my touch in the warmth of the sun, and my voice in the gentle stirring of the wind, and most of all, know I am present to you always in the quiet strength of our love for each other.

JUST A FARMER
"Just a farmer," you said,
And I laughed 'cause I knew
All the things that farmers Must be able to do.
They must study the land,
Then watch the sky And figure just when
Is the right time and why-
To sow and to plant
To buy and to sell
To go to the market
With cattle and well-
You know the books That farmers must keep
To pay all those taxes
And be able to sleep.
And you know the fixin'
That farmers must do When machines like mad monsters Blow a gasket or two.
I guess when God needed Folks to care for His earth
He chose "just farmers"
'Cause He knew their true worth.

Just a Farmer

O gentlest heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls, have mercy on the soul of Thy departed servant.
Be not severe in thy judgement but let some drops of Thy Precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames, and do Thou O Merciful Savior, send Thy Angels to conduct Thy departed servant to a place of refreshment, light and peace. Amen.
May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God,
rest in peace. Amen.
Merciful Jesus grant eternal rest.

A precious gift and memory.

Our time's been brief, our hours few,

Our prayers for strength will emanate.

A glimmer of hope will show the way For us to go on from day to day.

Why should I feel discouraged why should the shadows come

Why should my heart be lonely and long for heaven and home

When Jesus is my portion my constant friend is He

His eye is on the sparrow and I know He watches me.

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;

where there is injury, pardon;

where there is doubt, faith;

where there is despair, hope;

where there is darkness, light;

where there is sadness, joy.

Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;

to be understood as to understand;

to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

TAPS

Day is done, gone the sun from the lake, from the hill, from the sky.

All is well, safely rest. God is nigh.

Thanks and praise for our days

'neath the sun, 'neath the stars,

'neath the sky.

As we go, this we know. God is nigh.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come

Thy will be done

On earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen

WHAT LIFE IS

*Life is a race. Don't whimper if the track is rough and the goal is distant.
One day you shall reach it.
Life is a voyage. Don't complain if the storms batter the hull or the winds tatter to shreds the sails. One day you shall come to your haven.
Life is growth. Don't find fault if the seed lies smothered and submerged in the dark earth before it blooms and blossoms. One day you shall have your harvest.
Life is a pilgrimage. Don't falter on the road through self-pity because stones cut your feet and leave your blood on the trail. One day you will come to Immanuel's land.
The God who through the boundless sky guides the flight of the sparrow, who builds the blind bird's nest, will see to it that in his good time you shall arrive.*

When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while, Please do not grieve and shed wild tears And hug your sorrow to you through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name Live on and do all things the same, Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways, Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*
