

Friday, Oct 23 | Isaiah 52-55

Reflect on the Suffering Servant who was pierced for our rebellion and crushed for our iniquities.

Weekend Catch-Up & Reflection (Oct 24-25)

Take time to re-read your favorite passage from this week. Spend time praising the Servant who fulfills God's mission to save sinners.

WEEK 5 - The Servants Inherit God's Kingdom

Reading: Isaiah 56-66

Big Idea: The Messiah announces good news to the poor and brokenhearted. All nations are invited to join God's covenant family, and the true servants will inherit the new creation while the wicked face God's justice.

Memory Verse: Isaiah 53:5 "But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed."

Monday, Oct 26 | Isaiah 56-59

Reflect on the contrast between the wicked who face God's justice and the servants who repent.

Tuesday, Oct 27 | Isaiah 60

This chapter is filled with the image of Gentile nations and their kings streaming into Zion's gates with amazing treasures to enrich Zion. How is this a picture of the spread of the gospel to the ends of the earth?

Wednesday, Oct 28 | Isaiah 61

What lavish gifts of grace does Jesus give to sinners according to verses 1-3?

Thursday, Oct 29 | Isaiah 62-64

Reflect on the prayer of repentance from the servants and their plea for God's kingdom.

Friday, Oct 30 | Isaiah 65-66

What do verses 22-23 teach you about the future world, the new heavens and new earth?

Weekend Catch-Up & Reflection (Oct 31 - Nov 1)

Take time to re-read your favorite passage from this week. Thank God for the blood of the Lamb that purifies us to worship Him forever in the new heavens and new earth.

SHADY GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH

Book of Isaiah- October 2026

WEEK 1 - Judgement & Hope for Jerusalem

Reading: Isaiah 1-12

Big Idea: God summons the rebellious Jewish nation to a court trial for their sins, but offers hope through a future king from the line of David. Christ is the perfect Ruler of the world, and the government will be on his shoulders.

Memory Verse: Isaiah 9:6 "For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace."

Thursday, Oct 1 | Isaiah 1-3

What sin patterns do you see in Isaiah 1 that are still evident in our day?

Friday, Oct 2 | Isaiah 4-6

What effect did this awesome heavenly scene have on Isaiah? How should a proper contemplation of the holiness of the Lord result in a humble awareness of our own sinfulness?

Saturday, Oct 3 | Isaiah 7-9

How is Jesus a light for a people walking in darkness? What is the nature of that darkness? How does Jesus shine in this dark world?

Sunday, Oct 4 | Isaiah 10-12

How is the problem of divine sovereignty and human responsibility addressed in chapter 10?

WEEK 2 - Judgement & Hope for the Nations

Reading: Isaiah 13-27

Big Idea: This section is a tale of two cities contrasting the lofty city of rebellion, Babylon, with the new Jerusalem. God predicts the fall of Babylon centuries in advance, demonstrating His absolute sovereignty over human history and all nations.

Memory Verse: Isaiah 26:3 "You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you."

Monday, Oct 5 | Isaiah 13-15

What reasons does God give in this chapter for overthrowing Babylon?

Tuesday, Oct 6 | Isaiah 16-18

Reflect on God's sovereignty over the nations and how He rules completely alone.

Wednesday, Oct 7 | Isaiah 19-21

Reflect on the prophecy that God will bring down the lofty things erected by human pride.

Thursday, Oct 8 | Isaiah 22-24

Reflect on the reality that the world is a roiling cauldron of rebellion against the rule of almighty God.

Friday, Oct 9 | Isaiah 25-27

Reflect on the promise of the new Jerusalem, where God's kingdom rules over all nations.

Weekend Catch-Up & Reflection (Oct 10-11)

Take time to re-read your favorite passage from this week. Pray that God will guard your heart from the pride of the world.

WEEK 3 - The Rise & Fall of Jerusalem

Reading: Isaiah 28-39

Big Idea: Jerusalem's leaders face accusations for relying on an alliance with Egypt instead of trusting the Lord. Hezekiah is miraculously saved from Assyria, but his subsequent fall leads to the warning that Babylon will ultimately attack and destroy Jerusalem.

Memory Verse: Isaiah 41:10 "fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand."

Monday, Oct 12 | Isaiah 28-30 Reflect on how it is by repentance and faith alone that sinners are justified in the sight of a holy Judge.

Tuesday, Oct 13 | Isaiah 31-32

Reflect on the danger of looking to worldly alliances for deliverance instead of looking to the Lord.

Wednesday, Oct 14 | Isaiah 33-35

Reflect on the promise that the Messiah would do great signs and wonders of healing.

Thursday, Oct 15 | Isaiah 36-37

Reflect on how God intervened to save Hezekiah from the terrifying Assyrian army.

Friday, Oct 16 | Isaiah 38-39

Reflect on Hezekiah's fall and the prophetic warning that Babylon will betray and destroy Jerusalem.

Weekend Catch-Up & Reflection (Oct 17-18)

Take time to re-read your favorite passage from this week. Ask God to give you a heart that honors Him entirely, rather than just with lip-service.

WEEK 4 - Annoucement of Hope & The Servant's Mission

Reading: Isaiah 40-55

Big Idea: A voice announces comfort, declaring that the exile is over and God's kingdom is coming. The Suffering Servant is sent on a mission to restore Israel and become a light to the nations, dying an atoning death for our sins but living again to justify many.

Memory Verse: Isaiah 40:31 "but they who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint."

Monday, Oct 19 | Isaiah 40-42

Reflect on the awesome God who is enthroned above the circle of the earth.

Tuesday, Oct 20 | Isaiah 43-45

What is the significance of God saying, "I have called you by your name; you are mine" (v. 1)?

Wednesday, Oct 21 | Isaiah 46-48

Reflect on how the Lord forgets our sins and sweeps our transgressions away for His own glory.

Thursday, Oct 22 | Isaiah 49-51

Reflect on the servant's mission to be a light to the nations and bring salvation to the ends of the earth.
