

Night Evangelism

WALTHAMSTOW LOCATION:

We prayed for a group of young men in their 20's...just lurking around...they said they had acquaintances that had been arrested in the Southend youth gathering in the summer and they were there too so we gave them godly counsel

We also prayed and spoke hope into a group of half dozen homeless people in their tents, just listening to some of their stories one of them had been incarcerated for 19 years and said it was an injustice and he recently got released in April, his name is John. He came out of prison and straight into homelessness with no help, he said he has 10 children.....another man in the same group said the authorities not helping him he was there because of health reasons and he can't make the appointments to the authorities due to his health...so we prayed for them.

Spoke to other people about the gospel of Jesus.

Night Evangelism

BIRMINGHAM LOCATION:

Today 8th September 2026, the first time this year Birmingham Evangelism served for Night Evangelism and what a powerful impact they made to the streets - Revival has started – ALL glory to God.

We had 30 volunteers tonight. Split between 5 groups.

3 groups went out and evangelised, they took back packs with then with sandwiches and tracks (the tracts are amazing!) & life packs (essential men & women items).

Another group served soup and tea/ coffee and evangelised at the table.

The 5th group ministered on the mics and did praise & worship.

We ministered and prayed for many people. Predominantly proclaiming Muslim but we sowed seeds. A number of people were homeless and on some form of addiction.

2 people accepted Jesus as Lord & Saviour - HALLELUJAH.

Shop keepers were happy we were out and stated they wished we were there in the summer.

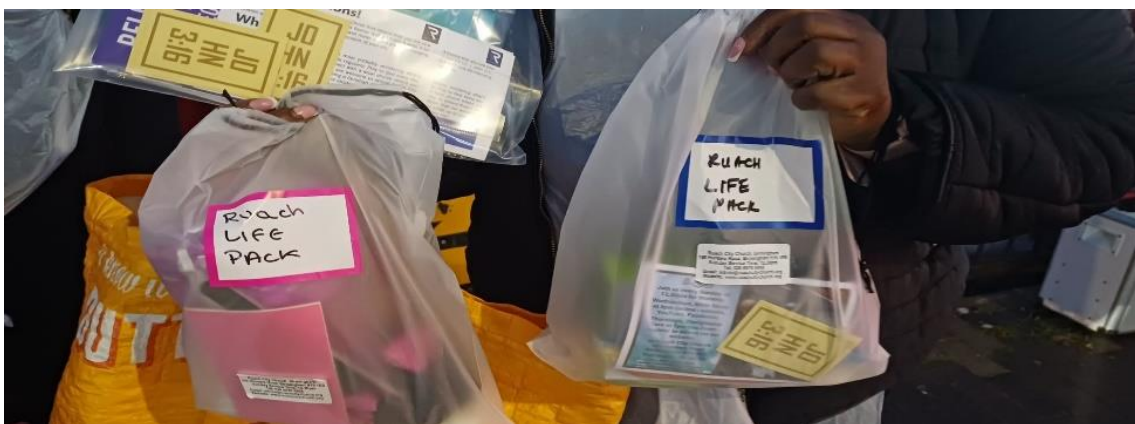

We had admin stay in the church to do the register and to collect emergency contacts as well as stay with the children.

Nicola had flags made that says Lozells for Christ. She has been on a secret assignment by the Lord for the past 18 months. Another person has been walking around Lozells for the past 6 months anointing each gateway. So when everyone came together God's power, unity & fire was evident.

We give God all the Glory great things he has done and doing in Birmingham – the best is yet to come!

Night Evangelism

Night Evangelism

STREATHAM LOCATION:

Night Evangelism was so awesome as always the presence of God was with us from start to finish. One off the most amazing moment of the night was when we spoke to a lady at Victoria train station her name is Tiffany , Tiffany is homeless and stays in the streets , went we approach her and asked her if she would like some food and women stuff, she smiled and said yes and go onto to share her story of being homeless but still thanking God that she is alive we speak to her about getting help to come of the street in that she can contact her GP and later on the GP can refer her to the council she was happy for the information she also read dedicate her life back to Christ Elder Tabisa asked her if she can give her a hug she said yes and broke down in tears we can see that the power of God had touched her we told Tiffany that we will keep her in prayer.

Night Evangelism

KILBURN LOCATION:

The volunteers met at RCC Kilburn for 6pm to pray to commit the evening before the Lord. As a result of the meals cooked at RCC Kilburn, we were able to leave promptly at 7pm.

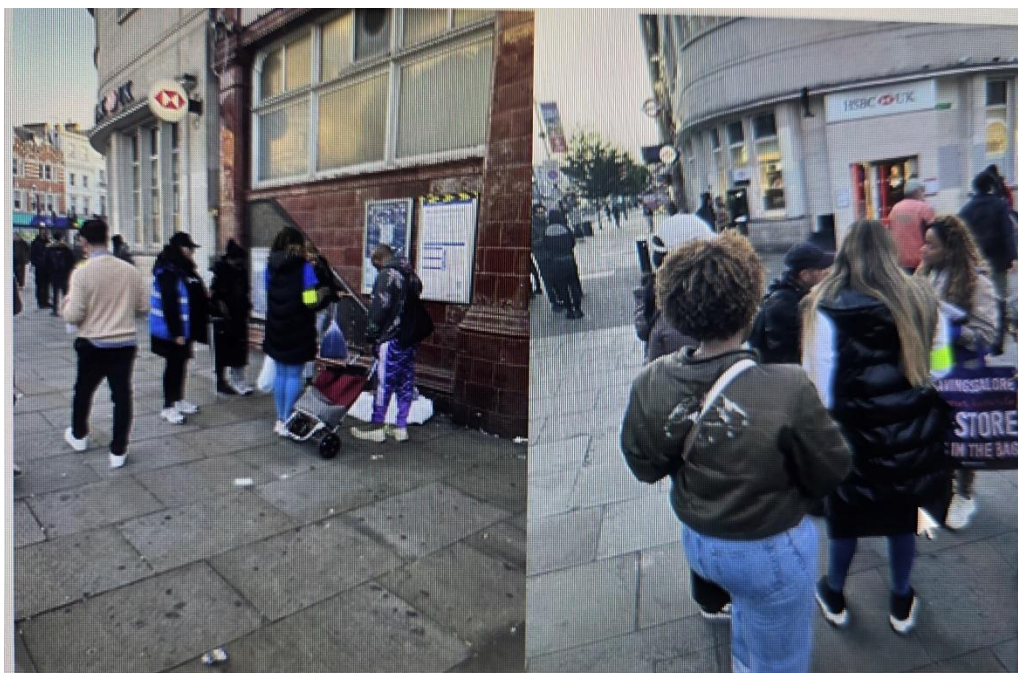

The team were excited to serve and expectant of the night ahead. We had a combination of volunteers who had attended a previous Night Evangelism and volunteers who never evangelised before. For the first time since the COVID-19 pandemic we had access to a minibus and an additional 3 carloads of volunteers. We give God thanks for His provision.

Night outreach areas canvassed Camden, Kings Cross, Goodge Street, Tottenham Court Road, and Warren Street.

Approximately 27 souls were led into repentance and said the salvation prayer. All 32 meals were distributed, and we handed out evangelism tracts, clothing, 12 pairs of shoes (for women and men), toiletries, 5 sleeping bags, 13 blankets and 7 supermarket vouchers. The demand and needs were great, and we distributed all of our stock. The following accounts highlight a couple of the interactions with the public while we shared the Gospel.

Camden:

The Holy Spirit led us to speak to several groups of young men. Some appeared intoxicated through drugs and many appeared to be involved in drug dealing. It was a wonderful opportunity to shower them with the love of God. We laughed and joked with them, using the "Somebody Loves You" tracts as a way to start conversations. We told them that Jesus loves them, wants them, and that nothing could ever separate them from the love of God. Some of the young men we spoke to were Muslim and 2 attempted to discuss Jesus as a prophet. We explained that Jesus is our Lord and Saviour, but that we were not there to debate or argue. We were simply there to share the love of God. An encounter with two older men was particularly special. Whilst one was uncomfortable speaking with us, the other was willing to hear about Jesus. One of the men accepted a "Somebody Loves You" tract and listened as we shared about God's love. The other, who was Muslim, said he did not know Jesus. We thank God for the seeds of hope and love that were sown.

King's Cross:

Night Evangelism

We met Ella, she was clearly under the influence of drugs and was asking for food and a blanket. We asked if she knew who Jesus was and she said she did. Although hesitant at first, she accepted a "Somebody Loves You" tract and allowed us to speak to her about the love of God. The team prayed for her and she became emotional and started to cry. We were preparing to lead her in the prayer of salvation when her partner arrived. 3 Almost instantly she disengaged and appeared fearful. He questioned whether she had taken a tract and she quickly denied it. He eventually accepted a tract himself and said he would take it for her. Sadly, that was the end of the encounter. Even for a short moment, Ella felt and received the love of God. God never gives up on people and we will continue to pray for her. Gary Gary was intoxicated with alcohol but able to express himself clearly. He had a very soft heart. We spoke about the love of Jesus. Gary told us that he knows God and loves God, but feels that God has not heard his cries for help. Throughout our conversation Gary swore frequently, but he was never abusive. He repeatedly apologised for his language. Gary started to pray. "God, I know You don't hear me and You don't answer me, but please bless all of these people here. Don't bless me, God, just bless them. Bless them and give them what they need". Here was a not man who felt forgotten, abandoned and unheard by God, yet his prayer was for himself. His prayer was for us. We thanked Gary and then prayed for him. Gary was moved to tears. He dropped to his knees and shared that the night before he had planned to take his own life because he felt desperate and could not continue. He said he had cried out to God and begged Him for help.

Gary repeatedly told us that he knew God had heard him because God had sent us to him that night. One of the sisters asked if she could sing a song that God had placed on her heart. Gary agreed and even tried to join in. He then sang a song of his own, straight from his heart. We asked if he knew Amazing Grace and we all sang together. Gary was left with a "Somebody Loves You" tract with the church details and invited him to visit the church in Kilburn.

Night evangelism is always a humbling experience as we remember the goodness of the Lord in our own lives. We are humbled that the Lord sees it fit that we are His hands and feet extended on the streets of London.
