MESSAGE FROM YOUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR: DECEMBER 2025

Christmas lights are twinkling, to-do lists seem to keep growing, and sometimes it feels like the whole world is rushing to do and buy “more.” But as December settles in, I find myself thinking about how the heart of the holidays isn’t found in all the hustle, but in the quiet, meaningful traditions we create and share. It’s easy to be swept up by the season—big store displays, the pressure to have the perfect gift, the calendar that fills itself. Yet when I look back on holidays past, what stands out aren’t the gifts themselves, but the memories shaped by time spent together. We remember the homemade jar of jam given and received, the laughter at the kitchen table while baking cookies or making cards, and the small, thoughtful acts that showed care and connection.

This season, I encourage us all to find moments to return to those simpler joys. Maybe try your hand at an “old-fashioned” tradition—make something from scratch, whether it’s jam, cookies, a warm scarf, or even a card written by hand and given with love. Better still, invite a friend or family member to join you in the making; the time spent side by side is often the greatest gift of all. These gifts, shared from the heart, are what we remember and carry with us long after the wrapping paper is gone. Amidst the busy days and competing demands, I hope you’ll pause when you can—savor the music, take in the scent of pine, share a story, or sit quietly with someone you care about. Sometimes the most meaningful holiday “more” is simply more presence, more laughter, more kindness. And if you’re able, we would love for you to join us throughout December for the celebrations and fun we have planned here in our community. All of our upcoming events and activities can be found on the calendars inside—so you can easily find the moments that fit your schedule. Even if you can only drop in for a short hello or a cup of cocoa, you are always welcome—we know the month pulls people in many directions. However you celebrate, and wherever you find yourself this December, I wish you peace, warmth, and all the joy that comes with moments shared and memories made. Here’s to the simple things that matter most—this season and always.

Merry Christmas!

A Faithful Servant and Friend: Remembering Gary Wayne Buchanan

Editor's Note:
We were deeply saddened to lose our friend and fellow resident, Gary Wayne Buchanan, who passed away just a couple weeks after we gathered his story for this spotlight. With the permission of his family, we are honored to share his story as a celebration of a life well lived—full of service, dedication, humor, and deep love for his family and community.

If you ever met Gary Wayne Buchanan, you quickly learned two things: he had lived a life full of adventure, and he could tell a story well enough to make you feel like you were right there with him—whether “there” was Florida, South Carolina, or halfway across the world in Saudi Arabia.

Gary was born to Pauline and Dewey Phillip Buchanan and grew up alongside his older brother, Terry. As a teenager, he moved with his family to Sebring, Florida, where he graduated high school and did something he remained proud of all his life—he married his high school sweetheart, Rosalee. Together, they raised three children:

- Kathi, married to Hank and living in South Carolina, with their three grown children—Rachel, Henrik, and Caroline.
- Debbie, married to Xavier and living in Georgia, with their daughters, Sophie and Daphne.
- Phillip Wayne, who lives in Vero Beach with his wife, Melania, and their daughter, Ophelia.

In November 1967, Gary moved his young family to Vero Beach to begin working for Piper Aircraft. After experiencing more layoffs than anyone should have to, he transitioned to the Vero Beach Fire Department. That decision shaped much of his life. Gary became part of the very first group of firemen licensed as EMTs in Indian River County. He didn’t just work his shifts—he often volunteered with the Volunteer Ambulance Squad or helped a private non-emergency service made up of off-duty firemen.

Over time, Gary pursued new opportunities to better support his family, which led them to Lehigh Acres, where he joined the Lehigh Acres Fire Department. Then came one of the more unexpected chapters in his life—working in Saudi Arabia as a fireman with Morrison Knutson Construction Company during the construction of King Khalid’s Military City. The experience was memorable, but when his father passed away, Gary returned home. He liked to say he “kissed the ground” when he stepped off the plane—and he never returned to Saudi Arabia.

Thanks to his earlier Quality Control training at Piper, Gary was soon hired by U.S. Testing to work on Florida Power and Light nuclear outages. That launched a long and respected career in the nuclear power industry. He worked at many plants across the country before being hired permanently by FPL, where he spent 20 years. Even when FPL downsized and he was among the last to package out of the QC Department, his career didn’t slow down. He continued QC inspection work through contractors for Duke Energy’s plants in North and South Carolina. The Oconee Plant in South Carolina appreciated him so much that they requested him exclusively for years—until Gary finally decided it was time to retire for good.

During the late 1990s and early 2000s, Gary made another life-changing decision: he quit smoking and took up running. What began as a way to stay in shape grew into a hobby full of races, ribbons, and medals. He ran the Marathon Bridge and completed several Disney Marathons. He proudly displayed his Disney Marathon medals—joyful reminders of his determination and spirit.

Though Gary valued his long career as a QC inspector, his first love had always been emergency service. He loved the fire department, he loved being an EMT, and he especially loved helping people.

Faith also played a central role in Gary’s life. He and his wife were baptized in the Baptist tradition and became proud members of Genesis Church in Vero Beach—a young church modeled after the early Christian community in the Book of Acts. Gary served as a Deacon there for several years.

Gary’s life was one of service, resilience, and love—for his family, his work, his community, and his faith. Those who knew him will remember his dedication, his humor, his heart for helping others, and the countless stories he collected along the way.

Merry Christmas!

The greatest gifts aren’t wrapped in paper, but in kindness, understanding, & time shared together.
