DESTINATION VANCOUVER

On behalf of Destination Vancouver and our many partners in the hospitality community, welcome to the beautiful West Coast.

Vancouver is a city wrapped in a rainforest, blessed by the ocean and protected by soaring mountains, and in the middle is a walkable cosmopolitan city. From picnic table to restaurant to ski lift to bike-share, there's a seat here for everyone.

We hope you enjoy your adventures here, and that our crisp, fresh air keeps you breathing deeply. If you encounter the splashes of rain that keep our city beautiful and green, we encourage you to embrace it just like we do. Here in Vancouver, it takes more than rain to rain on our parade.

We hope you'll love our city as much as we do.

Sincerely,

Royce Chwin

VANCOUVER'S
NORTH SHORE

Winter on Vancouver's North Shore

Winter on Vancouver's North Shore is always a little magical. Sitting at the foot of the mountains, you're never far from where the alpine air meets with the rolling ocean breeze. That brisk atmosphere is all part of the energy around the city this time of year. But what we're also saying is, layer up! Whether you're heading up a mountain, cruising down one, or just taking in the lights with a cup of cocoa, there's no better warmth than getting out and seeing the beauty of winter.

Skiing and Snowboarding

If you're looking to ring in the season at a faster pace, there are plenty of spots to pick up a little speed! The North Shore boasts some of the best skiing and snowboarding in the province at any of the three mountains just minutes from downtown Vancouver. Mt. Seymour has 39 trails and five lifts over 200 acres, and Grouse Mountain has the area's most extensive snow-making system in place that promises a great run any time of the season. At Cypress Mountain, the majority of runs are classified as beginner or intermediate, and it is home to Canada's most popular cross-country skiing area, making for a perfect ski day for the whole family.

Tubing and Tobogganing

Continuing with the different ways of navigating the snow, tubing, and tobogganing offer maximum fun with zero skill needed. Just push off, let gravity take its course, and before you know it, you're at the top of the hill again! Each of the mentioned mountains has dedicated snow tubing and tobogganing areas for those who maybe aren't ready for skis or boards or just prefer to fly by the seat of their pants.

Snow Shoeing

All three mountains also offer the chance to slow down and truly appreciate the majestic beauty of an alpine winter on a scenic snowshoe trailer. But don't just take our word for it. Two of the top 10 snowshoe resorts in all of North America are right here. Mt Seymour was rated #1, and Grouse Mountain was rated the #9 snowshoe resort in North America by Snowshoe Magazine.

Ice Skating

And, of course, what would the holiday season be without the most graceful of the winter arts- skating. Whether you're making the rounds at Shipyard's Commons' skate plaza against the spectacular views across the water of Vancouver or high above it all on Grouse Mountain's 8,000-square-foot frozen pond, try not to slip while taking in the full beauty of the West Coast.

That's just the tip of the iceberg! Head out exploring and you're sure to find a few new favourite ways to spend the season. From Dundarave to Deep Cove, you never know what you'll find in this North Shore wonderland.

It's a recipe for pure joy! Expect baking antics, lively music, and lots of opportunities for the audience to safely join in the fun. Co-Production with Oily Cart Theatre and Presentation House Theatre

Downtown

Yaletown

Explore the European feel of this hip downtown Vancouver area. Yaletown, which was once a warehouse district dominated by textile shops and train yards, has undergone serious revitalization in recent decades. Today, the 20-block, cobblestoned neighbourhood is home to some of the most cutting-edge restaurants and retailers in the city, plus lots of fabulous live entertainment. Shop till you drop, or sit down for an expertly mixed cocktail at one of the many upscale bars and lounges and indulge in some well-deserved people watching. Celebrity sightings are frequent here, so don't be surprised if you see stars! yaletowninfo.com (Map 1, F10-G10)

Georgia Street

Georgia Street was named in 1886 after the Strait of Georgia, and ran between Chilco and Beatty Streets. After the first Georgia Viaduct opened in 1915, the street's eastern end was connected to Harris Street, and Harris Street was subsequently renamed East Georgia Street.

In recent years, Georgia Street features the Paradox Hotel, home to Mott 32, one of the world's top Chinese restaurants, and The Shangri-La Hotel (the city's tallest building), Vancouver Centre Mall, Fairmont Hotel Vancouver and upscale shops like Lululemon, Gucci, the HSBC Canada Building, the Vancouver Art Gallery, the Hotel Georgia, Pacific Centre Mall, Vancouver Centre Mall, the Granville Entertainment District, Scotia Tower, and the 1.1 million square foot office space for Amazon.com Inc. (Map 1, D3-10)

Robson Street

In the 1950s and '60s the three-block area from Burrard to Jervis called Robsonstrasse was the centre of German culture and commerce. Today, Robson Street west of Burrard includes excellent shopping, cafés and restaurants. Travelling west toward Stanley Park, you'll find clusters of well-priced hotels that give way to Asian-fusion eateries and, finally, bike-rental shops.

(Map 1, E4-10)

Vancouver's West Side

Great shopping areas combine with some of the city's most open and spectacular natural settings – in other words, go west!

Kitsilano & Fourth Avenue

Kitsilano, with hippie roots, has evolved into a land of lattes and leg squats. Discover dozens of fitness studios, active-wear and wellness retailers here. Drop into a yoga class before grabbing a bite at one of the restaurants on West 4th Avenue or Broadway. If you're visiting with your four-legged friend, be sure to check out the popular Kits dog beach. shopwest4th.com (Map 2, C3-5)

South Granville

Looking for a unique piece of art, furnishings for your home or the perfect little black dress? Trendy South Granville Street is lined with retailers and galleries that will draw out your inner art critic, interior designer and fashionista. Located minutes from downtown Vancouver, this is one neighbourhood that should be on every shopper's itinerary. southgranville.org (Map 2, C5)

Kerrisdale & Oakridge

Home to Oakridge Centre mall, Kerrisdale invites you to admire the pre- and post-war architecture as you wind through charming neighbourhoods filled with cosy cafés, sweet bakeries, big-brand retailers and mom-and-pop shops. kerrisdalevillage.com

Mount Pleasant - Uptown Vancouver

Mount Pleasant is Vancouver's oldest neighbourhood outside downtown and includes a distinct collection of small businesses, community and arts organizations, and residents from all social and economic backgrounds.

The last 15 years has seen the neighbourhood transform. Mount Pleasant is home to an incredible collection of small businesses including: unique shops, service providers for your body, home and car, restaurants and cafes for every taste, and a fun and energetic nightlife. Explore the hood and discover your Mount Pleasant. #MyMountPleasant

South Main

Known as SoMa and situated within the neighbourhood of Mount Pleasant, this hip Vancouver thorough-fare includes some of the city's most unique shops and services, including a bevvy of local, independent clothing designers, modern and vintage home decor stores and antique shops galore. Looking for a one-of-a-kind outfit? SoMa's high concentration of high-end second-hand and vintage frock shops may be your best bet for finding something no one else will be wearing. mountpleasantbia.com (Map 2, D6)

Commercial Drive

Nicknamed "the Drive," this eclectic East Vancouver street prides exudes a laid-back, grass-roots and distinctly ethnic feel, and is the place to go for some of the city's best (and tastiest) food bargains. From free-range butchers to thrifty kitchenware shops to authentic Italian bakeries to house-made gelato, the Drive is the place to be.

West End

The West End is a walker's paradise, perfectly situated between the city's best-loved and most popular destinations. With the world-famous Stanley Park and English Bay at its doorstep, the West End is a must-visit neighbourhood. Explore the colourful commercial streets of Davie, Denman, and Robson, and enjoy soaking up the sunshine on one of the many patios or take yourself on a self-guided mural tour to experience the diversity of local artwork. Simply put, the West End is your summer destination. Events to add to the calendar:

Davie Street

Lower Davie (Cardero to Denman) includes a full selection of shops and services while Davie Village, further east, is home to Vancouver's vibrant gay community, complete with four permanent pride-coloured crosswalks at Bute Street. The concentration of restaurants, bars and pubs in the area successfully create one of the city's most vibrant entertainment districts. (Map 1, E,F,G-3)

Denman Street

Boasting a selection of restaurants that's second to none, Denman Street bustles with activity and, closer to Robson and Georgia streets, acts as a gateway to Stanley Park. Moving south toward English Bay, this eclectic thoroughfare transforms into a beach promenade, complete with gelato shops, public art and spectacular sunsets. (Map 1, G3-10)

The 104th. Annual Polar Bear Swim is back with a splash! Welcoming locals and visitors to the frigid waters of English Bay. This is one of Vancouver's most beloved New Years traditions, taking place on Monday, January 1, 2024. The event runs from 12pm to 4pm, with the program beginning at 2pm, and the official swim at 2:30pm.
