

50 HOOPS LEGENDS

Welcome to 50 Hoops' LEGENDS FINALE

Ed and Pat Sanders, Founders (1998-2022)

In a few months, 50 Hoops™ is proud to celebrate 25 years as one of the oldest African American-founded small nonprofit Patient and Medical Education organizations in the nation.

50 Hoops™ LEGENDS Workshops, Mini LUNCH AND LEARN, and Conferences will conclude the 2022 SEASON on Thursday, December 8, 2022, with other dynamic LEGENDS Mini-Conference. Starting from 11:00 AM CT/Noon ET/9:00 AM PT. An ALL-STAR LINEUP featuring Duke Cancer Institute, Prostate Health Education Network, Prostate Cancer Support Group of Craven County, Kentucky Nurses Association, and KYANNA Black Nurses Association of Louisville, Kentucky, and the Kentucky Black Nurses who will TAKE 50 HOOPS back to our ROOTS, with LIVE interaction, important tips and clinical trials about Prostate Cancer and a FORWARD LOOK at COVID-19 in 2023. Resources, Research, and Reminders you can take with you. Register and JOIN US on Zoom, 50 Hoops' Facebook Live, or the 50 Hoops YouTube Channel Live.

And as we wind up the 2022 50 Hoops LEGENDS SEASON, the LEGENDS are hard at work creating more ELECTRIFYING Workshops and Events for our Silver Anniversary's patient and medical education outreach. They'll captivate our Audiences with everything from Monologues, Documentaries, and Educational Movies to, simultaneous LIVE and Virtual Health Fairs to the signature (1998-2019) 50 Hoops National Prostate Cancer Basketball Tournament that will make its "VIRTUAL" PREMIER first time since the (2020) COVID-19 Pandemic, complete with its captivating "Hardwood Workshop."

For our December Mini Conference on Prostate Cancer and COVID-19 in African American Men, you only have to REGISTER ONCE. Join in the discussion as our LEGENDS further demonstrate the IMPACT of 50 Hoops' Sustaining Power as we near A QUARTER CENTURY Silver Anniversary!
