

50 HOOPS LEGENDS

Welcome to 50 Hoops' LEGENDS 2022 LECTURE SERIES PREMIER

Ed and Pat Sanders, Founders (1998-2022)

50 Hoops™ is proud to celebrate 24 years as one of the oldest African American-founded small nonprofit Patient and Medical Education organization in the nation.

50 Hoops will hold up to 18 Events this year. This exciting year will include Workshops, Conferences, Fun and Educational Health Fairs, Disease Video events, great LIVE interaction, health-related "Movie Nights," Disease-related Monologues, and Video Clips with Nationally Renowned LEGENDS GUEST and Medical Speakers on our Topics. Participants can listen or watch and participate on Zoom, Facebook Live or YouTube Live. Most importantly, these events are rebroadcast as patient education videos at other LEGENDS patient events.

50 Hoops™ LEGENDS are PREMIERING "The 10 Commandments for Recruiting African Americans Into Clinical Trials." This is a 10-part segment "How To" post-event Diversity and Inclusion Segment. Learning these "Commandments" will help our audiences better understand how many grass-roots communities are finding SOLUTIONS for accomplishing this critical problem in our medical and patient communities. This year will further show the IMPACT or 50 Hoops' Sustaining our quarter-century outreach.

INVOCATION

LEGEND: Dr. Lester Singleton

Dr. Lester Singleton, Invocation and Graduate

Dr. Lester Singleton is a Doctor of Ministry in Pastoral Leadership at Andersonville Theological Seminary. He received his PhD in Educational Administration from Texas A&M University-Commerce. He is Vice Chairman of the Beautification and Environmental Sustainability Board with the city of Cedar Hill. Associate pastor at St. Matthew Baptist Church in Dallas; Communication Manager at Dallas ISD, and Vice Chairman of Brookhaven College Advisory Board, and author of "Public School Students Worst Enemy".

JUNE 2022 LEGENDS LECTURE SERIES THEMES

(CEDRICT) Coalition To Eliminate Disparities & Research Inclusion in Clinical Trials:

CANCER and Diversity & Inclusion: African American Churches, Stakeholders, Teaching discuss Clinical Trials, Fears, Information or Mis-information within the African American community's Culture. Those who have IDEAS and SOLUTIONS and how they are assisting their communities in moving forward to create a Coalition to Eliminate Disparities and to educate their patients about CANCER and Clinical Trials.

LEGEND Ms. Valarie Worthy

Valarie Worthy, Patient Navigator Manager, Duke Cancer Institute, Co-Founder, TOUCH (African American women's Breast Cancer Advocacy)

Valarie Worthy's Bio Valarie Clark Worthy, a registered nurse for over 40 years and a 23-year breast cancer survivor, is a Patient Navigator Manager at the Duke Cancer Institute. She manages teams to facilitate seamless care for cancer patients. In 2003, she along with five breast cancer survivors founded the local chapter of Sisters Network, Inc.; (Triangle NC.). Currently, Valarie is the co-founder of TOUCH, a nonprofit breast cancer advocacy organization for African American women. Valarie is very active in the community (River Durham) and her hometown church, (New Ahoskie Baptist) raising awareness about cancer and clinical trials. Valarie received the American Cancer Society's Lane Adams Quality of Life Award, which recognizes the unsung heroes of cancer care and are referred to as the "warm hand of service.

When: Friday, Jun 24, 2022 4:30 PM (CT)/5:30 PM (ET)/ 2:30 PM (PT)

Register in advance for this meeting:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/join/register/tZllcuGrqDspEtdAgLCcG701mUw76-BN-yPQ>

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

For the first time, a new drug targeting a protein that drives breast cancer growth has been shown to work against tumors with very low levels of the protein. It's not a cure. But this latest gain for targeted cancer therapy could open new treatment possibilities to thousands of patients with advanced breast cancer. Hear Doctors and Speakers discuss Breast, Prostate and Lung Cancer, the newest implications for screening and treatment options. What you should know about CANCER and the updates on Navigating Summer 2022 with COVID-19 and update on COVID Vaccinations.

Genentech
IN BUSINESS FOR LIFE

Bristol-Myers Squibb

MERCK

GILEAD

Ricki co-founded and serves as CEO of TOUCH, The Black Breast Cancer Alliance

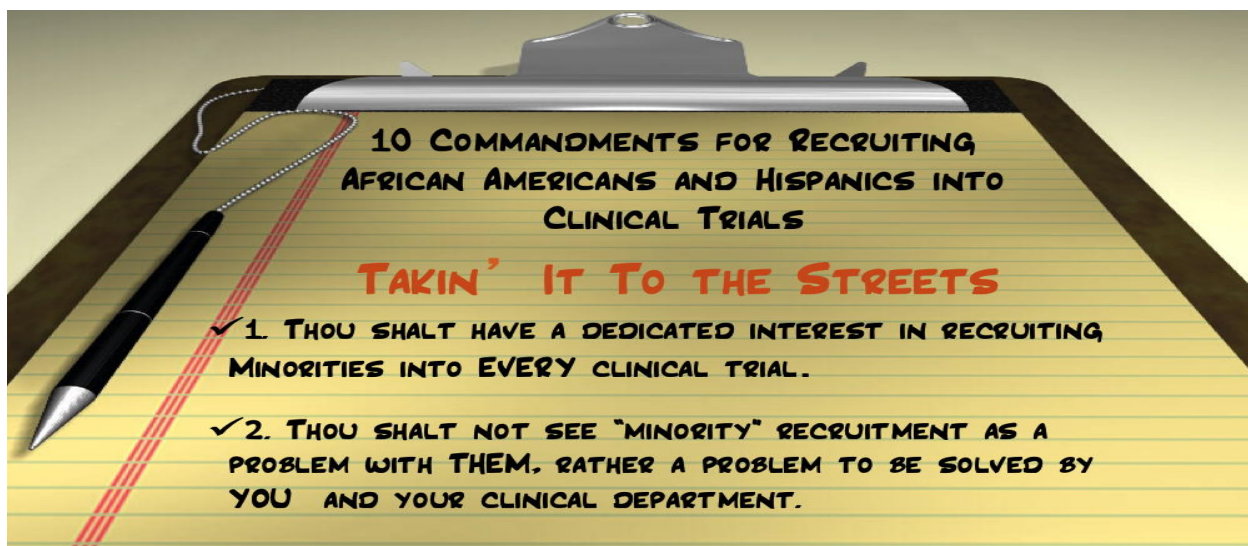

Ricki Farley is a Stage 3A Triple Negative Breast Cancer Survivor/Thrivers. Ricki co-founded and serves as CEO of TOUCH, The Black Breast Cancer Alliance, with the overall goal of reducing the mortality rate for Black women. She founded and serves as co-host for “The Doctor Is In,” a weekly live web series on the BlackDoctor.org Facebook page. She’s founding member of #BlackDataMatters, in partnership with Breastcancer.org, Morehouse School of Medicine and the Susan G. Komen Foundation. Ricki serves on the Board of Trustees for the Triple Negative Breast Cancer Foundation, board member for the Center for Healthcare Innovation; and Ambassador and Advisor for the Live Humanly Campaign.

Dr. Monique Gary is the Medical Director of Grand View Health (GVH)/Penn Cancer Network Cancer Program

Dr. Gary serves as the Director of their NAPBC-accredited Breast Program; and founded and directs the Cancer Genetics and Risk Assessment Program at GVH. She holds Clinical Associate faculty positions in surgery at the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine, Penn Medicine, and University of North Texas Health Sciences/Texas Christian University in Ft. Worth, TX. Her board memberships include American Society of Breast Surgeons, and Cancer Support Community of Greater Philadelphia. Dr. Gary earned both her M.Sc. in Molecular Biology and DO from Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine; completed a residency in general surgery at UMass/Berkshire Medical Center and a fellowship in Breast Surgical Oncology at MedStar Georgetown University Hospital.

TOPIC: African Americans in Clinical Trials : Breast Cancer Triple Negative/ Cancer and Navigating into the SUMMER 2022 with COVID changes (vaccines, status of nation)

LEGEND Ms. Cassandra Harris

Ms. Cassandra Harris, MS, MCHES, Chair, National Black Leadership Initiative On Cancer, partnering with MD Anderson

Mrs. Harris has over 30 years of experience in planning health education and programs aimed at reducing the impact of cancer and other diseases in underserved and minority communities. Mrs. Harris is the Co-Chair of the National Black Leadership Initiative on Cancer II – Houston Coalition and has been a leader in local, state, national and international organizations. Mrs. Harris is currently the Manager of Health Education at The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center, Department of Health Disparities Research, where she is responsible for collaborating with health professionals and community partners to reduce cancer health disparities.

Cassandra Harris joins Baylor College of Medicine in a video “WIN-WIN,” a short reel about the importance of participating in clinical trials in the African American community, and possible solutions to kick-start trust and education.

When: Thursday, Jun 30, 2022 12:00 PM (CT)/1:00 PM (ET)/ 10:00 AM (PT)

Register in advance for this webinar:

https://us02web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_RHNRtad7S9eigT_jeTvbyA

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar.

Rayne Rouce, MD – African Americans and Clinical Trials

Dr. Rayne Rouce is a physician at Texas Children’s Hospital in the Texas Medical Center in Houston. She completed her residency training in Pediatrics at UTMB, where she was honored as the Resident of the Year from 2008-2010, and was also recognized as the Outstanding Overall Resident in 2010. She remained at UTMB, later completing a Chief Residency there, where she also worked as a hospitalist and received an award for excellence in resident teaching. Dr. Rouce then relocated to Houston and graduated from Baylor College of Medicine after completing the Fellowship Program in Pediatric Hematology/Oncology at Texas Children’s Cancer Center. Dr. Rayne Rouce is an avid volunteer, and has volunteered for several years for programs for children with cancer and other life-threatening diseases.

Dr. Kaysia Ludford, Assistant Professor of General Oncology, MD Anderson Cancer Center,

Dr. Kaysia Ludford is in the Division of Cancer Medicine, University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center, Houston Texas. She completed her Clinical Residency in Internal Medicine with Brigham and Women's Hospital, in Boston, and her Fellowship Residency, Medical Oncology/Hematology; The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center, Houston, Texas. Her institutional committee activities include, Health Disparities, Diversity and Inclusion Committee, Global Oncology Interest Group, and Partners in Health. She is the recipient of numerous awards including the AACR

Gertrude B. Elion Cancer Research Award; Yale University Downs International Health Student Travel Fellowship, Phi Beta Academic Honor Society, Olive Lammert Prize for Excellence in Chemistry, and Sigma XI Scientific Research Society. Dr. Ludford is the co-author of extensive peer-reviewed articles related to cancer, HIV-related sexual risk behavior, and stem cell transplantation.

Erika Pomares, LMSW

Erika Pomares (LMSW), is a Social Worker with LLS Patient and Community Outreach Organization. Including the University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center Disparities and Community Outreach team, she has partnered with various educational programs for more than 15 years. Her outreach efforts focus on underserved and minority communities. She works on community outreach with family support groups, individual patients with specific needs, as well as manage educational sessions for cancer patients.

Bristol-Myers Squibb

GILEAD

MERCK

Genentech
IN BUSINESS FOR LIFE