1) Of the respondents, 67% had breast cancer; 16% persons had prostate cancer and 8% had lung and multiple myeloma each.

2) Of the respondents, 50% rated themselves as at the 7 level of healthy; 16% rated themselves as at the 5 level; and at the 9 level; and 8% rated health at the 6 and at the 10 levels.

3) Of the respondents, 25% rated their knowledge of multiple myeloma as at a 4; 17% rated their knowledge of multiple myeloma as a 5, as a 8 and as an 1; 8% rated their knowledge of multiple myeloma as at 3 and as a 6 and as a 7.
4) Of those who responded, 25% persons rated their knowledge of prostrate at the 8 level; 17% rate their level of knowledge at level 10, 4, and 1 and 8% rated their level of knowledge at level 2, 5, and 9.

5) Of those who responded, 58% rated breast cancer knowledge as 10; 17% rate their level of knowledge as 9 and 7; one rated their level of knowledge as 8% and no one rated their level of knowledge at 6 or below.

Of the respondents, 86% said the best way to reach them was via email; 10% said either email or cell and 3% said cell.

Of the respondents, 83% said that they would get at least 4 others to come to the next McCaW; 14% did not know, yet and 3% said they would not.
Of those who responded, 69% have church group in their networks; 10% have cancer groups and family in their networks; 3% have sororities in their network and 7% have "none" or no listed group in their network.

86% said yes, they wanted to be contacted.

Of the respondents, 52% said that they understand risks for cancer-related to screening; 38% were not sure if they understand the risks and 10% said no, they did not understand the risks for cancer related to screenings.

Of the respondents, 62% said that they understand the risk-factors with cancer-related to treatment; 28% said that they were not sure; 28% were not sure and 10% said no, they did not understand the risk-factors with cancer-related to treatment.
Of the respondents, 83% said that they understand additional precautions to ensure their and their loved one’s safety; 14% were not sure; 3% said no, they did not understand additional precautions to ensure their or their loved one’s safety.

Of the respondents, 28% said that they learned something new or understand better about lung cancer; 21% said that they learned more about breast cancer, and 21% that they want more information and 10% to want something new and or understand better about prostate cancer.

Of the respondents, the overwhelming majority, 90%, said that the speaker topic that they enjoyed the most was the discussion of COVID-19.

The majority, 55%, rated McCaw as excellent; 31% said that it was very interesting and 14% said that it kept their attention.
12) Of the respondents, 57% said yes, they felt that chemotherapy or radiation raised their risk of getting COVID-19; 33% said, don’t know about chemotherapy or radiation raising their risk of getting COVID-19; and 10% said no, in other words, they did not think that it did.

13) Of the respondents, 77% said that yes, they know the CDC recommendations; 13% do not know the CDC recommendations and 10% don’t know if they know these recommendations or not.

14) Of the respondents, 77% said that they thought that lung cancer put them most at risk during COVID-19; 50% said breast, multiple myeloma and prostate cancers put them at risk; 38% said none of the above.

15) Of the respondents, the highest number, 19%, rated that they have a level of 9 and a level of 5 in terms of comfort in the Corona Zone; 15% said that they had a level of 10, and 7 in terms of comfort zone; 11% said that they were at a level 3 in comfort in the Corona Zone; 7% had a level 4 and a level 1 in terms of comfort in the Corona Zone; and 3% had a level of 8 and 6 in terms of comfort in the Corona Zone.

Of the respondents, the highest number, 22%, rated a level of 9 regarding safety; 19% said that they had a level of 8; 15% had a level of 7 and a level of 5 regarding safety; 7% had a level of 10, a level of 6, and a level of 3; 4% said that they had a level 2, and a level of 1 regarding safety in the Corona Zone.