Ed and Pat Sanders, Founders 50 Hoops™

WELCOME, and thank YOU for joining us LIVE for an exciting discussion with Leading Doctors and Experts in our PREMIER Mobile Cancer Conferences and Workshops

Cancer in African Americans
NAVIGATING in “THE CORONA ZONE”

Ed and Pat started 50 Hoops™ 22 years ago and today 50 Hoops remains the only National Prostate Cancer Basketball Tournaments in the country of that tenure. The company’s half dozen diverse patient and medical education programs include Patient Lecture Series, extensive survey database, African American Health Matters, its mobile health text message service, and Medical Education programs related to recruitment of minorities into clinical trials. 50 Hoops’ national events have toured over four-dozen cities, Network Coordinators, partners Cancer Coalitions, and worked with 102 networks and entities over the years. 50 Hoops has built relationships with some of the most prominent hospitals, and physicians in the U.S. in their continuing quest to educate communities about diseases, treatment options and trials that impact African Americans.
