

SPORTS-INSPIRED Living

From fitness to family fun, we design and build custom spaces that bring energy, play, and performance into your home. Whether it's a home gym or a backyard court, our features are custom-crafted with precision, safety, and style.

As proud St. Louis locals, Court Builders of St. Louis (formerly Sport Court St. Louis) brings unmatched experience and personal investment to every project. With over 700 courts built since 2011, we understand the region's building codes, weather patterns, and environmental factors. From your first consultation to long after installation, we're with you every step of the way—and we'll be here for the life of your court.
