JOKELA ESTATE LAW, APC

SMS Terms of Service

Last Updated: October 30, 2026

Text Messaging Program and Consent

Jokela Estate Law, APC ("Firm") provides nonmarketing text communications to clients and prospective clients who opt in. Consent may be provided through the optional checkbox on the Firm's website contact form or an express SMS consent provision in a signed legal services agreement. Providing a phone number alone does not enroll you in this program.

By opting in, you agree to receive text messages from the Firm at the mobile number you provide, including responses to inquiries, communications about your matter, appointment scheduling, confirmations, and reminders. Message frequency varies. Message and data rates may apply. Consent is voluntary and is not a condition of retaining the Firm or receiving legal services.

Opt-Out and Assistance

Reply STOP to opt out or HELP for assistance. You may also contact (805) 601-7710 or Russell@JokelaLaw.com for help or to withdraw consent. After an opt-out request, you may receive a confirmation of that request. If you decline or withdraw consent, the Firm will communicate through other available methods. Message delivery depends on your mobile carrier and is not guaranteed.

SMS Privacy

The Firm does not sell, rent, or share mobile phone numbers or SMS opt-in information and consent with third parties or affiliates for marketing or promotional purposes. The Firm uses this information to provide the messages you requested and manage consent and opt-outs. Information may be provided to trusted service providers solely as necessary to operate this messaging program, subject to confidentiality requirements and restrictions on use for other purposes.

These terms apply to the nonmarketing SMS program described above. For additional information about the Firm's privacy practices, please see its Privacy Policy.
