

A WEEKEND IN Santa Fe

new mexico out & allied business alliance

SANTA FE PLAZA

- The historic center of the city, surrounded by shops and cafes.

PALACE OF THE GOVERNORS

- Oldest continuously used public building in the US, often with a Native artisan market outside.

GEORGIA O'KEEFFE MUSEUM

- A collection dedicated to the artist who painted much of northern New Mexico.

CANYON ROAD

- A walkable street lined with more than a hundred art galleries.

DINNER NEAR THE PLAZA

- Traditional New Mexican fare in historic adobe settings

CROSS OF THE MARTYRS

- A short uphill walk with panoramic views of the city and mountains.

