

Haiti - House #219 Juliana Fouyol Family

Juliana Fouyol is a widow who gave birth to fourteen children and lives now in the pitiful shanty you see in the “before” picture with four of them and several grandchildren. She is a Christian woman but not Catholic, She has been coming Mass on Sunday in order to possibly have a better chance to receive a new home. Fr. Joe explained to her that we want to help everyone in need that we possibly can but that we have a responsibility toward our Catholic faithful first. There also was a practical problem of getting to her place because of the terrible condition of the road, especially during the rainy season. Undaunted, she has continued to come with her family regularly to Sunday mass to hope, dream and pray. After many considerations (and the seeming intervention of Almighty God on the part of this persistent lady) the HMI selection team decided to finally build that home that they have been praying so diligently for! They send their prayers and thankful appreciation to all who have helped to make this miracle a reality in their lives.
