

Haiti - House #224 The Milord Family

Jean Robert Milord and his wife, Lorsa Bazard, live with their only child in the crumbling shanty that you see in the “before” picture. Tragically, they recently lost their other very kind and smart young daughter from a terrible and unknown disease. They are a lovely Christian couple, known throughout the community as hard working, having a roadside stand where they are vendors of little items. They are very respectful and polite, quietly praying for many years for the miracle of a new house. The HMI selection team is happy to bring joy to their lives this month or June 2021 and for many years to come by building them a new home. They send their heartfelt appreciation and thanksgiving to all who have helped in any way to make this possible.
