

Haiti - House #254 Noel family

Mackency Noel, his wife, Esther Pierre, their baby and one other child have been living in this old blue tarp, make shift tent you see in the “before” picture in a little hamlet called Cavin which is in Upper Bec’s s/d. He works as a motorcycle taxi driver and she does what she can to sell little items to help their family. They are devout Catholics, travelling the several mile distance one way to attend Mass almost all Sundays, asking God to somehow help them. In January 2022, their prayer was answered. They are so appreciative and send their assurance of prayerful thanksgiving to those who helped give them a hand up out of their misery.
