

Haiti House #260 Rene'

Betty Arlete and Anfils Rene are married and living with their 4 children (in the pitiful piecemeal shanty you see in the “before” picture) in a small community in Upper Bec's s/d area called Tiga. As most of the women in the area do, Betty sells small items and things that they grow on the roadside and in the market in Jeremie, helping as best she can, her husband who is a teacher, to care of the household. (They also do farming.) They are Catholics and come as often they can to Sunday mass. They have been praying hard to be granted a new decent home for many years. Their prayer is finally answered thanks to HMI. They send their heartfelt prayers of Thanksgiving for all who helped in any way to make this possible.
