

Haiti - House #268 Lissa Laurent

Lissa Laurent and his wife, Maquisse Nicolas, have six children. Lissa is a hard worker who does farming while his wife sells products from that garden on the side of the road and in the market in Jeremie. They have been living in this crumbling, tarpaulin covered shanty that you see in the “before” picture for quite a few years. It's basically uninhabitable now by any standards. Although Lissa never was much of a churchgoer and never considered giving thanks to the Lord for all he had done for him and his family, when the pandemic started he began coming to church and has been a faithful participant every week since then. He always sitting in the special place in the new church which is affectionately called "Ti kwen Priye Bec's" or Bec's little prayer corner, His devotion to Rebecca Claire has paid off in a big way. In May of 2022 his family has been blessed with a new home to give them a decent place to raise their family and in which to live. They send their prayerful Thanksgiving to everyone who helped make this possible.

Before

After

