

Haiti House #278 – Bonhomme House

Judith Bonhomme is a single mother with one daughter. She sells fried chicken and fish that she cooks in her roadside stand to provide for herself and her daughter. She is a Catholic who attends church regularly with her daughter. It is easy to see that her situation is quite desperate and also easy to see why she thanks God for the safe home that generous people are building through HMI.

Before

After

