

Haiti House #317 - Jonése Delus

Jonése Delus, and her husband, Samuel Jean Louis, are trying hard to raise their three beautiful sons. Jonése, like many women, has a small roadside stand and does a small amount of commerce, while Samuel works as a taxi driver. To move out of their pitiful little shack is more than they could ever have hoped for. It is easy to see why they praise God for his tender care and for calling HMI donors to respond to their need. They are thrilled to have been chosen for a wonderful, new home.
