

Haiti House #318 - Daniel Berthomieux

Daniel Berthomieux is a security agent at the Unibank in Jeremie, and his wife, Yakine Lafleur, has a small road side stand. The condition of his home has been deplorable, especially during the heavy rains of hurricane season. Daniel has been asking for years for a new home but until recently, the conditions of the roads to his home have made that impossible. The family is filled with joy that this situation has been resolved and that they are able to move into their beautiful new home.

Before

After

