

Haiti House #353 Rebert Toto

Rebert Toto is a tailor and his wife, Lisette Suffrin, is a butcher. They have six children, all of whom study at the Jeremie Vocational School. About two years ago, unknown thugs burned down their home and so they have lived in the awful conditions that you see in the photo. It is not hard to imagine the joy that family felt at being chosen to receive a new home. They send up their prayers of thanksgiving to God and to the people who have taken them out of such an awful situation.
