

Haiti House #372 Lannecie Syffrain

Though Syffrain Lannecie is not married and has no children of her own, she is responsible for a family nonetheless. She cares for her younger brother, one of her nieces and a nephew who is an orphan. She cares for her family by selling used clothes which has made providing a decent home for them a wild dream. She praises God for the gift of a new home and thanks the donors who have made it possible.
