

Haiti House #416 Sonel Jeudy

Sonel Jeudy works in construction and in animal health care. His wife, Katiana Dominique, works as an agronomy technician. So far, they have no children of their own but they do have two of their nephews who share their pitiful little shack. They have been given great hope in being chosen to receive a new home because now they know that their future children will grow up in a decent place to live.

Before

After

