

Haiti House #422 Rosevaline Luc Appolon

Rosevaline Luc Appolon and her husband, Marius Wislet, live in Numero Deux. They have one daughter and are well known in the community. Rose is a teacher and Marius is a mason but they never seem to be able to stay employed consistently enough, like so many in Haiti, to provide for themselves a decent home. After asking for many years for a home it is easy to understand how thrilled they are to have their beautiful, new home. They thank God and everyone who is involved.
