

Haiti House #424 Jean Benisse Noel

Jean Benisse Noel and his wife, Marie Elvita Joseph, live in Ravine Sable with three of their four children and two of their grandchildren. Jean is a farmer and Marie is a seamstress but, as you can imagine, in Haiti that barely provides what is needed for such a large family. Moving out of their pitiful shack was just a dream for them, so it is easy to imagine their joy at being in their new home in time to celebrate Easter. They thank God and the donors who made it all possible.
