

Haiti House #425 Gilberte Luc

Gilberte Luc has a small roadside stand where she sells food in Numero Deux. She lives with her four children there and though they all work very hard to make ends meet, the house they were living in was in great danger of falling down. Without God intervening they had no hope of ever changing their situation. Their joy is understandable as is their extreme gratitude to God and the donors for their amazing gift.

Before

After

