

Haiti House #430 Cassandre Luc

Cassandre Luc and her husband, Jean Kendy Luma, live with their daughter in Numero Deux. Cassandre is finishing her training as a nurse and Jean works as a security agent. In her youth Cassandre was one of the altar servers at Our Lady of the Assumption and she is currently a member of one of the choirs there. When you see the tin shack that they lived in before, it is easy to understand the joy of this family over their new home. They send their thanks to God and to the donors who have provided for their family.
