Haiti House #439 Cassandre François

Cassandre François is a single mother who lives with her only child in Kay An Ron. In a very big effort to improve life for her child and herself, she is currently a student in a teachers college in Jeremie. She has been asking and praying for a decent home for she and her son. She is thrilled and praises God for answering her prayers. She sends her thanks and prayers to those who have made this miracle possible.

Before

After

