Programs to get you thinking:

Jeopardy

A spin-off of the famous Jeopardy show! Each time, we will have six categories with six questions in each category. You are sure to learn something new during this friendly competition.

Scattergories

The Scattergories game is the fast-thinking game of categories and words! Players race against the timer as they write down answers. Score points for writing down things no one else did. The more creative the answers, the more points you score.

Brain Games

Every Monday at 11:00am, join Jamie to challenge your mind with different brain games! Each week we will be doing something different to exercise different areas of our brain.

PBS Series: The American Revolution

The American Revolution, a 6-part (we will break it up into 12 parts) film from Ken Burns, explores how thirteen colonies rose against the British Empire, won independence, and launched a new form of government that reshaped the world. Highlighting pivotal moments from Lexington and Concord to Valley Forge and Yorktown, this landmark history special illuminates America's struggle for freedom and a turning point in shaping democracy.

Great Courses & Discussion: The American Revolution

Why did 13 colonies believe they could defeat the most powerful nation on the planet? And how did they manage such a feat? Get the real story on the battle for American independence with these 24 lectures masterfully delivered by Professor Allen Guelzo of Gettysburg College.

TED Talks & Discussion

TED is a nonprofit devoted to spreading ideas, usually in the form of short, powerful talks, called "TED talks." TED stands for Technology, Entertainment, Design – three broad subject areas that are collectively shaping our world. But a TED conference is broader still, showcasing important research and ideas from all disciplines and exploring how they connect.

Lecture by Forensic Scientist Bill Wilson

Tuesday, June 2nd at 7:00 pm in the Great Room

Our speaker, Bill Wilson, recently retired from the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office after a distinguished 45-year career in forensic science and medicolegal death investigation. He holds degrees from Michigan State University and George Washington University, and has testified as an expert witness in multiple forensic fields across Illinois, Ohio, and Wisconsin. Bill has also served as a guest lecturer, adjunct professor, and currently contributes to the Vidocq Society, which investigates cold cases nationwide. He is the brother of our Director of Operations, Maureen Broom, and the son of former resident, the late Alice Wilson.

The Deerfield Community Concert Band will be kicking off the first Gazebo Night of 2026. This band was started in 1969 and is a community-based organization sponsored by the Deerfield Park District. It consists of members from Chicago's northern suburbs. The band performs a series of concerts each season, and Chestnut Square resident Royce Masterson is a proud member!

Music & Lecture by John Boda: Gene Kelly: The Song and Dance Man

Tuesday, June 16th at 7:00 pm in the Great Room

This lecture covers the amazing life of Gene Kelly condensed into one hour, with select songs performed along with select dances from vintage clips! Although he had no official partner like Fred Astaire, the closest he came was with Judy Garland, and some of their songs and dances together will also be featured such as “Ballin’ the Jack”, “Meet Me in St. Louis”, “Love is Here to Stay”, and of course, several of Kelly’s classics like “Singing in the Rain” and more!

Musical Performance by Frederick Moyer

Tuesday, June 23rd at 7:00 pm in the Great Room

Frederick Moyer is one of the most exciting pianists before the public today. Equally at home with Bach, Beethoven and Rachmaninoff, as well as Ellington and Gershwin, his recitals are creative, engaging and entertaining...and generally include time-honored favorites as well as pieces that audiences may be hearing for the first time. Also featured is his MoyerCam, a projection system that allows the audience to see his hands as he plays!
