Programs to get you thinking:

Jeopardy

A spin-off of the famous Jeopardy show! Each time, we will have six categories with six questions in each category. You are sure to learn something new during this friendly competition.

Scattergories

The Scattergories game is the fast-thinking game of categories and words! Players race against the timer as they write down answers. Score points for writing down things no one else did. The more creative the answers, the more points you score.

Brain Games

Every Monday at 11:00am, join Jamie to challenge your mind with different brain games! Each week we will be doing something different to exercise different areas of our brain.

One Day University

One Day University offers virtual lectures from America's most popular professors. One Day University works closely with these professors to develop the most engaging talks on a variety of topics that inform and inspire us. Topics will be announced on the weekly highlights & listed on the daily calendars.

Great Courses & Discussion:

Ancient Empires Before Alexander

Discover the dozen empires that flourished in the 2,000 years before the conquests of Alexander the Great; follow them as they rise to glory, create administrative and military structures, clash with one another, and eventually collapse.

TED Talks

TED is a nonprofit devoted to spreading ideas, usually in the form of short, powerful talks, called "TED talks." TED stands for Technology, Entertainment, Design — three broad subject areas that are collectively shaping our world. But a TED conference is broader still, showcasing important research and ideas from all disciplines and exploring how they connect.

CONCERT BAND

Lecture by Gary Midkiff: U.S. Civil War

Thursday, March 26th at 1:00pm in the Great Room

This series will examine the war from five overlapping perspectives: battles, generals and admirals, presidents (Jefferson Davis and Abraham Lincoln), political dynamics and significant individuals.

Historian Shelby Foote said that to truly understand the character of the United States, you first have to understand the Civil War. Professor Gary Midkiff, who has studied the Civil War for 50 years, agrees. As Gary leads participants through these six sessions, he will expand their knowledge of the Civil War and explain how that knowledge allows a better understanding of many of the societal issues we face today.

Lecture by Cyndee Schaffer:

The Journey of Mollie's War: WACs and WWII

Tuesday, March 31st at 7:00pm in the Great Room

Cyndee uses excerpts from her mother's letters written home during WWII to provide a romantic yet frightful glimpse into the life of a woman in uniform during this crucial time in history.

Cyndee will detail her mother's experiences from basic training in 1943 to a dramatic image of seeing the Statue of Liberty in the midst of darkness in November 1945 when she returned home.

March Outings

Senior Discount Day at Walgreens

Tuesday, March 3rd / Departing at 2:00pm
